

TEX SAMPLE THE SPECTACLE OF WORSHIP IN A WIRED WORLD

A stylized illustration of a globe as a computer mouse on a circuit board. The globe is positioned in the center-left, with its top half showing a blue and white pattern and its bottom half showing a red and white pattern. It is connected to several thick, coiled cables that snake across the blue circuit board background. The cables are rendered with a metallic, ribbed texture. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, rectangular component that looks like a USB connector or a similar electronic part. The overall aesthetic is a blend of technology and nature, with the globe representing the Earth in a digital context.

Spectacle Of Worship In A Wired World:

The Spectacle of Worship in a Wired World Tex Sample, 1998 Discusses how our current electronic culture differs from the post World War II generation and as a result involves different ways of experiencing and knowing the world Relating this phenomena to worship practices the author proposes that the older generation needs to understand what electronic culture consists of and incorporate it into the church s worship Includes chapter notes and an index The McDonaldization of the Church John William Drane, 2002-02 A theology which comes pre packaged and in which there are no loose ends is not true to life nor can it adequately reflect the richness of the Gospel Why are churches struggling to maintain credibility in a culture in which there are more spiritual seekers than at any time in living memory John Drane believes that churches have become stereotyped structures offering uninventive formulaic worship to a dwindling minority But there are exciting opportunities for growth he argues if only churches will rediscover their own creativity and flexibility If only they will offer something more nourishing for post modern spiritual appetites than the equivalent of fast food

Beyond Cutting Edge? Paul C. Heidebrecht, 2014-03-10 A quick scan of any newsstand is enough to confirm the widespread preoccupation with technological change As a myriad of articles and advertisements demonstrate not only are we preoccupied with technology but we are bombarded with numerous reminders that the cutting edge is in constant motion Most often the underlying assumption of Christians is that we have no choice but to find ways to cope with the latest and greatest Indeed it is often assumed that the church has no choice but to find ways to cope with its new technological context This book does not make the same assumptions Building on the work of Mennonite theologian John Howard Yoder it argues that the practices of the church make it possible for Christians to conscientiously engage technology This happens when we recognize that marks of the church such as patience vulnerability and servanthood can put technological ideals such as speed control and efficiency in their proper place In the course of grappling with three examples of morally formative technologies automobiles genetically modified food and the Internet this book goes beyond Yoder s thought by emphasizing that the church also plays a crucial role in our moral formation On Mission with Jesus Graham Cray, 2024-01-22 January 2024 marks the 20th anniversary of the start of the Fresh Expressions movement which spread internationally and denominationally from its origins in the Church of England Graham Cray was its first National Leader Countless new forms of church have emerged through Fresh Expressions the Church Army New Wine and various pioneer network On Mission with Jesus offers a theological understanding of the missional nature of the church which will undergird and inform local practice and assist ministerial and pioneer training Its central argument is that the Church s inherited understanding of itself imprisons the imagination of local congregations and in ten chapters Graham Cray seeks to establish a new self understanding for local congregations 1 Updating Default Settings 2 Sharing in the Mission of God 3 Making Disciples 4 Following the Spirit 5 Shaping the Church 6 Anticipating the Future 7 Joining the family Business 8 Being a Pilgrim People 9

Blue Collar Resistance and the Politics of Jesus Prof. Tex Sample, 2006-09-01 To be faithful to the gospel all ministry must be indigenous it must participate in the distinctive practices and perspectives of the people among whom ministry is taking place Because our society tends to ignore or deny the reality of class divisions and prejudice too many congregational leaders know too little about the world of working class whites Continuing his groundbreaking work on class and American religion Sample opens up the lives and lifestyles of working class whites in order to engage with them in authentic and transformational ministry From the Circuit Rider review Tex Sample has written one of the most fun books to read on ministry that you will ever come across Weaving philosophy theology country western lyrics and stories throughout the book Sample at once delights and provokes us to think about the way in which we live out church in this day and age Click here to read the whole review

Silver Screen, Sacred Story Michael G. Bausch, 2002-12-31 Our culture has undergone a major shift younger generations have less and less interest in the printed word as they become predominantly image oriented In response as congregations increasingly learn to be more sophisticated in using newer electronic technologies they are finding themselves at different places in the quest to understand acquire manage and benefit from the technology boom Worship leaders in congregations already using some electronic media are realizing that they could be doing more with it and are seeking new ideas Congregational leaders scrambling to catch up with a worship committee that has decided it s time for a change aren t sure of the next steps Or maybe there s been a gift to the congregation to be spent on electronics and no one is quite sure how best to use the money Michael Bausch s book grows out of several years of conversation personal experimentation and experience with multimedia worship in one modest sized small town church while also drawing on the experiences and work of other churches learning to use electronic media in worship Bausch balances concern for practical issues such as finances and architecture with attention to theological integrity and the challenges of sustaining media enhanced worship He skillfully shows how the Prophetically Incorrect Robert H. Jr. Woods, Paul D. Patton, 2010-08-01 The Bible includes prophetic speech and at times the church and its representatives are called to speak prophetically But in our media saturated age when many claim to speak for God how can we evaluate the avalanche of supposedly prophetic speech What does it mean to truly be prophetic And when Christians should speak prophetically how can they do so in a biblical and effective way Using vivid examples this book offers clear guidelines for creating critiquing and consuming popular media as well as practical suggestions for faithful communication It also helps readers think critically about communication technology The book includes a foreword by Quentin Schultze and a preface by Clifford Christians Faith, Media, and Persuasion Adam Bajan, 2025-06-12 Faith Media and Persuasion explores how non denominational evangelical organizations orchestrate commercial grade entertainment media to amplify religious rhetoric Providing an in depth look at the unique socio technical situation facing evangelicals this book analyzes the unique methods of persuasion that independent churches rely on to maintain their congregant base and recruit new members in a crowded religious marketplace Scholars of media ecology media studies rhetoric and sociology of religion will find this book of particular interest Playing On: Re-staging the Passion after the Christian Preaching Michael Pasquarello III, 2011-06-28 Michael Pasquarello has written a must read book articulating a Trinitarian vision for preaching His compelling argument is richly informed by traditional biblical hermeneutics creedal history understood as storied attestation of the witness of Scripture and liturgical theology and practice considered as embodied performance of the Bible s divine narrative Here is a clear summons to the church to abandon all lesser homiletic aims and to prayerfully and faithfully proclaim the holy gospel to the glory of God Charles L Bartow Princeton Theological Seminary Like all of Michael Pasquarello s work his newest book not only upholds the classical Christian tradition but also breathes new vitality into it In an era in which preaching is reduced to persuasive communication Pasquarello reminds us that the Christian message has a content that originates in and gives expression to the Father Son and Holy Spirit Richard Lischer Duke Divinity School One of the refreshing things about this fine book by Michael Pasquarello is that when he thinks about the ministry of preaching he is not afraid to measure the breadth historically or plumb the depths theologically Pasquarello has written this book like a good sermon faithfully thoughtfully prayerfully and with a profound word to speak We are in his debt Thomas G Long Candler School of Theology Boldly challenging homiletical accommodation to American culture Pasquarello seeks to change the subject of preaching from method and marketing to the Triune God who is the source and goal of our speech A welcome theological vision of preaching Charles L Campbell Columbia Theological Seminary Christian Preaching brings together two disciplines that have sadly grown apart such that they almost developed irreconcilable differences preaching and theology Pasquarello offers a brilliant critique of theology as technique and draws on the theology and sermons of Irenaeus Augustine Luther Wesley and others convincingly demonstrating that effective pragmatic preaching requires substantive theological engagement and vice versa This book accomplishes its purpose so well that it should be used not only in preaching courses but also in basic theology courses No preacher should be let loose on a congregation without passing through Pasquarello s Christian Preaching D Stephen Long Marquette University Mike Pasquarello III PhD University of North Carolina Chapel Hill is Granger E and Anna A Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary He is the author of Sacred Rhetoric Preaching as a Theological and Pastoral Practice of the Church Engaging Technology in Theological Education Mary E. Hess, 2005-04-28 We live in a media culture surrounded by ever evolving digital technologies While state schools and secular organizations have embraced the new teaching tools and models for learning that technology affords religious institutions have struggled with how and why to do the same All that we can t leave behind Engaging technology in theological education is a breakthrough book that invites religious educators to both engage and adapt their pedagogy to incorporate new media and technology Drawing from her expertise as a seminary professor and consultant to religious institutions on the use of technology in teaching Mary Hess invites professors pastors seminarians and anyone interested in religious education into critical reflection on ways of engaging technology to enhance learning and serve as critical interpreters within communities of faith Practicing Religion in the Age of the Media Stewart M. Hoover, Lynn Schofield Clark, 2002 Focusing on the crossover between the sacred and the secular this volume gathers the work of media experts religious historians sociologists of religion and authorities on American studies and art history Women, Gender, and Technology Mary Frank Fox, Deborah G. Johnson, Sue V. Rosser, 2024-03-18 An interdisciplinary investigation of the co creation of gender and technology Each of the ten chapters in Women Gender and Technology explores a different aspect of how gender and technology work and are at work in particular domains including film narratives reproductive technologies information technology and the profession of engineering The volume s contributors include representatives of over half a dozen different disciplines and each provides a novel perspective on the foundational idea that gender and technology co create one another Together their articles provide a window on to the rich and complex issues that arise in the attempt to understand the relationship between these profoundly intertwined notions
