Tallos De Lunamoon Shoots:

Tallos de luna Elba Rosario Sánchez, 1992 Moon shoots Elba Rosario Sánchez, 1992 Voicing Chicana Feminisms Aida Hurtado, 2003 Focusing on the voices of young women this book explores the relationship between Chicana feminism and the actual experiences of Chicanas today Chicana Feminisms Patricia Zavella, Gabriela F. Arredondo, Aida Hurtado, Norma Klahn, Olga Najera-Ramirez, 2003-07-09 Chicana Feminisms presents new essays on Chicana feminist thought by scholars creative writers and artists This volume moves the field of Chicana feminist theory forward by examining feminist creative expression the politics of representation and the realities of Chicana life Drawing on anthropology folklore history literature and psychology the distinguished contributors combine scholarly analysis personal observations interviews letters visual art and poetry The collection is structured as a series of dynamic dialogues each of the main pieces is followed by an essay responding to or elaborating on its claims The broad range of perspectives included here highlights the diversity of Chicana experience particularly the ways it is made more complex by differences in class age sexual orientation language and region Together the essayists enact the contentious passionate conversations that define Chicana feminisms The contributors contemplate a number of facets of Chicana experience life on the Mexico U S border bilingualism the problems posed by a culture of repressive sexuality the ranchera song and domesticana artistic production They also look at Chicana feminism in the 1960s and 1970s the history of Chicanas in the larger Chicano movement autobiographical writing and the interplay between gender and ethnicity in the movie Lone Star Some of the essays are expansive others such as Norma Cant s discussion of the writing of her fictionalized memoir Can cula are intimate All are committed to the transformative powers of critical inquiry and feminist theory Contributors Norma Alarc n Gabriela F Arredondo Ruth Behar Maylei Blackwell Norma E Cant Sergio de la Mora Ann duCille Michelle Fine Rosa Linda Fregoso Rebecca M G mez Jennifer Gonz lez Ellie Hern ndez A da Hurtado Claire Joysmith Norma Klahn Amalia Mesa Bains Olga N jera Ram rez Anna Nieto Gomez Renato Rosaldo Elba Rosario S nchez Marcia Stephenson Jose Manuel Valenzuela Patricia Zavella Color of Privilege Aida Hurtado, 2005-08-18 This groundbreaking and important book explores how women of different ethnic racial groups conceive of feminism A da Hurtado advances the theory of relational privilege to explain those differing conceptions Previous theories about feminism have predominantly emphasized the lives and experiences of middle class white women A da Hurtado argues that the different responses to feminism by women of color are not so much the result of personality or cultural differences between white women and women of color but of their differing relationship to white men For Hurtado subordination and privilege must be conceived as relational in nature and gender subordination and political solidarity must be examined in the framework of culture and socioeconomic context Hurtado s analysis of gender oppression is written from an interdisciplinary multicultural standpoint and is enriched by selections from poems by Sandra Cisneros Gloria Anzald a Lorna Dee Cervantes and Elba Sanchez and from plays by El Teatro Campesino the United Farm Workers theater group A final chapter proposes that progressive scholarship and especially feminist scholarship must have at its core a reflexive theory of gender oppression that allows writers to simultaneously document oppression while taking into account the writer's own privilege to analyze the observed as well as the observer A da Hurtado is Associate Professor of Psychology University of California Santa Cruz

Women and Citizenship Marilyn Friedman, 2005-10-27 The notion of citizenship is complex it can be at once an identity a set of rights privileges and responsibilities an elevated and exclusionary status a relationship between individual and state and more In recent decades citizenship has attracted interdisciplinary attention particularly with the transnational growth of Western capitalism Yet citizenship's relationship to gender has gone relatively unexplored despite the globally pervasive denial of citizenship to women historically and in many places ongoing today This highly interdisciplinary volume explores the political and cultural dimensions of citizenship and their relevance to women and gender Containing essays by a well known group of scholars including Iris Marion Young Alison Jaggar Martha Nussbaum and Sandra Bartky this book examines the conceptual issues and strategies at play in the feminist quest to give women full citizenship status The contributors take a fresh look at the issues going beyond conventional critiques and examine problems in the political and social arrangements practices and conditions that diminish women's citizenship in various parts of the world

Decentering the Center Uma Narayan, Sandra Harding, Sandra G. Harding, 2000-03-22 The essays in this volume bring to their focuses on philosophical issues the new angles of vision created by the multicultural global and postcolonial feminisms that have been developing around us These multicultural global and postcolonial feminist concerns transform mainstream notions of experience human rights the origins of philosophic issues philosophic uses of metaphors of the family white antiracism human progress scientific progress modernity the unity of scientific method the desirability of universal knowledge claims and other ideas central to philosophy

Living Chicana Theory Carla Trujillo, 1998 Twenty one Chicana scholars and writers create theory through fiction performance and essays They address the secrets inequities and issues they all confront in their daily negotiations with a system that often seeks to subvert their very existence They have to struggle daily not only with the racism that pervades our lives but also with the overwhelming male domination of the macho Chicano and Mexican culture

Intersectional Chicana Feminisms Aída Hurtado, 2020-02-11 Chicana feminisms are living theory deriving value and purpose by affecting social change Advocating for and demonstrating the importance of an intersectional multidisciplinary activist understanding of Chicanas Intersectional Chicana Feminisms provides a much needed overview of the key theories thinkers and activists that have contributed to Chicana feminist thought A da Hurtado a leading Chicana feminist and scholar traces the origins of Chicanas efforts to bring attention to the effects of gender in Chicana and Chicano studies Highlighting the innovative and pathbreaking methodologies developed within the field of Chicana feminisms such as testimonio conocimiento and autohistoria this book offers an accessible introduction to Chicana theory methodology art and activism Hurtado also looks at the newest developments in the field and the future of Chicana feminisms The book includes short biographies of key Chicana feminists additional suggested readings and exercises with each chapter to extend opportunities for engagement in classroom and workshop settings Chicano Writers Francisco A. Lomelí, Carl R. Shirley, 1999 Devoted to literature produced by writers of Mexican descent born in the United States living here permanently or having lived in the territory which until 1848 was part of Mexico
