The Little Tin Roof House:

The Little Tin Roof House Timothy G. Brown, 2002-05-01 Brown's book is about life in the 1950s concerning a poor family's experience and the love of two parents for their children. Because of this love from the parents, they were able to experience a happy childhood.

The Secrets of Bridgewater Bay Julie Brooks, 2021-09-16 Two women set sail for Australia bound by a terrible truth. But only one will make it off the ship. The writing is polished and evocative; the twists and turns are surprising, and the characters' stories are emotionally compelling. reader review Stunning! Julie Brooks has written an impeccably researched novel with a wonderful sense of history and character. I thoroughly recommend it to lovers of historical fiction. reader review An incredibly moving story of two women. Beautifully written, the book draws you in from the start. It's very emotional as the story moves from the different timelines. reader review The Secrets of Bridgewater Bay is a darkly gripping dual time novel with a wealth of twists, turns, and secrets, and an absolute book club treat perfect for fans of Lucinda Riley, Rachel Rhys, and Hannah Richell. A sweeping tale of family secrets, betrayal, jealousy, ambition, and forbidden romance. Fans of The Thorn Birds and Downton Abbey will love the epic scope of this novel. ALI MERCER I thoroughly enjoyed this immersive story which spans both generations and continents. The evocative details and impeccable research make for a delightful reading experience, and I can pay it no greater compliment other than to say I wish I'd written it.

KATHRYN HUGHES This is an epic dual time novel which draws the reader in right from the start and keeps you in thrall until the very last page. The writing is superb; the descriptions detailed, lush, and evocative.

CHRISTINA COURTENAY A gripping story full of family secrets, the price of love and loss within two generations, convincing and poignant.

LEAH FLEMING Rich in evocative detail, the complex mystery kept me guessing right up to the last page.

MUNA SHEHADI England 1919. Rose and Ivy board a ship bound for Australia. One is travelling there to marry a man she has never met. One is destined never to arrive Australia. 2016. Amongst her late grandmother's possessions, Molly uncovers a photograph of two girls dressed in First World War nurses' uniforms, labelled Rose and Ivy 1917, and a letter from her grandmother asking her to find out what happened to her own mother, Rose, who disappeared in the 1960s. Compelled to carry out her grandmother's last wish, Molly embarks on a journey to England to unravel the mystery of the two girls whose photograph promised they'd be together forever.

Readers LOVE The Secrets of Bridgewater Bay. This story was gripping and a joy to read. A touching and beautifully written story of friendship. I was totally gripped from the start; it was well written with good characters, and I loved the dual timeline aspect. There was so much going on in this story, and I just couldn't put it down. An emotional book, well written and interesting. I could imagine this book being discussed in book club. A book a treasure. A wealth of secrets. Look for Julie's next compelling novel, The Keepsake.

Inside Honduras Jerry Tate, 2013-08-28 It is my goal to use the proceeds from the sale of this book to help the children of Honduras, not only financially but emotionally and physically as well. Love, attention, and private schools are the answers. But the main thing is showing love as Jesus Christ did when He came into the hearts of

from the U S Navy following World War II he began as an announcer at WSON Henderson Kentucky The next several years found him employed in positions of announcer or manager at WIKY Evansville Indiana WITZ Jasper Indiana WPEO Peoria Illinois and WRAY Princeton Indiana Eventually he and partner Thomas Land built owned and managed WFIW Fairfield Illinois and WJBD Salem Illinois While he had written reams of radio commercials this book a record of his life was Mr Davidsons first attempt at narrative writing and it chronicles his successes and his failures His intended purpose for this memoir was to attest to his strong faith in Jesus Christ He also hoped that his story might inspire young people to hold onto their dreams regardless of financial hardship temporary setbacks or discouragement From his own experiences he knew that dreams can be fulfilled and goals can be achieved Life in a small Alabama coal mining town during the Great Depression was hard as dried jerky and twice as tough Mr Davidsons recollections of his fathers years of working in coal mines and his mothers fierce determination to feed themselves and their only child is a tribute to the American spirit Interlaced with humor pathos and drama Mr Davidsons written words echo his distinctive radio voice Against all odds Bryan Davidson built and maintained a successful radio station in Salem Illinois one that continues to thrive and serve the community well

Subversive Mission Craig Greenfield,2022-11-01 Some see missions as the story of heroes and martyrs others see only colonialism and missionary disasters How do we respond to God s call to love our neighbors in this new era Craig Greenfield offers a radically different way of doing missions calling outsiders to be humble alongsiders in the work God is already doing

Queenslanders Rod Fisher,2016 In a single timely tome Rod Fisher packs a lot of what s known about the history of the timbered house in Qld the sum of research writing and practice over 4 decades While breaking new ground on its origin and development the first 4 chapters concern several key themes 1 the evolution of a Vernacular class of housing in the north of Australia from aboriginal to modern day comprising a series of styles and the means of identifying each one by era and attribute 2 the historical context to traditional housing using census data and contemporary testimony to amplify its configuration which reflects cyclical condition personal choice and social acceptance 3 the human dimension to the main varieties of habitat and its environment specifically the pros and cons of observers and occupants of the day followed by resolution of their discrepancies 4 whether Brisbane was in any way different from the rest of the state examining which varieties made the greatest imprint from elite and multiple types to the predominant gabled hipped pyramidal and later multi gabled dwellings of the Vernacular tradition The next couple of chapters are casestudies illustrating those aspects particularly the evolution of traditional housing and the impact of historical change Though set in Brisbane they reflect larger issues 5 the early inner suburb of Petrie Terrace which exhibits not only changes in timbered housing over time but also the effect of road improvement shopping centre diversion stadium development building renovation and gentrification more generally 6 a timbered dwelling of nearby Bowen Hills which being modified several times in its lifetime and finally removed elsewhere demonstrates change as well as the influence of the locale and the impact of transportation improvements on housing and community At the same time this volume serves as a guide and reference partly by information advice and example but more specifically by means of the handy classification of Vernacular styles in the 1st chapter and ultimately by instructions for researching any house in Qld 7 a step by step guide to historical investigation and exposition using a dwelling in Annerley Tarragindi as the example That practical purpose is reinforced in the final 3 chapters by a Supplement of related material Glossary of requisite terms and Bibliography of relevant sources on both the history and heritage of timbered housing plus plentiful illustrations of course As there hasn't been a work on this intriguing subject for a long time nor anything ever like this one it will serve general readers professionals researchers writers and academics on the one hand and owners occupants renovators restorers and vendors on the other whether in Brisbane Qld or elsewhere in Australia To all and sundry its core message is conveyed by one of Joni Mitchell's bygone ballads Don't it always seem to go That you don't know what you've got Till it's gone They paved paradise And put up a parking lot

The Massacre at Noe Creek Fa Shepherd, 2010-12-16 The Massacre at Noe Creek is a collection of partly truth and partly fiction short stories and tales Noe Creek the story from which the book takes its name is the story of how an event near the end of the civil war affects the lives of two young people at the beginning of WW II It is a delightful tale of romance and war Colonial heights Road the second story in the book is part history and part biography as it tells the story of the author coming of age while growing up in this rural crossroads community during the 1940s Other stories in the book include fishing and hunting tales and the author's memories of his trips to Moscow and England

A Witness Renee Splichal Larson, 2016-03-24 The 2010 earthquake in Haiti buried Renee Splichal Larson in concrete rubble killing her husband and leaving her a widow at age 27 Surviving only to be overwhelmed by loss and trauma she wondered if life was still possible for her Even as she trained to become a pastor her faith in a loving God was shaken and battered by the earthquake that devastated Port au Prince and took the lives of many thousands This is Renee's moving story of love grief survival and new life It is an account of the lives of three young people their experience of the challenges beauty and hospitality of Haiti and the tumult that overthrew all they held dear After years of struggle and healing aided by remarkable signs of the love and presence of God Renee offers us an intimate look at her young romance her experience of the earthquake and the journey that followed Most of all she proclaims her hard won witness that in Christ love and life conquer death

A Brush with Death Jody Summers, 2019-09-02 A tense and satisfying thriller that does justice to its weird and macabre premise KIRKUS REVIEWS A dead serial killer's spirit longs to kill again and an artist's canvas becomes its portal It all started innocently enough when New Orleans painter Kira McGovern mixed some of her mother's cremated ashes into her oil paints Entering an altered state she channeled key moments of her mother's life into a breathtaking memorial work of art Her new business Canvas of Life was begun and commissions rolled in But things get strange when Kira meets Sean Easton a Midwestern rancher hiding a secret of his own Both are unprepared for the horrific terrors that emerge with every brush stroke from an unexpected new commission Even as the pair fall for each other the evil in the painting grows more malevolent Soon the awakened entity isn't satisfied to just flood Kira's dreams with blood and murder It wants her as its next victim Can Kira and Sean unmask the horror and stop Kira becoming its next possession before it's too late A fascinating blend of TV's Supernatural with a touch of paranormal romance A Brush with Death's dab of Stephen King like creepiness will keep you up reading long into the night Follow Kira's and Sean's mysterious brushes with supernatural evil in the next book in the series A Brush with Fire Everybody's Magazine, 1909

Captiva Randy Wayne White, 1997-05-01 A Doc Ford novel has more slick moves than a snake in the mangroves In Captiva Randy Wayne White takes us places that no other Florida mystery writer could hope to find Carl Hiaasen Randy Wayne White is acclaimed as wildly inventive The San Diego Union Tribune a wonderful writer Paul Theroux a fine storyteller Peter Matthiessen and the rightful heir to John D MacDonald The Tampa Tribune Times Now he delivers a wicked thriller that sends government agent turned marine biologist Doc Ford into dangerous new waters as a Florida fishing dispute escalates into a deadly war that reaches across the ocean The Welensky Story Garry Allighan, 1962 Sun at Midnight

Rosie Thomas, 2017-07-25 The acclaimed author of Bad Girls Good Women delivers an epic and adventurous love story set against the stunning backdrop of Antarctica Alice Peel is a geologist She believes in observation measurement and proof But now as she stands alone on the deck of a rickety Chilean ship everything that lies ahead is mysterious and unpredictable Six weeks earlier her life at Oxford had been reassuringly comfortable But when her relationship suddenly fell to pieces she accepted a job that would take her to the end of the earth joining the Kandahar Research Station in Antarctica When she arrives Alice discovers an ice blue world lit by a midnight sun Nothing has prepared her for the beauty of it or the claustrophobia of a tiny base shared with eight men and one other woman The isolation wipes out everyone's past and tension crackles in the air One fellow researcher James Rooker is especially secretive Yet Alice cannot deny the bolt of recognition between them But Antarctica is a place of danger as well as beauty and Alice is about to make a discovery that could change her life forever if she survives Illuminating yet quietly revealing Thomas's latest is elevated by its unique setting and its strong characterization Publishers Weekly Death of An Idealist Beverley Naidoo, 2012-09-07 Death of an Idealist is the biography of Neil Aggett the only white person to die while being held in custody by South Africa's apartheid security police A medical doctor who worked most of the week as an unpaid trade union organiser Aggett's stark non materialism shared by his partner Dr Elizabeth Floyd aroused suspicions When their names appeared on a list of Close Comrades prepared for opposition leaders in exile they were among a swathe of union activists detained in 1981 After 70 days in detention Aggett was found hanging from the bars of the steel grille in his cell in John Vorster Square He was the 51st person and the first white person to die in detention He was 28 His death provoked an enormous public outcry his funeral attended by thousands of workers who marched through the streets of Johannesburg This quiet intense young man was in death a people's hero Born to settler parents in Kenya in 1953 Neil Aggett moved with his family to South Africa in early childhood He attended school in Grahamstown before studying medicine at the University of Cape Town Death of an Idealist explores the metamorphosis of a high achieving sports loving schoolboy into a dedicated activist and unpaid trade union organiser Beverley Naidoo traces Neil Aggett s life in particular the years leading up to his detention as a result of a Security Branch sting operation the weeks of interrogation and the inquest that followed his death She recreates the momentous events of his life and in doing so reveals the extraordinary impact Neil s life had on those around him including his family friends and comrades Today a generation later South Africa is free and democratic Yet the idealism and sacrifice displayed by Neil Aggett and so many others appears to have been replaced by cynicism and hand wringing Death of an Idealist is as much the story of a remarkable young man as it is a reminder that every generation needs its idealists

No Son of Mine Jonathan Corcoran, 2024-04 Born and raised in rural West Virginia Jonathan Corcoran was the youngest and only son of three siblings in a family balanced on the precipice of poverty His mother a traditional evangelical and insular woman who had survived abuse and abandonment was often his only ally Together they navigated a strained homelife dominated by his distant gambling addicted father and shared a seemingly unbreakable bond When Corcoran left home to attend Brown University a chasm between his upbringing and his reality began to open As his horizons and experiences expanded he formed new bonds beyond bloodlines and met the upper middle class Jewish man who would become his husband But this authentic life would not be easy and Corcoran was forever changed when his mother disowned him after discovering his truth In the ensuing fifteen years the two would come together only to violently spring apart As the COVID 19 pandemic raged in 2020 the cycle finally ended when he received the news that his mother had died In No Son of Mine Corcoran traces his messy estrangement from his mother through lost geographies the trees mountains and streams that were once his birthright as well as the lost relationships with friends and family and the sense of home that were stripped away when she said he was no longer her son A biography nestled inside a memoir No Son of Mine is Corcoran s story of alienation and his attempts to understand his mother s choice to cut him out of her life Through grief anger questioning and growth Corcoran explores the entwined yet separate histories and identities of his mother and himself
