Photoplay, 1924 New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2006-09-27 Praise for New Documentary It's refreshing to find a book that cuts through the tired old debates that have surrounded documentary film and television. It heralds a welcome new approach. Sight and Sound Documentary practice changes so fast that books on the subject are often out of date before they are published. Bruzzi's achievement is to have understood the genre as an activity based on performance rather than observation. This is a fresh perspective which illuminates the fundamental shifts that will continue to take place in the genre as it enters its second century. John Ellis, Professor of Media Arts, Royal Holloway University of London. New Documentary provides a contemporary look at documentary and fresh and challenging ways of theorising the non-fiction film. As engaging as the original, this second edition features thorough updates to the existing chapters as well as a brand new chapter on contemporary cinema release documentaries. This new edition includes Contemporary films such as Capturing the Friedmans, tre et avoir, Fahrenheit 9/11, The Fog of War and Touching the Void as well as more canonical texts such as Hoop Dreams and Shoah. Additional interviews with influential practitioners such as director Michael Apted and producer Stephen Lambert. A comprehensively revised discussion of modern observational documentary including docusoaps, reality television.

and formatted documentaries The work of documentary filmmakers such as Nicholas Barker Errol Morris Nick Broomfield Molly Dineen and Michael Moore and the work of Avant Garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker and Patrick Keiller Gender identity queer theory performance race and spectatorship Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2006 Roger Ebert, 2005-11 Now fully updated this annual yearbook includes every review Ebert had written from January 2007 to July 2009 It also includes interviews essays tributes and all new questions and answers from his Questions for the Movie Answer Man columns

would a modern teenager find classic films enthralling This book presents an eye opening tour of how old movies foreshadowed influenced and continue to shape popular culture in many surprising ways From foreseeing today s image dominated social media landscape to ushering rock music into the mainstream and sparking elements of the MeToo movement classic movies remain relevant and inspiring Despite prevailing attitudes that old films are outdated many dramatically broke boundaries around racism and antisemitism They predicted current trends in divorce and sexual relations They helped shape current icons like Taylor Swift and Lady Gaga as well as foreshadowing more sobering events such as the Covid 19 pandemic A Gen Z age cultural critic author Simone O Elias presents an insider s perspective on the socio cultural impact of classic Hollywood films on a modern generation
