Modernists Lee M. Jenkins,2024-07-11 Taking 44 Mecklenburgh Square as the focal point and springboard for a critical group study of D H Lawrence H D and Richard Aldington this book offers a fresh perspective on the relationship of modernist biofiction and poetry to the literature of the First World War A group that Perdita Schaffner described as another Bloomsbury set the Mecklenburgh Square writers like the Bloomsbury Group proper lived in squares and loved in triangles in Dorothy Parker s famous formulation Geographically adjacent these sets intersected socially and at points in their aesthetics both practiced innovative forms of what may broadly be defined as life writing But demarcating the Mecklenburgh Square writers from the Bloomsbury Set the former had its origins in the transatlantic avant garde Lawrence H D Aldington and John Cournos were all associated with Imagism the poetic movement which instantiated Anglo American modernism Considered as a pro tem collective these four poets all of whom were also novelists and translators contest the binaries that still obtain between modernist and First World War writing This group study of Lawrence H D Aldington and Cournos tracks the transition of Imagism from a pre war mode to a war poetics which includes but is not confined to the trench lyric and it traces in the transtextual relations between the Mecklenburgh Square novels the traumatic imprint of the war on modernist life writing The Story of the Forty-Second Indiana Infantry, 1861-65.
