Marcel A. Müller

The M1 30 Cal Carbine:

US Infantryman in World War II (3) Robert S Rush, 2012-07-20 The ETO is seen by many as the major theater of World War II with more infantry regiments serving there than any other This title follows one soldier Joseph as he is drafted in February 1941 trains with the 22d Infantry in the United States and then ships to England in January 1944 On D Day he lands on Utah Beach and in the following months fights through France Belgium and into Germany The problems the common soldier faced between June 1944 and May 1945 are dealt with in particular in this authoritative and moving book

World War II US Marine Infantry Regiments Gordon L. Rottman, 2018-07-26 The United States Marine Corps came into its own in the Pacific Islands campaign against Japan in World War II From Guadalcanal to Okinawa US Marines formed the tip of the spear as Allied forces sought to push the Japanese back to their Home Islands This fascinating study tracks the deployments of the various Marine divisions throughout the war and explains their composition but also goes deeper to detail the individual regiments the focus of the marines identity and pride It explains the organization of the Marine infantry regiment and its equipment and how they evolved during the war The marine infantryman s evolving uniforms field equipment and weapons are illustrated throughout using specially commissioned artwork and detailed descriptions to produce a fitting portrait of the US military s elite fighting force in the Pacific

World War II US Cavalry Groups Gordon L. Rottman, 2012-07-20 An introduction to the US Cavalry units equipped with light armor and their role in the European Theater during World War II The cavalry regiments of the US Army were in the process of being transformed into a mechanized force when the USA entered World War II While those cavalry regiments deployed to the Pacific to fight the Japanese were turned into infantry units those sent to Europe were employed as light armor in the cavalry s traditional spearhead roles reconnaissance the screening of advances and flanks and the pursuit of beaten enemy forces Equipped with M8 Greyhound armored cars M5 Stuart and M24 Chaffee light tanks and halftracks these units were designated cavalry groups mechanized each c 1 700 strong and divided into two heavily armed squadrons They were seldom attached to divisions but to higher level corps commands meaning they could be shifted around quickly and independently and be formed at need into flexible battle groups with armored infantry and other units depending on the mission Featuring specially drawn full color illustrations depicting uniforms insignia armored vehicles and tactical scenarios this is the story of the US cavalry units that led the advance to victory in Europe during World War II

World War II US Army Combat Equipments Gordon L. Rottman, 2016-02-25 A soldier s web gear is as important to his ability to live and fight on the battlefield as are his clothing and weapons In World War II the US Army issued equipment items that had originated in 1910 though modified and augmented in the 1920s and 1930s and again during the war itself as a result of combat experience This book describes and illustrates the great majority of the personal equipment provided for infantry riflemen GIs armed with other weapons and their ammunition bearers officers and medics In addition to the web gear itself it covers canteens mess kit and first aid items weapons related and other specialist items the long struggle to produce a practical backpack bivouac and shelter gear and the most commonly carried tools The text also explains the basics of materials colors markings nomenclature and weights for the guidance of collectors It is illustrated with wartime photos and color close ups and the wide ranging color plates specially prepared for this book offer more than 130 images United States Army in World War II.
