Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975 Resources in Education, 2001-10 Multilingualism, Second Language Learning, and Gender Aneta Pavlenko, Adrian Blackledge, Ingrid Piller, Marya Teutsch-Dwyer, 2011-04-20 This volume presents a comprehensive introduction to the study of second language learning multilingualism and gender An impressive array of papers situated within a feminist poststructuralist framework demonstrates how this framework allows for a deeper understanding of second language learning a number of language contact phenomena intercultural communication and critical language pedagogy The volume has wide appeal to students and scholars in the fields of language and gender sociolinguistics SLA anthropology and language education Conversation Analysis and Early Childhood Education Amanda Bateman, 2016-03-03 This book provides insight into the everyday activities co produced by teachers and young children demonstrating the fine details of teaching and learning as knowledge is shared through the everyday activities of talk in interaction Adopting an ethnomethodological perspective together with conversation analysis and membership categorisation analysis it reveals how teaching and learning are jointly accomplished during activities such as pretend play episodes during disputes managing illness and talking about the environment Through in depth studies of child teacher interactions the book explores the means by which knowledge is transferred and episodes of teaching and learning are co constructed by participants shedding light on the co production of social order the communication of knowledge and manner in which professional and relational identities are made relevant in interaction As such Conversation Analysis and Early Childhood Education will be of interest not only to scholars of ethnomethodology and conversation analysis but also to those working in the areas of early childhood studies and pedagogy Teacher education for working in linguistically diverse classrooms Anne Reath Warren, Jonas Yassin Iversen, Boglárka Straszer, 2025-05-06 This volume presents studies on aspects of teacher education that prepare teachers for working in linguistically diverse classrooms and schools in five Nordic countries Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden This twin focus teacher education in linguistically diverse contexts and Nordic perspectives makes the volume unique in its field and contributes to international discussions on how teacher education can prepare preservice and in service teachers for working with linguistically diverse student groups The volume includes contributions on Teacher education policies Teacher educators perspectives on teacher education and Pre service teacher perspectives on teacher education The ways in which teacher education prepares educators for working with newcomers and multilingual students has attracted considerable attention in recent years This reflects the increasingly linguistically diverse nature of classrooms that teachers around the world meet that is in turn a direct result of intensified globalisation and transnational migration Clearly teacher education is crucial for successful implementation of educational provisions for multilingual students Teacher knowledge gained partly through teacher education plays a central role in creating educational environments where multilingual students can thrive This volume focuses specifically on teacher education in a Nordic context a region traditionally associated with progressive approaches in education based on principles of inclusivity social justice and equal opportunity In the twenty first century most Nordic countries have experienced increasing levels of migration While neither multilingualism nor transnational migration are new phenomena in the region geographical and social factors as well as the ways humans communicate have helped make multilingualism more visible in the twenty first century Schools in the Nordic countries have had to act quickly and think flexibly to meet the needs of an increasingly linguistically and culturally heterogenous group of students The ability of the Nordic countries to provide these students with inclusive equal education and a fair chance to start a new life constitutes in some ways the ultimate test of the Nordic model of education Investigating how this challenge is addressed in different forms of teacher education is the topic to which this volume turns its attention

Talking to Learn Pauline Jones, Jennifer Hammond, 2018-10-09 This book examines the place of talk in learning and the role of such talk in literacy education It builds on a strong tradition of research into the role of talk in constructing curriculum knowledge the relationship between talking and thinking and the significance of extended in depth dialogic interaction in classroom talk However it differs from tradition with its emphasis on the need to make the role of language in learning more visible and more explicit This book places particular emphasis on the relationship between dialogic pedagogy and language based approaches to learning Contributions range from discussions on educational linguistics and dialogic pedagogy as complementary perspectives to needs of students for whom English is an additional language or dialect This volume was originally published as a special issue of Research Papers in Education
