HERE SPOKE SIGN LANGUAGE Nora Ellen GROCE, 2009-06-30 From the seventeenth century to the early years of the twentieth the population of Martha's Vineyard manifested an extremely high rate of profound hereditary deafness In stark contrast to the experience of most deaf people in our own society the Vineyarders who were born deaf were so thoroughly integrated into the daily life of the community that they were not seen and did not see themselves as handicapped or as a group apart Deaf people were included in all aspects of life such as town politics jobs church affairs and social life How was this possible On the Vineyard hearing and deaf islanders alike grew up speaking sign language This unique sociolinguistic adaptation meant that the usual barriers to communication between the hearing and the deaf which so isolate many deaf people today did not exist

The Future Conditional Eric S. Henry, 2021-05-15 In The Future Conditional Eric S Henry brings twelve years of expertise and research to offer a nuanced discussion of the globalization of the English language and the widespread effects it has had on Shenyang the capital and largest city of China's northeast Liaoning Province Adopting an ethnographic and linguistic perspective Henry considers the personal connotations that English has for Chinese people beyond its role in the education system Through research on how English is spoken taught and studied in China Henry considers what the language itself means to Chinese speakers How and why he asks has English become so deeply fascinating in contemporary China simultaneously existing as a source of desire and anxiety The answer he suggests is that English speaking Chinese consider themselves distinctly separate from those who do not speak the language the result of a cultural assumption that speaking English makes a person modern Seeing language as a study that goes beyond the classroom The Future Conditional assesses the emerging viewpoint that for many citizens speaking English in China has become a cultural need and more immediately a realization of one's future

Race, Language, and Subjectivation Liesa Rühlmann, 2023-10-28 Many school students in Germany are plurilingual and use German and further languages in their daily lives This use is differently approached and valued Not only languages spoken but race too plays a role in how language use is addressed in schools Interviews that were conducted and analyzed with a Grounded Theory approach show that subject positions assigned to students concerning plurilingualism shape how they reflect on experiences in school from a retrospective focus By turning to a raciolinguistic perspective and drawing on subjectivation theory the terms used to signify dominantly found repositionings are raciolinguistic norm and raciolinguistic Other The results highlight the necessity of focusing in more detail on how listening positionalities shape language use in society and in schools specifically

Love Knows No Bounds Virginia Erifful Sigley, 2017-03-21 Emily a young lady from the Philippines immigrated to America to join her aunt The only asset she had when she left home was her strong faith in God to carry her through the great world she was destined to conquer Through God's grace she found a job in a prestigious firm in Los Angeles She's incredibly brilliant courageous and not intimidated by what's ahead of her These are some of the tools which Emily used to reach her greatest success in becoming the chief quality technical consultant of the Finance Circuit Optimum Company Luke a very handsome and intelligent young man was a general manager of the firm to which Emily reported for duty His success in running his department is due to his never daunting leadership He is greatly admired and respected by the people under his management Because of his good judgment and influence he eventually got promoted to executive vice president of the company There was an instant connection between him and Emily ever since they met Over the years of working together they found strength in one another including lifting each other's spirit when things became grim at work As time went on their friendship developed into a romantic relationship As their love for each other grew deeper they relied more and more on the Lord's guidance Luke's visit to Emily's home in the Philippines and meeting her family became the pivotal point in his quest for happiness and peace Most of all Emily's world may be as far away from Luke's world but the world they live in is totally in God's hands Although there is a disparity between Luke's and Emily's world it really didn't matter to them for their deep love for each other will ultimately prevail because love knows no bounds
