Slow Walks in Paris Michael Leitch,1990 Slow Walks in London Michael Leitch,1992 The Travel Book Jon O. Heise,Julia R. Rinehart,1993-06 the authors give frequent evaluations of the books they cover an invaluable guide to acquisition librarians a read through of this volume is rewarding BOOKENDS The broad range of types of travel guides included is commendable remains a viable choice as a source for selecting travel materials ARBA Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1990 The Cumulative Book Index ,1990 A world list of books in the English language Waterstone's Guide to Books Waterstone & Co,1989 The Cambridge Companion to John Ruskin Francis O'Gorman,2015-10-26 Draws together leading experts from a wide range of disciplines to analyse the life and work of John Ruskin 1819 1900 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1995 Slow Walks in Berlin Michael Leitch,1993 Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 "We Met in Paris" Joan E Howard,2018-05-31 Grace Frick introduced English language readers all over the world to the distinguished French author Marguerite Yourcenar with her award winning translation of Yourcenar's novel Memoirs of Hadrian in 1954 European biographies of Yourcenar have often disparaged Frick and her relationship with Yourcenar however This work shows Frick as a person of substance in her own right and paints a portrait of both women that is at once intimate and scrupulously documented It contains a great deal of new information that will disrupt long held beliefs about Yourcenar and may even shock some of her scholars and fans American Book Publishing Record ,1992

The publishers weekly ,1991 The Routledge Companion to Studio Performance Practice Franc Chamberlain,Bernadette Sweeney,2021-11-29 The Routledge Companion to Studio Performance Practice is a unique indispensable guide to the training methods of the world's key theatre practitioners Compiling the practical work outlined in the popular Routledge Performance Practitioners series of guidebooks each set of exercises has been edited and contextualised by an expert in that particular approach Each chapter provides a taster of one practitioner's work answering the same key questions How did this artist work How can I begin to put my understanding of this to practical use Newly written chapter introductions put the exercises in context explaining how they fit into the wider methods and philosophy of the practitioner in question All 21 volumes in the original series are represented in this volume The Last Great Walk Wayne Curtis,2014-09-09 In 1909 Edward Payson Weston walked from New York to San Francisco covering around 40 miles a day and greeted by wildly cheering audiences in every city The New York Times called it the first bona fide walk across the American continent and eagerly chronicled a journey in which Weston was beset by fatigue mosquitos vicious headwinds and brutal heat He was 70 years old In The Last Great Walk journalist Wayne Curtis uses the framework of Weston's fascinating and surprising story and investigates exactly what we lost when we turned away from foot travel and what we could potentially regain with America's new embrace of pedestrianism From how our brains and legs evolved to accommodate our ancient traveling needs to the way that American cities have been designed to cater to cars and discourage pedestrians

Curtis guides readers through an engaging intelligent exploration of how something as simple as the way we get from one place to another continues to shape our health our environment and even our national identity Not walking he argues may be one of the most radical things humans have ever done T.P.'s Weekly Thomas Power O'Connor, Holbrook Jackson, 1907

Harper's Bazaar, 1867 The Youth's Companion Nathaniel Willis, Daniel Sharp Ford, 1872 Includes music The Examiner, 1846 The Routledge Companion to Media and the City Erica Stein, Germaine R. Halegoua, Brendan Kredell, 2022-07-29 Bringing together leading scholars from around the world and across scholarly disciplines this collection of 32 original chapters provides a comprehensive exploration of the relationships between cities and media The volume showcases diverse methods for studying media and the city and posits media urbanism as an approach to the co construction and interactions among media texts and technologies media users media industries media histories and urban space Chapters serve as a guide to humanities based ways of studying urban imaginaries infrastructures and architectures development and redevelopment and strategies and tactics as well as a provocation toward new lines of inquiry that further explore the dense interconnectedness of media and cities Structured thematically the chapters are organized into four distinct sections introduced with editorial commentary that places the chapters into conversation with each other and frames them in relation to an overarching question problem or method Part I Imaginaries and cityscapes focuses on screen representations and mediated experiences of urban space produced and consumed by various actors Part II Architectures and infrastructures highlights the different ways in which built environments and socio technical substrates that sustain differential mobilities urban rhythms and systems of circulation and exchange are intertwined with various forms of media and mediation Part III Development and redevelopment examines efforts by urban planners and designers municipal governments and community organizers to utilize media forms to imagine and shape the construction of the space and meaning of the city finally Part IV Strategies and tactics uses categories for practices of control and resistance to investigate media and struggles for power within urban environments from surveillance and place branding to activist media and the right to the city The Routledge Companion to Media and the City provides a definitive reference for both scholars and students of urban cultures and media within the humanities
