In the Nick of Time - The

Autobiography of John Altman, EastEnders' Nick Cotton John Altman, 2016-06-30 From the moment he exploded onto our screens in 1985 as Nasty Nick Cotton uttering the infamous phrase Alright Ma John Altman changed the face of TV villains for good As one of the show's original cast members he is much admired for his role as the leather jacketed chain smoking son of Dot Cotton in the long running BBC soap EastEnders a role that spanned thirty years Since appearing in the very first episode he has been at the heart of the show his character central to many famous storylines to the extent that he was also given his own spin off episode The Return of Nick Cotton in 2000 But there is far more to John's story than Nick Cotton This searingly honest autobiography traces the colourful childhood of a desperately shy and art loving boy growing up in a loving household where he was encouraged to follow his dreams But there was always something pulling him to test the boundaries as a teenager he managed to get himself arrested on suspicion of drug possession on the way back from a gap year in India and the experimentation didn't stop there Yet for all the tales of acting in film theatre and television and the people he has known and worked with there was once a darker side to John's story For it was the descent into alcoholism that was to test him the most It cost him his marriage and almost his sanity even while his own battle with his demons allowed him to shape Nick Cotton into one of the most memorable soap characters of our times Now for the first time John tells it as it is in his own inspiring words the highs and the desperate lows and how finally he conquered his addiction for good
