The Living Edens Etosha Africa's Untamed Wilderness:

African Landscapes Michael Bollig, Olaf Bubenzer, 2009-06-12 Landscape studies provide a crucial perspective into the interaction between humans and their environment shedding insight on social cultural and economic topics The research explores both the way that natural processes have affected the development of culture and society as well as the ways that natural landscapes themselves are the product of historical and cultural processes Most previous studies of the landscape selectively focused on either the natural sciences or the social sciences but the research presented in African Landscapes bridges that gap This work is unique in its interdisciplinary scope Over the past twelve years the contributors to this volume have participated in the collaborative research center ACACIA Arid Climate Adaptation and Cultural Innovation in Africa which deals with the relationship between cultural processes and ecological dynamics in Africa's arid areas The case studies presented here come from mainly Sahara Sahel and southwestern Africa and are all linked to broader discussions on the concept of landscape and themes of cultural anthropological geographical botanical sociological and archaeological interest The contributions in this work are enhanced by full color photographs that put the discussion in context visually Etosha: Africa's Untamed Wilderness , The Public Broadcasting Service PBS presents the online edition of its television documentary entitled Etosha Untamed Wilderness which it broadcast as part of its natural history series entitled The Living Edens The documentary focuses on the Etosha Game Reserve in Namibia Trivia quizzes educational resources and screensavers are included as part of the resource A Savanna Food Chain Rebecca Hogue Wojahn, Donald Wojahn, 2009-01-01 Describes food chains in the savanna beginning with carnivores such as a cheetah or a lion and ending with decomposers WTIU , 1997 Directory of Web Sites Graham Bennett, 1999 Overloaded with the mass of information on the Internet Frustrated by how difficult it is to find what you really want Now you don't need to spend hours browsing around the Internet or grappling with the huge number of hits from an Internet search engine the Directory of Web Sites will take you straight to the best educational sites on the Internet From archaeology to zoology from dance to technology the Directory provides information more than 5 500 carefully selected Web sites that represent the best of what the Internet has to offer The sites are grouped by subject each one features a full description and the text is complemented throughout by screenshots and fact boxes As well sites have been selected purely on educational merit all sites with overtly commercial content and influence from Internet providers have been excluded Deserts Nancy F. Castaldo, 2004-04-01 This activity guide introduces children to the wild and often misunderstood environment of the desert and the people and cultures that thrive in and around them Information is included on all types of deserts hot and dry coastal semiarid and polar Kids learn what defines a desert and the creative ways plants and animals have adapted to survive in harsh desert environments Also discussed are urban sprawl and its effects on desert habitats and how children can help protect this delicate environment by conserving energy and reducing consumption of petroleum based products Engaging activities include drawing a petroglyph making a coral
