Smoke Over Birkenau Jewish Lives:

Smoke Over Birkenau Liana Millu, 1991 Presents stories of women who lived and suffered alongside Liana Millu during months in a concentration camp describing their struggle to overcome violence and tragedy

Jewish Men and the Holocaust: Sexuality, Emotions, Masculinity Florian Zabransky, 2024-10-21 During the Holocaust amid death and violence Jewish men were not mere powerless victims Linking gender studies with a history of sexuality and emotions will highlight intimate agency power struggles negotiations of relationships social dynamics and representations of masculinities Considering the agency and vulnerability will further convey intimate choices the representation of masculine ideals intimate violence and the expression of various emotions such as honour and love As research on the Holocaust often links women with sexuality or portrays women as gendered beings it is crucial to excavate the intimate hidden lives of Jewish men and their specific intimate experiences as men The analysis not only demonstrates how Jewish men remember and make sense of their experiences but also how they chose to form the narrative and how they represented their ordeal in four chapters namely ghettos concentration camps Jewish resistance in the countryside and finally DP camps in the aftermath of the Holocaust The consideration of these four spaces allows a nuanced innovative understanding of the intimate history of Jewish men during the Holocaust i.e. how some men established male dominated structures and established intimate strategies to find solace and pleasure

The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Bozena Karwowska, 2023-10-16 The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Early Literary Accounts of the Camp Experience examines bodily descriptions from early testimonies of concentration camp survivors focusing on questions related to meanings of corporeality as well as to Holocaust researchers and links the discourse of the body with a social cartography of the Auschwitz camp complex The heart of the book is comprised of memory based texts written by survivors in the early years after the war The early texts discussed were written in Polish and while some became internationally recognized others remain virtually unknown especially outside of Poland These early memoirs and literary works help navigate the space of the Auschwitz camp complex from the perspective of the victims based on their experiences and decipher those areas devoid of narratives spaces of total annihilation Literary accounts and early testimonies allow us to map the space of the camp differently than through the documents produced by the Nazi perpetrators Such a social cartography also includes specific gendered differences and allows Karwowska to critically analyze sensitive questions related to the body gender and sexuality of a prisoner

The Liberation of the Camps Dan Stone, 2015-01-01 A moving deeply researched account of survivors experiences of liberation from Nazi death camps and the long difficult years that followed Seventy years have passed since the tortured inmates of Hitler's concentration and extermination camps were liberated When the horror of the atrocities came fully to light it was easy for others to imagine the joyful relief of freed prisoners Yet for those who had survived the unimaginable the experience of liberation was a slow grueling journey back to life In this unprecedented inquiry into the days months and years following the arrival of Allied forces at the Nazi camps a foremost historian of the Holocaust draws on archival sources and especially on eyewitness testimonies to reveal the complex challenges liberated victims faced and the daunting tasks their liberators undertook to help them reclaim their shattered lives Historian Dan Stone focuses on the survivors their feelings of guilt exhaustion fear shame for having survived and devastating grief for lost family members their immense medical problems and their later demands to be released from Displaced Persons camps and resettled in countries of their own choosing Stone also tracks the efforts of British American Canadian and Russian liberators as they contended with survivors immediate needs then grappled with longer term issues that shaped the postwar world and ushered in the first chill of the Cold War years ahead

After the Holocaust David Cesarani, Eric J. Sundquist, 2011-09-29 For the last decade scholars have been questioning the idea that the Holocaust was not talked about in any way until well into the 1970s After the Holocaust Challenging the Myth of Silence is the first collection of authoritative original scholarship to expose a serious misreading of the past on which controversially the claims for a Holocaust industry rest Taking an international approach this bold new book exposes the myth and opens the way for a sweeping reassessment of Jewish life in the postwar era a life lived in the pervasive shared awareness that Jews had narrowly survived a catastrophe that had engulfed humanity as a whole but claimed two thirds of their number The chapters include an overview of the efforts by survivor historians and memoir writers to inform the world of the catastrophe that had befallen the Jews of Europe an evaluation of the work of survivor historians and memoir writers new light on the Jewish historical commissions and the Jewish documentation centres studies of David Boder a Russian born psychologist who recorded searing interviews with survivors and the work of philosophers social thinkers and theologians theatrical productions by survivors and the first films on the theme made in Hollywood how the Holocaust had an impact on the everyday life of Jews in the USA and a discussion of the different types and meanings of silence A breakthrough volume in the debate about the Myth of Silence this is a must for all students of Holocaust and genocide

Gulag Literature and the Literature of Nazi Camps Leona Toker, 2019-08-28 A literary scholar examines survival narratives from Russian and German concentration camps shedding new light on testimony in the face of evil In this illuminating study Leona Toker demonstrates how Holocaust literature and Gulag literature provide contexts for each other especially how the prominent features of one shed light on the veiled features and methods of the other Toker's analysis concentrates on the narrative qualities of the works as well as how each text documents the writer's experience in a form where fictionalized narrative can double as historical testimony Toker also views these texts against the background of historical information about the Soviet and the Nazi regimes of repression Writers at the center of this work include Varlam Shalamov Primo Levi Elie Wiesel and Ka Tzetnik and others including Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Evgeniya Ginzburg and Jorge Sempr n illuminate the discussion Toker also provides context for references to potentially obscure historical events and shows how they form new meaning in the text

Victoria Aarons,Holli Levitsky,2019-02-28 Surveys the current state of Jewish American and Holocaust literatures as well as approaches to teaching them What does it mean to read and to teach Jewish American and Holocaust literatures in the early decades of the twenty first century New directions and new forms of expression have emerged both in the invention of narratives and in the methodologies and discursive approaches taken toward these texts The premise of this book is that despite moving farther away in time the Holocaust continues to shape and inform contemporary Jewish American writing Divided into analytical and pedagogical sections the chapters present a range of possibilities for thinking about these literatures Contributors address such genres as biography the graphic novel alternate history midrash poetry and third generation and hidden child Holocaust narratives Both canonical and contemporary authors are covered including Michael Chabon Nathan Englander Anne Frank Dara Horn Joe Kupert Philip Roth and William Styron The range of critical approaches and authors examined makes this a valuable resource for scholars and teachers Particularly in this troubling political moment meditations on the new and continued relevance of Jewish American and Holocaust literatures for scholars students and the American public in general are invaluable Sharon B Oster author of No Place in Time The Hebraic Myth in Late Nineteenth Century American Literature Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index

S. Lillian Kremer,2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 Neorealism and the "New" Italy

Simonetta Milli Konewko,2016-08-20 Neorealism and the New Italy centers on neorealist Italian artists use of compassion as a vehicle to express their characters interactions Simonetta Milli Konewko proposes that compassion as an emotion may be activated to unify certain individuals and communities and investigates the mechanisms that allowed compassion to operate during the postwar period Aiming to produce a deeper understanding of the ways in which Italy is re encoded and reconstructed this book explores the formation of Italian identity and redefines neorealism as a topic of investigation

The Jewish Holocaust Marty Bloomberg, Buckley Barry Barrett, 1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years Jewish resistance

Aroma Constance Classen, David Howes, Anthony Synnott, 2002-11-01 Smell is a social phenomenon given particular meanings and values by different cultures Odours form the building blocks of cosmologies class hierarchies and political odours They can enforce social structures or transgress them unite people or divide them empower or disempower The authors argue that the sociology of smell is repressed in the modern West and its social history ignored This book breaks the olfactory silence of modernity It offers the first comprehensive exploration of the cultural role of odours in Western history from antiquity to the present It also covers a wide variety of non Western societies Its topics range from the medieval concept of the odour of sanctity to the aromatherapies of South America and from olfactory stereotypes of gender and ethnicity in the modern West to the role of smell in postmodernity Its subject matter will fascinate anyone who likes to nose around in the inner workings of culture

Jewish Doctors and the Holocaust Ross W. Halpin, 2019-01-14 This is the first attempt to explain how Jewish doctors survived extreme adversity in Auschwitz where death could occur at any moment The ordinary Jewish slave labourer survived an average of fifteen weeks Ross Halpin discovers that Jewish doctors survived an average of twenty months many under the same horrendous conditions as ordinary prisoners Despite their status as privileged prisoners Jewish doctors starved froze were beaten to death and executed Many Holocaust survivors attest that luck God and miracles were their saviors The author suggests that surviving Auschwitz was far more complex Interweaving the stories of Jewish doctors before and during the Holocaust Halpin develops a model that explains the anatomy of survival According to his model the genesis of survival of extreme adversity is the will to live which must be accompanied by the necessities of life specific personal traits and defence mechanisms For survival all four must co exist

Imagery from Genesis in Holocaust Memoirs Deborah Lee Prescott, 2014-01-10 In the life stories of Holocaust survivors biblical imagery can be invoked to explicate the unexplainable to make real the unreal This text examines the role of Genesis in the autobiographies of survivors Three main concerns converge the literary nature of Biblical allusion the contextual history of the Holocaust and Midrashic considerations that arise from biblical reference Chapters examine references to Adam and Eve s expulsion from paradise Noah s Ark the Tower of Babel the Akeda Jacob s struggle with the angel and Cain s murder of Abel

Performing Without a Stage Robert Wechsler, 1998 Performing Without a Stage is a lively and comprehensive introduction to the art of literary translation for readers of foreign fiction and poetry who wonder what it takes to translate how the art of literary translation has changed over the centuries what problems translators face in bringing foreign works into English and how they go about solving these problems This book will also be of interest to translators writers editors critics and literature students dealing as it does often controversially with such matters as the translator's fidelity to the author the publishing and reviewing of translations the nearly nonexistent public image of the stageless translator and the value for writers and scholars of studying and practicing translation

The Jewish American Novel Philippe Codde, 2007 Philippe Codde provides a comparative cultural analysis of the unprecedented success of the Jewish novel in the postwar United States by situating the process and event in the context of three closely related American cultural movements the popularity in the US of French philosophical and literary existentialism the increasing visibility of the Holocaust in US American life and the advent of radical theology Codde argues that the literary repertoire of the postwar Jewish novel consists of an amalgam of these cultural elements that were making their mark in the political religious and philosophical systems of the United States at the time and that this explains in part the Jewish novel's sweeping success in the American literary system
