Ferguson,1991 Zanzibar stands at the center of the Indian Ocean system s involvement in the history of Eastern Africa This book follows on from the period covered in Abdul Sheriff s acclaimed Slaves Spices and Ivory in Zanzibar The first part of the book shows the transition of Zanzibar from the commercial economy of the nineteenth century to the colonial economy of the twentieth century The authors begin with the abolition of the slave trade in 1873 that started the process of transformation They show the transition from slavery to colonial free labor the creation of the capitalist economy and the resulting social contradictions They take the history up to formal independence in 1963 with a postscript on the 1964 insurrection In the second part the authors analyze social classes The landlords and the merchants were dominant in the commercial empire of the nineteenth century and had difficulties in adjusting to the colonial condition At the same time the development of capitalist farmers and a fully proletarianized working class was hindered The conservative administration could not resolve the contradictions of colonial capitalism and the formation of a united nationalist movement was hampered This period culminated in the insurrection of 1964 but the revolution could not be consummated without mature revolutionary classes

Africa Under Colonial Domination 1880-1935 Unesco. International Scientific Committee for the Drafting of a General History of Africa, 1985 Africa was partitioned and colonized by the Europeans After military conquest came the commercial exploitation of the wealth of Africa The intensity of resistance to colonization varied from one region to another but a new economic and social system linked with colonization was put in place bringing about unprecedented demographic and political change Publisher's description

The Routledge Companion to Postcolonial African Historiography Thula Simpson, Immanuel R. Harisch, 2025-05-09 The Routledge Companion to Postcolonial African Historiography explores history's fortunes in Modern Africa south of the Sahara from the discipline's Golden Age as a handmaiden in struggles against colonialism to difficult decades when its survival has been threatened by capricious political and economic conditions and the uncertain present where the continent's historians struggle to justify their value to frequently sceptical publics In exploring the discipline's practical role in past struggles for African emancipation the volume speaks directly to these challenging but changing circumstances The chapters feature contributions from leading experts on historiographical traditions of different regions of the continent They collectively demonstrate how the process of instrumentalizing the past to advance lay struggles has influenced the choices historians have made regarding sources methodology interpretation audiences and platforms This practical application has strongly shaped the diverse forms that African historiography has assumed as reflected in this book The themes discussed offer a platform for inserting Africa into comparative studies of global historiographical traditions whilst also contributing to contemporary debates on decolonization In offering accessible insights from leading historians this is an essential handbook for students and scholars of African history and historiography as well as all those interested in postcolonial studies

The East African Muslim Welfare Society (1945-1968): The Case of Tanzania (IIUM PRESS) Juma Khamis Juma, Arshad Islam, 2017-03-13 This historical study focuses on identifying the East African Muslim Welfare Society since the time of the European colonial rule which started the beginning of the Christian domination in the region

Religion at Work in Globalised Traditions Anders Kaliff, 2014-03-26 Why do traditions disappear How is the disappearance of tradition also a vehicle for social change and re-inventions of practices and new traditions Using case studies from one Sukuma area along the southern shores of Lake Victoria in Tanzania global processes of how religions work in practice are analysed by focusing on rainmaking witchcraft and Christianity Traditionally Sukuma society was culturally and cosmologically structured around the chief the ancestors and rainmaking Everything was dependent upon the rain Rainmaking as a ritual practice has disappeared and ancestral propitiations are declining while at the same time Christianity is spreading and witchcraft and witch killings are increasing. Although Christianity as a religion may provide answers and hopes for life after death, the religion provides few solutions in the here and now when it comes to poverty and suffering problems and challenges that have to be solved. Witchcraft on the other hand does or is believed to do so, and the increase in witchcraft is analysed in relation to the impacts of more than a century of globalisation from the missionaries and colonizers onwards. With the declining ancestral tradition, witchcraft and Christianity as religious practices supplement each other in the ways they are believed to work in providing answers, solutions or divine interferences in different realms: this world and the Otherworld. Offering an approach going beyond structural functionalism on different premises, the book's focus on religion at work will facilitate new understandings of how to study religion as it is perceived and believed in practice.

A New History of Tanzania N. Kimambo, H. Maddox, 2017-12-29. Tanzania, the land and the people, have been subject of a great deal of historical research but there remains no readily accessible and concise history of the country. The aim of this volume is to fill that void. A New History of Tanzania takes its name from a lecture series introduced at the University of Dar es Salaam by Professor Isaria Kimambo in 2002. Prior to that, a book titled A History of Tanzania had been published in 1969 by East African Publishing House in Nairobi for the Tanzania Historical Association. That book is currently out of print and this is not a reprint. In this book, Prof Kimambo has been joined by two other colleagues: Prof Gregory H. Maddox of Texas Southern University, Houston, USA, and Salvatory S. Nyanto, a Tanzanian Lecturer at the University of Dar es Salaam and a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Iowa, USA. Together they have produced an outline history of Tanzania that covers all important aspects from antiquity to the present that is different from and richer than its predecessor. Sources from the fields of archaeology, anthropology, biology, genetics and oral tradition have been used to produce this excellent book.
