Teaching Children

Money Matters Deanna Schwartzman, Deanna Suckow, 2010-03 TEACHING CHILDREN MONEY MATTERS HOW CAN ADULTS HELP THEIR CHILDREN LEARN TO AVOID CREDIT CARD DEBT AND BE BETTER PREPARED TO HANDLE THEIR OWN FUTURE FINANCES. All adults would like a secure financial future for their children. Throughout this book you will find numerous ideas, techniques, strategies and lessons that will provide answers to those very questions. Whether you are a parent, grandparent, teacher or student, you will find ideas and resources to begin understanding how to better help your children manage their money and have secure financial futures. In order to teach our children how to handle their finances, we need to educate ourselves and use available resources on the topic. Let this book GUIDE you to do just that. Deanna W. Schwartzman and Deanna M. Suckow are former teachers who have retired each after more than a quarter century in the classroom. Their experiences have been with regular and special education students. Each has been married for almost 50 years. Their current total of grandchildren stands at nine. It was with these grandchildren in mind that they began the research project which has culminated in this book. They were determined that their grandchildren have the knowledge of money management for a successful, well-informed financial future. With all these grandchildren and the present-day economy, they joined together to write Teaching Children Money Matters, a resource guide for parents, grandparents, teachers and students, and its companion book What Every Preteen, Teenager and Young Adult Needs to Know to Avoid Credit Card Debt. 21 statements that may change how the future generations handle money to secure their future finances.
