Speeding To The Millennium Film And Culture 1993 1995:

Speeding to the Millennium Joseph Natoli, 1998-04-02 Intersperses headline events popular film postmodern theory and fictional vignettes in order to capture the elusive cultural imaginary of our twentieth century fin de siècle The Uncanny Child in Transnational Cinema Jessica Balanzategui, 2025-10-01 The Uncanny Child in Transnational Cinema illustrates how global horror film depictions of children re conceptualised childhood at the turn of the twenty first century By analysing an influential body of transnational horror films largely stemming from Spain Japan and the US Jessica Balanzategui shows how millennial uncanny child characters resist embodying growth and futurity unravelling concepts to which the child's symbolic function is typically bound The book proposes that complex cultural and industrial shifts at the turn of the millennium resulted in these potent cinematic renegotiations of the concept of childhood By demonstrating both the culturally specific and globally resonant properties of these frightening visions of children who refuse to grow up the book outlines the conceptual and aesthetic mechanisms by which long entrenched ideologies of futurity national progress and teleological history started to waver at the turn of the twenty first century Dark Affinities, Dark Imaginaries Joseph Natoli, 2016-11-17 A story of self braided to a story of American culture Uniting personal history with cultural history Dark Affinities Dark Imaginaries tells a story of a mind a time and a culture The vehicle or medium of this excursion is an overview and sampling of the author's work and what is revealed are cautionary tales of a once aspiring egalitarian democracy confronted with plutocracy's gentrification of analog history and off line life superseded by a rush toward virtualized robotic AI transformation of the human life world of everything social and public giving way to everything personal and opinionated The vagaries of a lifetime of paths taken are woven together by a narrative that reveals in every piece a significance that was only partially present at its initial writing Thus the reader becomes involved in a developing story of a certain personal psyche working toward understanding its own development within a changing American culture Sometimes angry sometimes joyful but always curious and wry Joseph Natoli crosses the boundary lines of psychology politics literature philosophy education and economics to show how we bring ourselves and our cultural imaginaries simultaneously into being through the processes and pleasures of thinking beyond the confines of the personal Reading Dark Affinities is a welcome break from the neoliberal buzzword speak of politicians and university administrators It reminds me why I entered academia when it was a profession and not a business and when modeling thinking actually mattered Alison Lee University of Western Ontario Natoli's Dark Affinities reads as a culminating work of scholarship marshaling evidence from autobiography literary analysis critical theory and everyday culture in support of its claims Natoli presents his personal history in the same spirit that Raymond Williams did as evidence for the ways that cultural forces shape individuals and as grounds for the shaping of his intellectual and political practice Jeff Karnicky author of Contemporary Fiction and the Ethics of Modern Culture The Second Century of Cinema Wheeler W. Dixon, 2000-02-28 Contemplates the future of cinema in light of emerging digital technologies and new systems of distribution      A Semiotic of Ethnicity Anthony Julian Tamburri,1998-01-01 Reexamines the notion of the hyphenate writer and offers a specific reading strategy that we may consider the Italian American writer in the age of semiotics poststructuralism and the like      American Cinema of the 1990s Chris Holmlund,2008 Films discussed include Terminator 2 The matrix Home alone Jurassic Park Pulp fiction Boys don t cry Toy story and Clueless      After the Orgy Dominic Pettman,2002-07-17 Explores the post Enlightenment obsession with apocalyptic endings      Selling Shakespeare to Hollywood Emma French,2006 Filmed Shakespeare criticism has largely centred on aesthetic critiques of filmic devices or on comparisons between the film and the source text Employing a new angle this book explores the reasons why contemporary filmed Shakespeare prompts cultural anxiety about high culture adaptation      Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad,2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Gr nstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Tranfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs      Public Culture ,1999

Postmodern Journeys Joseph Natoli,2001-01-01 Part memoir part cultural criticism this fast paced ride through the postmodern landscape of American popular culture explores how our responses to headline events and popular films help script the ways in which we imagine ourselves and the world around us      Choice ,1998      Apocalyptic Dread Kirsten Moana Thompson,2012-02-01 In Apocalyptic Dread Kirsten Moana Thompson examines how fears and anxieties about the future are reflected in recent American cinema Through close readings of such films as Cape Fear Candyman Dolores Claiborne Se7en Signs and War of the Worlds Thompson argues that a longstanding American apocalyptic tradition permeates our popular culture spreading from science fiction and disaster films into horror crime and melodrama Drawing upon Kierkegaard s notion of dread that is a fundamental anxiety and ambivalence about existential choice and the future Thompson suggests that the apocalyptic dread revealed in these films and its guiding tropes of violence retribution and renewal also reveal deep seated anxieties about historical fragmentation and change anxieties that are in turn displaced onto each film s particular monster whether human demonic or eschatological      Romance Dana Percec,2012-03-15 Romance The History of a Genre is a collection of essays devoted to the highly popular and no less controversial genre of romance A genre often disregarded for its stereotypical language shallow characters and predictable plots dismissed as women s fiction accused of conventionalism romance is a genre which after ups and downs in its millennial history is now holding a leading position on the international bookselling market This achievement has also been possible with the endorsement of contemporary media and modern technology cinema television the Internet etc Much has been written in both traditional and more recent literary theory about the origins and evolution of the early forms of romance from the classical Antiquity through the Middle Ages and into the Renaissance and early modernity in Western Europe A corpus which is becoming more and more substantial today is already available about the gendered status of contemporary romance both in terms of the writing ethos and in terms of reader response with theories coming from the combined areas of feminism social sciences and psychoanalysis The aim of the present volume is that of noting the fluid character of the genre with the great number of subcategories mixed and hybrid bringing evidence to the polymorphous nature of contemporary popular culture This book proposes in four parts and twelve chapters a fascinating and multifaceted journey into the history substance and geography of romance From its origins to the latest developments from its subgenres to its features from print to film from television to Facebook romance comes in various shapes and colours which the reader can fully explore The journey in the world of romance takes the reader from familiar corners to less familiar ones from North America Great Britain Romania or Turkey to India or South Africa The numerous approaches to romance generate diverse data varied analytical frameworks and interesting fresh and solidly grounded findings

Judging 'Privileged' Jews Adam Brown, 2015-05 The Nazis persecution of the Jews during the Holocaust included the creation of prisoner hierarchies that forced victims to cooperate with their persecutors Many in the camps and ghettos came to hold so called privileged positions and their behavior has often been judged as self serving and harmful to fellow inmates Such controversial figures constitute an intrinsically important frequently misunderstood and often taboo aspect of the Holocaust Drawing on Primo Levi s concept of the grey zone this study analyzes the passing of moral judgment on privileged Jews as represented by writers such as Raul Hilberg and in films including Claude Lanzmann s Shoah and Steven Spielberg s Schindler s List Negotiating the problems and potentialities of representing the unrepresentable this book engages with issues that are fundamental to present day attempts to understand the Holocaust and deeply relevant to reflections on human nature

At Stake Edward Ingebretsen, 2001 Anyone who watches the evening news is all too familiar with how the word monster is used to describe acts of violence In this book Edward Ingebretsen sets out to discover what is really at stake when we turn someone into a monster The monster he finds serves a moralizing function in our culture making exaggerated examples of particular evildoers in order to reaffirm prevailing standards of behavior and personal conduct
