The Logic of God Incarnate Thomas V. Morris, 2001-04-06 This book is a philosophical examination of the logical problems associated with the claim that Jesus of Nazareth was one and the same person as God the Son the Second Person of the divine Trinity How can a being or person who is omniscient omnipotent omnipresent etc have become human given that humans are limited in knowledge and beset with weaknesses Unless this belief in the incarnation is to be dismissed as pious sentimentality a philosophical case must be made for at least the possible rationality of the idea Tom Morris makes such an attempt in this book Indeed although it claims only to be arguing that the idea of God Incarnate is not impossible The Logic of God Incarnate confronts the preponderance of modern philosophical argumentation against the incarnation and manages to put the traditional doctrine in a quite plausible light

The Logic of Idolatry in Seventeenth-century French Literature Ellen McClure, 2020 Idolatry was one of the dominant and most contentious themes of early modern religious polemics This book argues that many of the best known literary and philosophical works of the French seventeenth century were deeply engaged and concerned with the theme In a series of case studies and close readings it shows that authors used the logic of idolatry to interrogate the fractured and fragile relationship between the divine and the human with particular attention to the increasingly fraught question of the legitimacy of human agency Reading d Urf Descartes La Fontaine S vign Molire and Racine through the lens of idolatry reveals heretofore hidden aspects of their work all while demonstrating the link between the emergent autonomy of literature and philosophy and the confessional conflicts that dominated the period In so doing Professor McClure illustrates how religion can become a source of interpretive complexity and how this dynamism can and should be taken into account in early modern French studies and beyond ELLEN MCCLURE is Associate Professor of History and French University of Illinois at Chicago The Logic of the Unconscious Mind M. K. Bradby,1920 The Logic of Death: Or, Why Should the Atheist Fear to Die? George Jacob Holyoake,1874 The Logic of Events Andrew Paul Ushenko,1929 The Logic of Hegel Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel,1892 The Logic of Divine Creation , The Logic of God Samantha Berman,Ball State University.
