BBC's written archives and interviews with leading producers, editors and commentators of the period it provides a behind the scenes narrative history of this major institution of British cultural life. In 2016 the BBC celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its television coverage of England's World Cup victory. Their coverage produced one of the most oft played moments in the history of television: Kenneth Wolstenholme's famous line 'Some people are on the pitch, they think it's all over, it is now as Geoff Hurst scored England's fourth goal securing England's 4-2 victory'. It was a landmark in English football as well as a watershed in the BBC's highly professionalised approach to televised sport. How the BBC reached this peak of television expertise and who was behind their success in developing the techniques of televised sport is the focus of this book. The

Return to the Far Side of Planet Moore! Martin

Mobberley, 2015-03-20 The result of an exhaustive study of Sir Patrick Moore's observations of the Moon and planets for more than 60 years, this book is a fantastic companion to the extremely popular It Came From Outer Space (Wearing an RAF Blazer) written by the same author. Moore recorded his telescopic observations in his logbooks, which are reproduced and described here in detail along with his sketches and notes. In this light the author discusses the factors that caused Moore to switch from lunar observing to planetary and variable star observing. He has also included personal recollections and humorous anecdotes from Moore's friends and acquaintances as well as a look at his best loved books. Further chapters describe Moore's foreign travels and correspondence with those back home. Lastly, the author has not neglected a few of Moore's most memorable television and radio appearances, which are examined along with a close up of what it was like to visit Moore's beloved home of Farthings in Selsey. Essentially, this is a book written by popular demand from the readers of the author's original biography who craved more of Moore. Floodlights and Touchlines: A History of Spectator Sport

Rob Steen, 2014-06-26 SHORTLISTED FOR THE WILLIAM HILL SPORTS BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD 2014 Spectator sport is living, breathing, non-stop theatre for all. Focusing on spectator sports and their accompanying issues, tracing their origins, evolution and impact inside the lines and beyond the boundary, this book offers a thematic history of professional sport and the ingredients that magnetise millions around the globe. It tells the stories that matter, from the gladiators of Rome to the runners of Rift Valley, via the innovator missionaries of Rugby School, from multi-faceted British exports to the Americanisation of professionalism and the Indianisation of cricket. Rob Steen traces the development of these sports which captivate the turnstile millions and the mouse-clicking masses, addressing their key themes and commonalities from creation myths to match-fixing, via race, politics, sexuality and internationalism. Insightful and revelatory, this is an entertaining exploration of spectator sports' intrinsic place in culture and how sport imitates life and life imitates sport. Nike is a
