Speech Genres And Other Late Essays:

Speech Genres and Other Late Essays Mikhail Mikhaïlovich Bakhtin, 1986 Speech Genres and Other Late Essays presents six short works from Bakhtin's Esthetics of Creative Discourse published in Moscow in 1979. This is the last of Bakhtin's extant manuscripts published in the Soviet Union. All but one of these essays—the one on the Bildungsroman—were written in Bakhtin's later years and thus they bear the stamp of a thinker who has accumulated a huge storehouse of factual material to which he has devoted a lifetime of analysis, reflection, and reconsideration. Speech genres and other late essays Michail M. Bakhtin, 1986 Speech Genres and Other Late Essays presents six short works from Bakhtin's Esthetics of Creative Discourse published in Moscow in 1979. MacGee, 1986 Semioethics as Existential Dialogue Susan Petrilli, Susan Mancino, 2024-10-28 This collection brings together perspectives on the interplay of communication, dialogue, and responsibility, exploring communicative acts of disruption toward a social environment attuned to short-sighted individualism. Semioethics highlights the condition of inevitable entanglement with the other at the origin of sociality, which demands a response to the other based on listening and accountability. The volume introduces readers to the theoretical foundations of semioethics, an emergent direction within sign and language studies which relies upon a commitment to otherness, unindifference, and dialogue. Building on the dialogic approaches of Mikhail Bakhtin and Emmanuel Levinas, chapters grouped into five sections are all guided by the notion of responsibility toward the other outside of utilitarian logic and greedy exchange. This collection highlights the ways in which semioethics considers the ethical implications of the signs that mediate dialogue among persons in the social sphere: public and private, sacred and profane. It presupposes the notion that signs are only meaningful in their relation to other signs and the intersubjectivity among persons in dialogue. Chapters also variously examine how the interplay of semioethics and dialogue underpins public life and the existential gifts that sustain a healthy polis. This book will be of interest to scholars in semiotics, dialogue research, communication ethics, and philosophy of communication. Journal for the Evangelical Study of the Old Testament, 4.1 Stephen J. Between Philosophy and Literature Daphna Erdinast-Vulcan, 2013-12-11 This is an original reading of Mikhail Bakhtin in the context of Western philosophical traditions and counter traditions The book portrays Bakhtin as a Modernist thinker torn between an ideological secularity and a profound religious sensibility invariably concerned with questions of ethics and impelled to turn from philosophy to literature as another way of knowing Most major studies of Bakhtin highlight the fragmented and apparently discontinuous nature of his work Erdinast Vulcan emphasizes instead the underlying coherence of the Bakhtinian project reading its inherent ambivalences as an intersection of philosophical literary and psychological insights into the dynamics of embodied subjectivity Bakhtin s turn to literature and poetry as well as the dissatisfactions that motivated it align him with three other exilic Continental philosophers who were his contemporaries Bergson Merleau Ponty and Levinas Adopting Bakhtin s own open ended approach to the human sciences the book stages a series of philosophical encounters between these thinkers highlighting their respective itineraries and impasses and generating a Bakhtinian synergy of ideas

Ethical Sense and Literary Significance Donald R. Wehrs, 2023-07-31 This study blends together ethical philosophy neurocognitive evolutionary studies and literary theory to explore how imaginative discourse addresses a distinctively human deep sociality and by doing so helps shape cultural and literary history Deep sociality arising from an improbable evolutionary history both entwines and leaves non reconciled what is felt to be significant for us and what ethical sense seems to call us to acknowledge as significant independent of ourselves Ethical Sense and Literary Significance connects literary and cultural history without reducing the literary to a mere expression of something else It argues that affective differences between non egocentric and egocentric registers of significance are integral to the bioculturally evolved deep sociality that verbal art addresses often in unsettling and socially critical ways Much imaginative discourse in early societies as well as recent ones brings ethical sense and literary significance together in ways that reveal their intricate but non harmonized internal entwinement Drawing on contemporary scholarship in the humanities and sciences Donald R Wehrs

Bakhtinian Perspectives on Language and Culture F. Bostad, C. Brandist, L. Evensen, H. Faber, 2004-10-12 In this multi disciplinary volume comprising the work of several established scholars from different countries central concepts associated with the work of the Bakhtin Circle are interrogated in relation to intellectual history language theory and an understanding of new media The book will prove an important resource for those interested in the ideas of the Bakhtin Circle but also for those attempting to develop a coherent theoretical approach to language in use and problems of meaning production in new media

The New Metaphysicals Courtney Bender, 2010-07-15 American spirituality with its focus on individual meaning experience and exploration is usually thought to be a product of the postmodern era But as The New Metaphysicals makes clear contemporary American spirituality has historic roots in the nineteenth century and a great deal in common with traditional religious movements To explore this world Courtney Bender combines research into the history of the movement with fieldwork in Cambridge Massachusetts a key site of alternative religious inquiry from Emerson and William James to today Through her ethnographic analysis Bender discovers that a focus on the new on progress and on the way spiritual beliefs intersect with science obscures the historical roots of spirituality from its practitioners and those who study it alike and shape an enduring set of modern religious possibilities in the process

Divining the Woman of Endor J. Kabamba Kiboko, 2017-02-23 An examination of the language of divination in the Hebrew Bible particularly in 1 Samuel 28 3 25 the oft called Witch of Endor passage Kiboko contends that much of the vocabulary of divination in this passage and beyond has been mistranslated in authorized English and other translations used in Africa and in scholarly writings Kiboko argues that the woman of Endor is not a witch The woman of Endor is rather a diviner much like other ancient Near Eastern and modern African diviners She resists an inner biblical conquest theology and a monologic authoritarian view of divination to assist King Saul by various means including invoking the spirit of a departed person Samuel Kiboko carries out a Hebrew word study shaped by the theories of Mikhail M Bakhtin regarding the utterance heteroglossia and dialogism in order to understand the designative connotative emotive and associative meanings of the many divinatory terms in the Hebrew Bible She then examines 1 Samuel 28 and a number of prior translations thereof using the ideological framework of African feminist postcolonial biblical interpreters and translation theories to uncover the hidden ideology or transcript of these translations Finally using African contextual cultural hermeneutics and cross cultural translation theory Kiboko offers new English French and Kisanga translations of this passage that are both faithful to the original text and more appropriate to an inculturated liberation African Christian hermeneutic theology and praxis

Religion in the Thought of Mikhail Bakhtin Hilary B.P. Bagshaw, 2016-04-08 This book examines the significance of religion in the work of the twentieth century philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin Exploring Bakhtin's contribution to debates on methodology in the study of religion this book argues that his use of religious terminology is derived from his source material in philosophy of religion and not from his confessional commitment to Russian Orthodox Christianity Critiquing Gavin Flood's important work Beyond Phenomenology Hilary Bagshaw explains how Bakhtin's work on otherness presents invaluable insights for scholars of religion particularly pertinent to the contemporary insider/outsider debate
