Speaking for Ourselves Lillian Faderman, 1969 American Ethnic Writing Lillian Faderman, Barbara Bradshaw, 1969

The Assimilation Experience of Five American White Ethnic Novelists of the Twentieth Century Betty Ann

Burch, 2017-10-23 This title originally published in 1990 is a contribution to the social and literary history of ethnic groups in America Its sources are the writings chiefly novels of five authors of Eastern and Southern European descent chosen because they depict the acculturation of their people the meeting of their own ethnic group and American society From their marginal stance they expressed in fiction what they had observed and experienced and they wrote symbolically of their journey to a choice of belonging to one group or the other This title will be of interest to students of literature history and sociology

Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976

Japanese Americans Roger Daniels, Sandra C. Taylor, Harry H. L. Kitano, 2013-05-01 This revised and expanded edition of Japanese Americans From Relocation to Redress presents the most complete and current published account of the Japanese American experience from the evacuation order of World War II to the public policy debate over redress and reparations A chronology and comprehensive overview of the Japanese American experience by Roger Daniels are underscored by first person accounts of relocations by Bill Hosokawa Toyo Suyemoto Kawakami Barry Saiki Take Uchida and others and previously undescribed events of the internment camps for enemy aliens by John Culley and Tetsuden Kashima The essays bring us up to the U S government s first redress payments made forty eight years after the incarceration of Japanese Americans began The combined vision of editors Roger Daniels Sandra C Taylor and Harry H L Kitano in pulling together disparate aspects of the Japanese American experience results in a landmark volume in the wrenching experiment of American democracy Speaking for Ourselves Lillian Faderman,1969 The collection includes writings from the following groups African American Oriental American Native American Hispanic American Jewish American and European Near Eastern American writers I Call to Remembrance Toyo Suyemoto,2007-07-13 Toyo Suyemoto is known informally by literary scholars and the media as Japanese America s poet laureate But Suyemoto has always described herself in much more humble terms A first generation Japanese American she has identified herself as a storyteller a teacher a mother whose only child died from illness and an internment camp survivor Before Suyemoto passed away in 2003 she wrote a moving and illuminating memoir of her internment camp experiences with her family and infant son at Tanforan Race Track and later at the Topaz Relocation Center in Utah from 1942 to 1945 A uniquely poetic contribution to the small body of internment memoirs Suyemoto s account includes information about policies and wartime decisions that are not widely known and recounts in detail the way in which internees adjusted their notions of selfhood and citizenship lending insight to the complicated and controversial questions of citizenship accountability and resistance of first and second generation Japanese Americans Suyemoto s poems many written during internment are interwoven throughout the text and serve as counterpoints to the contextualizing narrative Suyemoto s poems many written during internment are interwoven throughout the text and serve as counterpoints to the contextualizing narrative A small collection of poems written in the years following her incarceration further reveal the psychological effects of her experience Challenges of Diversity Werner Sollors,2017-10-26 What unites and what divides Americans as a nation Who are we and can we strike a balance between an emphasis on our divergent ethnic origins and what we have in common Opening with a survey of American literature through the vantage point of ethnicity Werner Sollors examines our evolving understanding of ourselves as an Anglo American nation to a multicultural one and the key role writing has played in that process Challenges of Diversity contains stories of American myths of arrival pilgrims at Plymouth Rock slave ships at Jamestown steerage passengers at Ellis Island the powerful rhetoric of egalitarian promise in the Declaration of Independence and the heterogeneous ends to which it has been put and the recurring tropes of multiculturalism over time e pluribus unum melting pot cultural pluralism Sollors suggests that although the transformation of this settler country into a polyethnic and self consciously multicultural nation may appear as a story of great progress toward the fulfillment of egalitarian ideals deepening economic inequality actually exacerbates the divisions among Americans today Who's Who in Lesbian and Gay Writing Gabriele Griffin,2003-09-02 Who s Who in Lesbian and Gay Writing is a lively and accessible biographical guide to lesbian and gay literary culture from Sappho to modern pulp fiction. Featuring authors of works with lesbian or gay content as well as known lesbian and gay writers, this volume opens the boundaries of this field to include the writers of popular cultural fiction. It places these alongside the canon of poets, dramatists, and novelists to acknowledge the importance of pop culture to gay and lesbian communities. It includes fascinating entries on authors from W. H. Auden to Alice Walker, James Baldwin to Virginia Woolf. Also included are those such as Judith Butler who have theorised lesbian and gay culture and writing or have contributed to the uncovering and charting of this vibrant literary history. Fully cross referenced and with suggestions for further reading, this book offers an invaluable guide to a rich and varied literary culture and is indispensable for anyone with an interest in lesbian and gay writing.

The Forbidden Stitch Shirley Lim, Mayumi Tsutakawa, Margarita Donnelly, 1989 This first U.S. anthology of work by Asian American women contains poetry, prose, and graphic art and a section of reviews of previously published literature. These women, in contrast to their foremothers, repeatedly identify themselves through their art. Very often they do this by showing who they are not: not male, not white. The works reveal their pride in their cultural heritage. ISBN 0 934971 10 2
