To the right of the books, a black and white photograph is laid out, showing a dark, textured surface, possibly a landscape or a close-up of a material. discipline The Modern Language Review John George Robertson, Charles Jasper Sisson, 1927 Each number includes the section Reviews Alan Crawley and Contemporary Verse Joan McCullagh, 2011-11-01 Little magazines like Alan Crawley's Contemporary Verse are the life blood of literary culture They provide an ongoing forum in which both well established and new poets can experiment and present their latest work and it is often with the little magazines therefore that literary change and originality have their beginnings Today there is no shortage of such outlets in Canada But in 1941 when Alan Crawley began to publish Contemporary Verse in North Vancouver there were only two in the whole country Both of these Canadian Poetry Magazine and Canadian Forum were in the East and neither was in any way committed to modernism Contemporary Verse thus became a major element in the foundations of modern Canadian poetry In this book Joan McCullagh shows how between 1941 and 1952 the magazine charted the establishment of modernism in Canadian poetry by publishing even before 1947 the largest most impressive and most representative collection of early forties poetry in the country Her extensive quotation from the hitherto unpublished correspondence between Crawley and nearly every major poet of the forties also shows how important and valued a literary influence Crawley himself was as a critic and advisor behind the scenes Daryl Hine and Jay Macpherson are only two of the poets who were first encouraged and guided by Alan Crawley's private criticism of work they sent him and then first published in Contemporary Verse Other poets with whom he corresponded at length and whose poetry he published including P K Page James Reaney Louis Dudek Raymond Souster Dorothy Livesay Anne Wilkinson and Earle Birney Very few libraries even in Canada hold a complete set of the 39 issues of Contemporary Verse The index to the magazine that Joan McCullagh has compiled and included here will therefore serve not only as a guide to Contemporary Verse itself but also as an indispensable publishing record of many Canadian poets during the 1940s The Poetry of Civic Virtue Nathan A. Scott, 1976 Again and again the literary imagination of our time has located the scene and site of the human drama outside the realm of what Martin Buber called the interhuman But there are certain great exceptions to this general pattern and of these Nathan Scott in his latest book holds up three of the most notable examples in the work of T S Eliot Andr Malraux and W H Auden In each of these focal figures he locates an exemplary instance in recent literature of the human world being conceived to be a world of coexistence and he exhibits them as poets Malraux too since his fiction is viewed as essentially a poetic enterprise whose special distinction it is to prompt reflection on the nature of civic virtue From book jacket Life of the Transcendental Ego Edward S. Casey, Donald V. Morano, 1986-06-30 The Life of the Transcendental Ego presents essays by a number of distinguished writers in the continental tradition of philosophy The essays include problems in transcendental philosophy the nature of autobiography the validity of existentialism the possibilities of phenomenology as well as focused discussions of concrete issues in aesthetics and ethics The News from Poems Jeffrey Gray, Ann Keniston, 2016-08-11 A groundbreaking collection explores contemporary American poetry's relation to social critique and the public sphere Gertrude Stein,
