Terrae-filius, Or, The Secret History of the University of Oxford, 1721-1726 Nicholas Amhurst, 2004-04 Although Amhurst was often dismissed by nineteenth century historians of Oxford as a bitter slanderer of his university his work stands as the single most important and reliable contemporarily published account of life in early eighteenth century Oxford The Terrae Filius essays despite their satirical bent also demonstrate that Amhurst had a deep respect for the institution and a clear vision of the intellectual ideas it should embody This modern critical edition reprints all fifty three Terrae Filius essays including the three omitted from the 1726 collected editions and provides an introduction and extensive explanatory notes that set the essays in their historical and cultural context BOOK JACKET The Just and Loving Gaze of God with Us, Second Edition Henry Walter Spaulding III,2024-08-01 In recent years Paul has become the subject of renewed interest among political philosophers These philosophers deploy Paul as a means to deconstruct late modern political issues such as liberalism biopolitics and sovereignty However these philosophers ultimately truncate Paul s message to fit nontheistic materialist ends Such an approach polarizes interpreters often leading either to a full endorsement or full rejection In this work Spaulding adds a needed voice in this conversation By neither fully endorsing or fully rejecting the new approach to Paul Spaulding argues that Paul's message is both materialist and faithful to the Christian tradition Spaulding critically utilizes both the new approach and recent studies in apocalyptic interpretations of Paul in order to articulate a Pauline political theology for our time Pauline apocalyptic emphasizes the already disruptive nature of the incarnation crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth that wrests humanity from under the sovereignty of the fallen powers and places them under the Lordship of Christ Apocalyptic is nourished by the promise of the eschatological hope of the not yet finished work of Christ The church that follows the Lordship of Christ is called forth into being in the tension of the present Lordship of Christ and the not yet transformation of the cosmos Such a tension begets practices that form the political commitment of what philosopher Iris Murdoch calls the just and loving gaze namely the central conviction that in order to live good political
