The Long Walks Journeys To The Sources Of The White Nile:

The Long Walks: Journeys to the Sources of the White Nile Frederick Bradnum, Imperialism and the natural world John M. MacKenzie, 2017-03-01 Imperial power both formal and informal and research in the natural sciences were closely dependent in the nineteenth century This book examines a portion of the mass produced juvenile literature focusing on the cluster of ideas connected with Britain's role in the maintenance of order and the spread of civilization It discusses the political economy of Western ecological systems and the consequences of their extension to the colonial periphery particularly in forms of forest conservation Progress and consumerism were major constituents of the consensus that helped stabilise the late Victorian society but consumerism only works if it can deliver the goods From 1842 onwards almost all major episodes of coordinated popular resistance to colonial rule in India were preceded by phases of vigorous resistance to colonial forest control By the late 1840s a limited number of professional positions were available for geologists in British imperial service but imperial geology had a longer pedigree Modern imperialism or municipal imperialism offers a broader framework for understanding the origins long duration and persistent support for overseas expansion which transcended the rise and fall of cabinets or international realignments in the 1800s Although medical scientists began to discern and control the microbiological causes of tropical ills after the mid nineteenth century the claims for climatic causation did not undergo a corresponding decline Arthur Pearson's Pearson's Magazine was patriotic militaristic and devoted to royalty The book explores how science emerged as an important feature of the development policies of the Colonial Office CO of the colonial empire

Journey to the Source of the Nile Christopher Ondaatje, 1999-07-15 In a series of experiences between 1856 and 1877 several British born explorers tried to unravel the mystery of the source of the Nile This river the longest in the world flowed through the desert bringing life in its floodwater every year Where did all this water come from Christopher Ondaatje long fascinated with Richard Burton and wishing to relive his 1856 African exploration prepared for this journey by studying the expeditions of several Victorian travellers for each had returned with part of the answer to the Nile's riddle In 1996 Ondaatje followed the Victorian explorers' routes to see for himself what they had seen Although acutely aware that their claims of discovering a mountain or river were ridiculous he quickly realized that he was indeed on a journey of discovery and that the search for truth is often about finding new and better questions not just answers His trek across the Serengeti Plains to Olduvai Gorge provides the most striking revelation of all the forces which shaped the Nile may also have triggered the evolution of the human race

The Long Walk Frederick Bradnum, 1970 The Road to the Two Sudans Souad Ali, Richard Lobban, 2014-03-17 Parallel with the previous volume of conference papers in 2008 Sudan's Wars and Peace Agreements most of these selected and thematic articles were originally presented as papers at the 31st meeting of the Sudan Studies Association SSA at Arizona State University in 2012 Since that time the Comprehensive Peace Agreement of 2005 provided for the self determination referendum of 2011 that resulted in the independence of the new Republic of South

Sudan The previous book presaged this present volume as the perhaps inevitable outcome of endless conflicts with no serious effort to make unity attractive As this book goes to press the new Republic of South Sudan is itself wracked with violent conflict The hopes to build a new democratic and civil society in the south from the many inherited problems have now devolved to dysfunction itself Reading this book will realistically help in understanding these Roads taken The editors and authors have created a multi faceted account which reveals the complex foundations of these conflicts between north and south and recently within the south itself While Khartoum struggles onward with the Islamist project regional conflicts and grave economic problems Juba stumbles with corruption armed rebellion and a grave humanitarian crisis The half full glass of dreams of social and economic development supported by oil revenue has been replaced by a glass half empty with new varieties of political dysfunction in which both nations have grave problems in security and economic stability in a generally troubled regional neighborhood

Egypt's African Empire Dr Alice Moore-Harell,2014-03-01 This book is a detailed and original study of the creation of the province of Equatoria located in present day Southern Sudan No detailed account has previously been published on the effort to conquer and create a new Egyptian province in the 1870s in the interior of Africa despite its importance to the history of the on going northsouth conflict in the Sudan The annexation of Equatoria emerged from the Khedive viceroy Ismail s aspiration for an African empire that would control the source of the White Nile at Lake Victoria At the time he was under pressure from the British government to suppress the lucrative slave trade in the Turco Egyptian Sudan and to this end the new province was to be under direct control of Cairo and not the authorities in Khartoum The two conquering expeditions of Equatoria were led by Britons Samuel Baker and Charles Gordon later Governor General of the Sudan With them were other Europeans Americans Sudanese and Egyptians Baker Gordon and some of the others left detailed accounts of their experience in the region All of which contribute to our knowledge not only of the difficulties involved in the annexation of a region thousands of kilometres from Cairo but also geographical data and a record of the complex human relations that developed between the men involved in the expeditions and the creation of the new province Official documents from the Egyptian state archive Dar al Wathaiq provide detailed accounts of the politics of the annexation of Equatoria and these accounts are discussed in their historical context

Search for the Nile's Source John Humphries,2013-09-15 The source of the Nile had long eluded and tormented explorers and John Hanning Speke s discovery of Lake Victoria in 1858 elevated him to the pantheon of heroes of African exploration alongside Livingstone and Stanley But the part played by the Welsh mining engineer John Petherick in the discovery was ignored after he was branded a slave trader by Speke and the controversy that followed ended with Petherick ruined and Speke dead This first biography of Petherick places him at the centre of one of the great discoveries in African exploration and as the focus of a dispute that rocked the geographical establishment Was Petherick a rogue as portrayed by some or the victim of a conspiracy that destroyed his reputation and denied him a share of the credit for his part in one of the greatest feats in African exploration

Contact Languages Sarah G. Thomason, 1997-03-06 This book contributes to a more balanced view of the most dramatic results of language contact by presenting linguistic and historical sketches of lesser known contact languages The twelve case studies offer eloquent testimony against the still common view that all contact languages are pidgins and creoles with maximally simple and essentially identical grammars They show that some contact languages are neither pidgins nor creoles and that even pidgins and creoles can display considerable structural diversity and structural complexity they also show that two language contact situations can give rise to pidgins especially when access to a target language is withheld by its speakers The chapters are arranged according to language type three focus on pidgins Hiri Motu by Tom Dutton Pidgin Delaware by Ives Goddard and Ndyuka Trio Pidgin by George L Huttar and Frank J Velantie two on creoles Kituba by Salikoko S Mufwene and Sango by Helma Pasch one on a set of pidgins and creoles Arabic based contact languages by Jonathan Owens one on the question of early pidginization and or creolization in Swahili by Derek Nurse and five on bilingual mixed languages Michif by Peter Bakker and Robert A Papen Media Lengua and Callahuaya both by Pieter Muysken and Mednyj Aleut and Ma a both by Sarah Thomason The authors collective goal is to help offset the traditional emphasis within contact language studies on pidgins and creoles that arose as an immediate result of contact with Europeans starting in the Age of Exploration The accumulation of case studies on a wide diversity of languages is needed to create a body of knowledge substantial enough to support robust generalizations about the nature and development of all types of contact language

Egypt Land Scott Trafton, 2004-11-19 Explores the relation between nineteenth century American interest in ancient Egypt in architecture literature and science and the ways Egypt was deployed by advocates for slavery and by African American writers British Book News British Council, 1989 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people
