Marks,2006-03-30 Diana

Marks looks at children's and young adult book awards in depth. The history, award criteria, and a biography of the person behind each of the well-known awards is included. Also of interest are lists of the winners in each category, teaching and exploration activities, reproducible teaching aides, and a timeline of events leading up to the establishment of the award. Information about well-known awards is accompanied by information on the lesser-known Pura Belpré, Jane Addams, etc. Information is formatted in quick, easy-to-read tables and charts suitable for classroom duplication. Although some of this information is available online, this is a one-stop handbook that contains lesser-known awards and offers activities for enriching the study of each award, whether well-known or not. The Book Tree Elizabeth McCallum, Jane Scott, 2008. Literary habits naturally give way to literary affections. Once upon a time a carpenter entered a forest and happened upon a wolf wearing a feathered cap. Quick, whose side are you on? If you don't know, we suggest reading a hearty round of fairytales. Stories provide a roadmap for life. This is because stories are life. But oftentimes it's easiest to understand where we are when we can look through other eyes from the perspective of someone else living somewhere else, somewhen else. For those beginning to read for the first time or those beginning to read again, The Book Tree will drop golden apples in your lap until you can climb high enough to pick for yourself.

Literature Connections to World History K-6 Lynda G. Adamson, 1998-04-15. Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels, biographies, history trade books, CD-ROMs, and videotapes help you locate world history resources for students. Each is divided into two sections. In the first part, titles are listed according to grade levels within specific geographic areas and time periods. They are further organized by product type. Both books cover world history from Prehistory and the Ancient World to 54 B.C. to the modern era. Other chapters include Roman Empire to A.D. 476, Europe and the British Isles, Africa and South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Pacific Islands, and Antarctica, Canada, China, India, Tibet, and Burma, Israel and Arab Countries, Japan, Vietnam, Korea, Cambodia, and Thailand, and South and Central America and the Caribbean. The second section has an annotated bibliography that describes each title and includes publication information and awards. The focus is on books published since 1990, and all have received at least one favorable review.

Recreating the Past Lynda G. Adamson, 1994-06-30. Spanning grades 1-10, this annotated bibliography of 970 recommended American and world titles published through early 1994 includes adult titles suitable for young readers. At least 200 of the titles are award winners. In support of interdisciplinary English and social studies curricula, librarians and teachers can easily assemble a basic list of books on a geographical place and time period. Geographical sections are divided into historical time periods within which entries are organized alphabetically by author. Each entry contains both reading and interest grade levels, a short incisive annotation about the historical event, setting, plot, protagonist, and theme, current publication availability, and awards won. Seven reference appendices allow for easy searching. These helpful appendices and an authors' titles and an illustrators' index help to make this volume a critical professional tool.
