The Liturgy Betrayed:

The Liturgy Betrayed Denis Crouan, 2011-07-05 For more than thirty years the Church has been torn apart by a conflict that revolves around the question of Liturgy In this instructive and practical work Denis Crouan makes accessible to everyone the criteria which have been issued by the Magisterium and which define a truly Catholic Liturgy in today's Church From a position of strength as an experienced theologian Crouan attempts to show the real causes of the liturgical crisis that has been afflicting the Church At the same time his aim has been to highlight the sort of pastoral action that would allow this crisis to be overcome His solution is not to argue for a return to the past nor is it to promote arbitrary innovations as regards the liturgical celebration of our faith Rather he champions a restoration of the individual authority of the bishops in bringing about solely with the help of the official liturgical texts the proper application of the principles clearly enunciated by Sacrosanctum Concilium Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy

Islam, Christianity and Tradition Ian Richard Netton, 2006-12-22 Offers a unique comparative exploration of the role of tradition in Islam and Christianity The idea of tradition has enjoyed a variety of senses and definitions in Islam and Christianity but both have cleaved at certain times to a supposedly golden age of tradition from the past The author suggests there has been a chain of thinkers from classical Islam to the twentieth century who share a common interest in ijtihad or independent thinking Drawing on past and present evidence and using Christian tradition as a focus for contrast and comparison the author highlights the seemingly paradoxical harmony between tradition and ijtihad in Islam The author draws on a variety of primary and secondary sources including contemporary newspaper and journal

Reform of the Reform? Thomas Kocik, 2010-01-15 Disturbed by the direction in which the post Vatican II liturgical reforms have moved two fictitious representatives of mutually antagonistic movements debate the remedy for correct liturgical reform This unique work presents a debate between a traditionalist who argues for a return to the pre Vatican II liturgy and a reformist no liberal himself who advocates a new liturgical reform more in keeping with what the Council fathers had in mind They bring to the debate the insights of renowned authorities on the liturgy including Cardinal Ratzinger Msgr Klaus Gamber Michael Davies Fr Brian Harrison and Fr Aidan Nichols This book is written for anyone interested in the Church's liturgy and the controversies surrounding the liturgical renewal It is both a primer for those who lack the theological and liturgical expertise to articulate their dissatisfaction with the state of the liturgy and an excellent resource for those specialists who would appreciate having a single volume for consulting salient points from numerous authorities

Sacred Treasure Joseph Peter Swain, 2012 In the discussions and debates surrounding liturgical music of the past fifty years music theorists critics and historians have contributed little and their counsel has rarely been sought Whenever the matter of liturgical music arises most often in parishes but sometimes in episcopal conferences or in the academy or in Vatican documents the nature of the music as music almost never affects the discussion With Sacred Treasure Joseph Swain a distinguished musicologist and accomplished performer attempts to change that He offers a theory for building authentic traditions of liturgical music for Roman Catholic parishes This book is an exercise in pragmatic music criticism By providing a rational basis for evaluating the essential issues Swain seeks to show how a spiritually wholesome stability might supplant the confusion Sacred Treasure shows how the hard facts of music must be taken into account in any holistic conception and any lasting form of liturgical music

The Worship Mall Bryan D. Spinks, 2011-02-01 Religion today is in competition with the leisure and entertainment industries Gen Y the postmodern generation is open to spirituality but most of today's young adults have not been born into faith communities where they feel any lasting allegiance Studies suggest that for the young belief in God is an optional matter a virtual consumer choice As a result different trends in worship and worship styles are offered by different churches to suit lifestyles attitudes and personal taste
