The Hearts Of Darkness How White Writers Created The Racist Image Of Africa:

The Hearts of Darkness Milton Allimadi,2002 The America That I Didn't Know Existed Francis

Kwarteng,2020-09-09 The American Dream is a popular concept It is a celebrated mantra But does it really exist Even if it does is it for everyone The American experiment tells a different story Examples abound of many for whom the American Dream is an empty rhetoric Although America prides itself on liberal ideas of equity social justice and equality for all harnessing the potential benefits of the American Dream is far from true for many hardworking educated Americans Inasmuch as the American Dream may exist for some white privilege employment and educational discrimination racism may stand in the way of achieving one s fullest potential This is compounded by the Eurocentric content of the American curriculum which denies equal representation to non white Americans in the marketplace of ideas reinforcing their sociopolitical and epistemic marginalization In a remarkably wide ranging and moving book Francis Kwarteng has provided us with one of the most honest and earnest assessments of what immigrants find in the United States The book The America That I Didn t Know Existed reminds me of the complex reasons people are attracted to the American society and the disappointment that they find when they sometimes discover that what one reads about America is not truly the best way to know America Kwarteng has lived studied and learned in America and he counts these experiences as blessings as anyone would who has seen possibilities However this determined intellectual has shown us a path forward with acceptance and humanity This riveting book has the making of an incredibly powerful drama as well Molefi Kete Asante author of Erasing Racism The Survival of the American Nation Francis Kwarteng s book recounts his personal journey to America by reliving the challenges and struggles he had to overcome to realize that the dream he once imagined was only a mirage The author provides the rationale behind his decision to come to America and the subsequent disillusion with the gap between his aspirations and realities on American soil Framed within the intellectual lens of Afrocentricity Kwarteng exposes and critiques the prevailing dominance of Eurocentric constructs that systemically dehumanizes and perforce disempowers persons of African descent The result of this is a readable empowering page turning memoir that will resonate with every African immigrant Kwame Akonor is Associate Professor of Political Science at Seton Hall University USA founding director of the New York based African Development Institute and author of African Economic Institutions An Intellectual Biography of Africa Francis Kwarteng,2022-07-13 Africa is the birthplace of humanity and civilization And yet people generally don t want to accept the scientific impression of Africa as the birthplace of human civilization The skeptics include Africans themselves a direct result of the colonial educational systems still in place across Africa and even those Africans who acquire Western education particularly in the humanities have been trapped in the symptomatology of epistemic peonage These colonial educational systems have overstayed their welcome and should be dismantled This is where African agency comes in Agential autonomy deserves an authoritative voice in shaping the curricular direction of Africa Agential autonomy implicitly sanctions an Afrocentric approach to curriculum development pedagogy historiography literary theory indigenous language development and knowledge construction Science technology engineering mathematics information and communications technology STEM ICT and research and development R D both exercise foundational leverage in the scientific and cultural discourse of the kind of African Renaissance Cheikh Anta Diop envisaged Mr Francis Kwarteng has written a book that looks at some of the major distortions of African history and Africa's major contributions to human civilization In this context Mr Kwarteng joins a long list of thinkers who roundly reject the foundational Eurocentric epistemology of Africa in favor of an Afrocentric paradigm of Africa's material spiritual scientific and epistemic assertion Mr Kwarteng places S T E M and a revision of the humanities at the center of the African Renaissance and critiques Eurocentric fantasies about Africa and its Diaspora following the critical examples of Cheikh Anta Diop Ama Mazama Molefi Kete Asante Abdul Karim Bangura Theophile Obenga Maulana Karenga Mubabingo Bilolo Kwame Nkrumah Ivan Van Sertima W E B Du Bois and several others Readers of this book will be challenged to look at Africa through a critical lens Ama Mazama editor author of Africa in the 21st Century Toward a New Future There are countless books about the evolution of European intellectual thought but scarcely any that captures the pioneering contributions of Africans since the beginning of recorded knowledge in Kemet a.k.a Ancient Egypt Well that long drought has ended with the publication of Kwarteng's An Intellectual Biography of Africa A Philosophical Anatomy of Advancing Africa the Diopian Way Prepare to be educated Milton Allimadi author of Manufacturing Hate How Africa Was Demonized in the Media Culpability of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade Abdul Karim Bangura, 2016-12-07 This book contributes to the debate over the culpability of the Trans Atlantic Slave from various disciplinary perspectives The general thesis that undergirds the book is that by knowing who was predisposed to benefit the most from the trade and why prompting them to initiate it appropriate culpability can be assigned This approach also allowed for a more in depth analysis of the issue from many disciplines making it the first of its kind For the sake of cohesion and coherence some of the major questions addressed by every chapter are quite similar albeit authors were encouraged to fine tune and add to these questions to meet their disciplinary requirements By emphasizing the why in some of the questions a qualitative explanatory case study approach was utilized Both primary and secondary data sources were also used for each chapter to offer a cogent analysis and new information on the topic The Biafran War and Postcolonial Humanitarianism Lasse Heerten, 2017-09-28 In the summer of 1968 audiences around the globe were shocked when newspapers and television stations confronted them with photographs of starving children in the secessionist Republic of Biafra This global concern fundamentally changed how the Nigerian Civil War was perceived an African civil war that had been fought for one year without fostering any substantial interest from international publics became Biafra the epitome of humanitarian crisis Based on archival research from North America Western Europe and Sub Saharan Africa this book is the first comprehensive study of the global history of the conflict A major addition to the flourishing history of human rights and humanitarianism it argues that the global moment Biafra is closely linked to the ascendance of human rights humanitarianism and Holocaust memory in a postcolonial world The conflict was a key episode for the re structuring of the relations between the West and the Third World The International Relations of Sub-Saharan Africa Ian Taylor,2010-04-01 This title examines Sub Saharan Africa s relations with states such as the US India China the EU and Britain as well as with non state actors The International Relations of Sub Saharan Africa is an in depth examination Africa s place in global politics The book provides a comprehensive and critical appraisal of the ways in which peace prosperity and democracy are being advanced or restricted by the activities of the great powers in Africa including non state actors as well as who benefits from these policies and who does not The book is a needed comparative study of the role of great powers and new actors such as China and India in Africa within the wider context of neo liberal hegemony It fills a gap in the literature and will be of interest to any student of the continent Its focus on external actors contributes to providing a fuller picture of Africa s place in the global political economy and how the continent interacts with the rest of the world This is an essential work for anyone researching issues in international relations comparative foreign policies and African politics

Contemporary Africa and the Foreseeable World Order Gilad Ben-Nun,Cristina D'Alessandro,Zach Levey,Francis Onditi,2019-04-10 Contemporary Africa and the Foreseeable World Ordersheds light on theplace of Africa Agency in the competitive and changing global system This book provides scholars policymakers and other stakeholders studying and working on African issues with innovative solutions strategies knowledge insights case studies and analyses to support decision making on how best African states should position themselves in the dynamic global system in order to influence key decisions Featuring themes such as the African Union AU and the consequences of the discovery of oil in the non traditional oil exporting countries the editors and contributors have demonstrated why and how Africa s position in the foreseeable world order is largely dependent on the influence of both existing and emerging world powers Narratives of Storytelling across Cultures Tony R. DeMars,Gabriel B. Tait,2019-09-18 Narratives of Storytelling Across Cultures demonstrates how meaning found within interpersonal communication is not universal across all cultures Miscommunication can occur when the foundations of cultural meaning within stories as told socially and within media vary among different cultures Positioned within the communication and media field this book connects issues of societal tension and political battles to media portrayals social communication events and power dynamics that result when people with different meanings systems attempt to negotiate truth among their competing narratives After establishing the theoretical foundation of the book contributors provide specific case studies that demonstrate underlying cultural components and complexities that lead to these issues Tony R DeMars and Gabriel Tait have assembled contributors with research experience and understanding of intercultural communication challenges in different social groups allowing the book to take on a broader scope of intercultural communication Scholars of communication conflict resolution political science sociology and media studies will find this book particularly useful African, American David Peterson del Mar,2017-06-15 Africa has long gripped the American imagination From the Edenic wilderness of Edgar Rice Burroughs s Tarzan novels to the black Zion of Garvey s Back to Africa movement all manner of Americans whether white or black male or female have come to see Africa as an idealized stage on which they can fashion new more authentic selves In this remarkable panoramic work David Peterson del Mar explores the ways in which American fantasies of Africa have evolved over time as well as the role of Africans themselves in subverting American attitudes to their continent Spanning seven decades from the post war period to the present day and encompassing sources ranging from literature film and music to accounts by missionaries aid workers and travel writers African American is a fascinating deconstruction of Africa as it exists in the American mindset Media and Identity in Africa John Middleton,Kimani Njogu,2010-01-04 What is the role of the media in Africa How do they work How do they interact with global media How do they reflect and express local culture Incorporating both African and international perspectives Media and Identity in Africa demonstrates how media outlets are used to perpetuate question or modify the unequal power relations between Africa and the rest of the world Discussions about the construction of old and new social entities which are defined by class gender ethnicity political and economic differences wealth poverty cultural behavior language and religion dominate these new assessments of communications media in Africa This volume addresses the tensions between the global and the local that have inspired creative control and use of traditional and modern forms of media
