Lonely Land Sigurd F. Olson, 2012-07-04 The author of The Singing Wilderness and Listening Point begins this grand adventure There are few places left on the North American continent where men can still see the country as it was before Europeans came and know some of the challenges and freedoms of those who saw it first but in the Canadian Northwest it can still be done A thousand miles northwest of Lake Superior are great free rivers lakes whose horizons disappear countless unnamed waterways and ridges and forested valleys still largely unknown Into this land of Crees Chippewyans Yellow Knives and Dig Rib Indians had once come the voyageur the Hudson Bay trader and a succession of adventurers gentlemen and otherwise who used the mighty Churchill River as a major waterway from Hudson Bay to the Mackenzie It was the trail of these voyageurs we followed says the author a trail that led from the height of land where waters flow north to the Arctic and east to Hudson Bay to Cumberland House five hundred miles away Every portage camp site and rapids every mile of this waterway of lakes and rivers was steeped in the drama of exploration and trade We traveled as the voyageurs did by canoe paddled the same lakes ran the same rapids and packed over their ancient portages We knew the winds and storms saw the same sky lines and felt the awe and wonderment that was theirs at the enormous expanses and grandeur of a land that was once as strange and challenging to them as to us Mr Olson has illuminated his own cruise with quotations from journals and diaries of such men as George Simpson David Thompson Alexander Henry and Alexander Mackenzie as well as a host of other explorers traders whose voices speak from the old Moose Fort Journals of the Hudson's Bay Company Mr Olson serves as the Bourgeois of the party of six the boss who ran the trip chose the routes picked the camp sites His companions and he relived for all readers of this book what life was then in the wilds of the Canadian Northwest Mr Olson combines his inimitable ability to evoke the beauties and wonders of the wilderness its animals birds and its very spirit with a dramatic talent for taking the reader along the route of the men who pioneered that wilderness Francis Lee Jacques whose genius to evoke the wilderness in pen and ink is unchallenged has illuminated this book by his drawings as he did The Singing Wilderness and Listening Point Death in a Lonely Land Peter Hathaway Capstick, 2025-09-23 From the author of Last Horizons Peter Hathaway Capstick now presents Death in a Lonely Land a second volume of his hunting fishing and shooting adventures on five continents stories collected from such magazines as Outdoor Life NRA's American Hunter Guns recalls the pleasures of biltong African beef jerky describes the irresistible homemade lures of snook fishing expert John Gorbach and kills a genteel take of Atlantic salmon with the brilliantly simple tube fly Featuring more than thirty gorgeous drawings by famous wildlife artist Dino Paravano Death in a Lonely Land is another collector's item by a writer who keeps the tradition of great safari adventure alive in each of his books African Expedition Gazette The Lonely Lands Roland Reich, 1986 The Knight of Lonely Land Evelyn Campbell, 1921 Literary Polyrhythms S. Robert Gnanamony, 2005 On 20th century Indic and English literature articles Critical Essays on Canadian Literature K. Balachandran, 2002-12-31 Through the Lands of the Serb Mary E. Durham, 2020-08-01 Reproduction of the original Through the Lands of the Serb by Mary E Durham The Picturesque and the Sublime Susan Glickman, 2000 Winner of the Gabrielle Roy Prize in English and the Raymond Klibansky Prize The Picturesque and the Sublime is a cultural history of two hundred years of nature writing in Canada from eighteenth century prospect poems to contemporary encounters with landscape Arguing against the received wisdom made popular by Northrop Frye and Margaret Atwood that Canadian writers view nature as hostile Susan Glickman places Canadian literature in the English and European traditions of the sublime and the picturesque Glickman argues that early immigrants to Canada brought with them the expectation that nature would be grand mysterious awesome even terrifying and welcomed scenes that conformed to these notions of sublimity She contends that to interpret their descriptions of nature as negative as so many critics have done is a significant misunderstanding Glickman provides close readings of several important works including Susanna Moodie's Enthusiasm Charles G D Roberts's Ave and Paulette Jiles's Song to the Rising Sun and explores the poems in the context of theories of nature and art Instead of projecting backward from a modernist perspective Glickman reads forward from the discovery of landscape as a legitimate artistic subject in seventeenth century England and argues that picturesque modes of description and a sublime aesthetic have governed much of the representation of nature in this country Susan Glickman is a poet living in Toronto She is the author of Complicity The Power to Move Henry Moore's Sheep and Other Poems and Hide and Seek
