Twentieth-Century Lutheran Theologians Mark C. Mattes, 2013-08-14 This collection of essays examines important twentieth century Lutheran theologians including European and North American voices Each essay provides an overview of the life and thought of important confessional Lutherans who shaped theology with an ecumenical world wide impact The focus here is not on later twentieth century figures but earlier ones selected similar to the spirit manifest in Karl Barth s contention lest we forget where contemporary theology came from Protestant Theology From Rousseau to Ritschl The essays composed over the last five years were initiated by Lutheran Quarterly in order to assess our recent past as we move into a new millennium The goal of each author each a leading theologian has been to describe each thinker s life and vocation and how each thinker s work continues to impact theology today

A Church Divided Matthew D. Hockenos, 2004-10-20 This book closely examines the turmoil in the German Protestant churches in the immediate postwar years as they attempted to come to terms with the recent past Reeling from the impact of war the churches addressed the consequences of cooperation with the regime and the treatment of Jews In Germany the Protestant Church consisted of 28 autonomous regional churches During the Nazi years these churches formed into various alliances One group the German Christian Church openly aligned itself with the Nazis The rest were cautiously opposed to the regime or tried to remain noncommittal The internal debates however involved every group and centered on issues of belief that were important to all Important theologians such as Karl Barth were instrumental in pressing these issues forward While not an exhaustive study of Protestantism during the Nazi years A Church Divided breaks new ground in the discussion of responsibility guilt and the Nazi past

Perspectives on Christian Worship J. Matthew Pinson, 2009 For laypersons and church leaders Perspectives on Christian Worship presents five differing views about worship styles hoping to determine which is most faithful to Scripture

Strange Glory Charles Marsh, 2015-04-28 Winner Christianity Today 2015 Book Award in History Biography Shortlisted for the PEN Jacqueline Bograd Weld Award for Biography In the decades since his execution by the Nazis in 1945 Dietrich Bonhoeffer the German pastor theologian and anti Hitler conspirator has become one of the most widely read and inspiring

Christian thinkers of our time With unprecedented archival access and definitive scope Charles Marsh captures the life of this remarkable man who searched for the goodness in his religion against the backdrop of a steadily darkening Europe From his brilliant student days in Berlin to his transformative sojourn in America across Harlem to the Jim Crow South and finally once again to Germany where he was called to a ministry for the downtrodden we follow Bonhoeffer on his search for true fellowship and observe the development of his teachings on the shared life in Christ We witness his growing convictions and theological beliefs culminating in his vocal denunciation of Germany's treatment of the Jews that would put him on a crash course with Hitler Bringing to life for the first time this complex human being his substantial flaws inner torment the friendships and the faith that sustained and finally redeemed him Strange Glory is a momentous achievement 'Dark, Depressing Riddle' Ryan Tafilowski, 2019-10-07

At the twilight of the Weimar Republic politicians scientists and theologians were engaged in debates surrounding the so called Jewish Question When the Nazi Party came to power in 1933 these discussions took on a new sense of urgency and poignancy As state measures against Jews unfolded theological conceptions of the meaning of Israel and Judaism began to impact living breathing Jewish persons In this study Ryan Tafilowski traces the thought of the Lutheran theologian Paul Althaus 1888 1966 who once greeted the rise of Hitler as a gift and miracle of God as he negotiated the Jewish Question and its meaning for his understanding of Germanness across the Weimar Republic the Nazi years and the post war period In particular the study uncovers the paradoxical categories Althaus used to interpret the ongoing theological significance of the Jewish people whom he considered both an imminent threat to German ethnic identity and yet a mysterious cipher by which Germans might decode their own spiritual destiny in world history Sketching the peculiar contours of Althaus theology of Israel this study offers a fresh interpretation of the Erlangen Opinion on the Aryan Paragraph which is an important artifact not only of the Kirchenkampf but also of the complex and ambivalent history of Christian antisemitism By bringing Althaus into conversation with some of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century from Karl Barth and Emil Brunner to Rudolf Bultmann and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Tafilowski broadens the scope of his inquiry to vital questions of political theology ethnic identity social ethics and ecclesiology As Christian theologians must once again reckon with questions of national self understanding under the pressures of mass migration and resurgent nationalisms this investigation into the logic of ethno nationalist theologies is a timely contribution Church as Fullness in All Things Mark W. Birkholz, Jonathan Mumme, Richard J. Serina, Jr., 2019-06-25

What is Lutheran ecclesiology The Lutheran view of the church has been fraught with difficulties since the Reformation Church as Fullness in All Things reengages the topic from a confessional Lutheran perspective Lutheran theologians and clergy who are bound to the Holy Scriptures and the Lutheran Confessions explore the possibilities and pitfalls of the Lutheran tradition's view of the church in the face of contemporary challenges The contributors also take up questions about and challenges to thinking and living as the church in their tradition while looking to other Christian voices for aid in what is finally a common Christian endeavor

The volume addresses three related types of questions faced in living and thinking as the church with each standing as a field of tension marked by disharmonized though perhaps not inherently opposite poles the individual and the communal the personal and the institutional and the particular and the universal Asking whether de facto prioritizations of given poles or unexamined assumptions about their legitimacy impinge the church Lutherans seek the volume closes with Anglican Reformed and Roman Catholic contributors stating what their ecclesiological traditions could learn from Lutheranism and vice versa

Prayerbook of Christ Brad Pribbenow, 2018-08-31 The contributions of Dietrich Bonhoeffer to the fields of systematics ethics sociology and theology have become well known in recent decades What has been overlooked however is the significant contribution he has also made to the study and interpretation of the Psalms Bonhoeffer's approach to the Psalms is built upon an understanding of its relationship to prayer and to Jesus Christ the Crucified One Employing methods drawn from both premodern and modern exegetes Bonhoeffer develops a Christological interpretation of the Psalms which in certain key aspects has not been seen in the history of interpretation His is an interpretation informed by the historical reality of Jesus Christ praying the prayers of the Psalms in his incarnation As the church of today prays the Psalms it is encouraged by understanding that they are also praying the very words which Jesus prayed The Psalms are not only the prayerbook of the church more fundamentally they are the prayerbook of Jesus Christ In this book Pribbenow explores Bonhoeffer's unique Christological interpretation of the Psalms by means of a concentrated analysis of its development coherence and significance tracing it from its formation at Berlin University into the years of development at the Confessing Church Preacher's Seminary in Finkenwalde and through the months of interrogation and imprisonment at the hands of the Third Reich
