Handbook to Bach's Sacred Cantata Texts Melvin P. Unger,1996-04-16 The German church cantata of the eighteenth century was the culmination of a long tradition of Lutheran sermon music that used the proclamation amplification and interpretation of scripture to teach and persuade the listener Bach's cantatas also served this didactic purpose and typically incorporate numerous allusions to scriptural passages or themes in their librettos Unfortunately many of these passages remain obscure to the twentieth century musician because they demand a much closer familiarity with the Bible than is common today The Handbook to Bach's Sacred Cantata Texts identifies scriptural references for the wording imagery and themes that Bach's listeners would have known In addition the religious or literary theme of each text is summarized within the specific context of the cantata as a whole With interlinear translations and a full complement of indexes The Homiletic Review ,1915 Advance ,1986 Unspeakable Sarah Travis,2021-06-09 Unspeakable probes the relationship between trauma theory and Christian theology in order to support preachers in the task of crafting sermons that adequately respond to trauma in the pews and the world at large How might sermons contribute to resiliency and the repairing of wounds caused by traumatic experiences This book seeks to provide a theological lens for preachers who wonder how their beautiful words can address suffering amid traumatic wounding Preaching is a healing discourse that proclaims gospel or good news Gospel is a complicated reality especially in the face of trauma Drawing on various theologies and insights from trauma theory Unspeakable challenges the notion of a triumphant gospel seeking an in between perspective that honors both resurrection and the trauma that remains despite our desire to get to the good news It builds on images of the preacher as witness and midwife in order to develop homiletical practices that acknowledge the limitations of language and imagination experienced by traumatized individuals The Congregationalist ,1922 The Maccabæan ,1920
