Tanzania And Zanzibar 2nd:

Outcasts! Steve Menary, 2012-12-05 Outcasts The Lands That FIFA Forgot examines the tarnished reputation of world football's governing body and the manner in which they exclude certain nations from their organisation. For two years Steve Menary traced the incredible journeys of the teams that FIFA refuse to recognise usually for reasons of political expediency. Initially intrigued by the motivation of the non-hoper nations and their players, Steve was drawn into a scene with a surprisingly positive approach to both the beautiful game and nationalism. Cue the FIFA Federation of International Football Independents Wild Cup staged in Germany prior to the FIFA World Cup in 2006 featuring teams from officially non-existent countries such as Zanzibar, Greenland, Tibet and Northern Cyprus. Meet the devil may care dentist footballer from Greenland, kit manufacturers desperate to sponsor the Tibetan national football team and Gibraltar players who could end centuries of Anglo-Spanish dispute over the rock.

Cities to be Tamed? Spatial Investigations across the Urban South Beatrice De Carli, Francesco Chiodelli, Maddalena Falletti, 2014-07-08 Across the global South the rapid urbanisation and uneven development that have occurred over the past few decades have brought to the surface a tight connection between social conflicts and urban space Indeed the physical conformation of urban space is one of the primary factors that trigger social tensions with repercussions at the metropolitan regional and national scales Such tensions are related to the conditions of social and spatial inequality which characterise many urban areas across the South they can also be connected to contingent political and institutional orders which find in the materiality of space both the means and the cause of conflicts among different groups amidst diverging territorial demands and the overlapping of competing struggles for power At the same time new possibilities arise in the concreteness of space including innovative forms of local activism adapting strategies of self organisation and unconventional relations between the formal and the informal city On acknowledging the multifaceted nature of the urban space there arises a question which constitutes the core problem addressed by the book are cities to be tamed This volume gathers a series of cross disciplinary contributions on these topics spanning from architecture and urban design to planning social theory and geography These contributions revolve around two core themes The first concerns the agency of design in contexts of informality and centres on the missing unexpected pursued exchange between projects and realities The second concerns the complex relationship between spatial planning politics and conflicts in contexts characterised by marked ethnic political and social tensions Contributors Alessandro Balducci Scott A Bollens Jeffrey Chan Kok Hui Francesco Chiodelli Laure Criqui Viviana d'Auria Beatrice De Carli Bruno De Meulder Annalies De Nijs Maddalena Falletti Nabeel Hamdi Joud M I Khasawneh Hamed Khosravi Olivier Legrand Colin Marx Carmen Mendoza Arroyo Lina Scavuzzo Erez Tzfadia Ignacio Castillo Ulloa Faith Wong and Oren Yiftachel

Encyclopedia of Stateless Nations James B. Minahan, 2016-08-01 This book addresses the numerous national movements of ethnic groups around the world seeking independence more self rule or autonomy movements that have proliferated exponentially in the 21st century In the last 15 years globalization religious radicalization economic changes endangered cultures and languages cultural suppression racial tensions and many other factors have stimulated the emergence of autonomy and independence movements in every corner of the world even in areas formerly considered immune to self government demands such as South America Researching the numerous ethnic groups seeking autonomy or independence worldwide previously required referencing many specialized publications This book makes this difficult to find information available in a single volume presented in a simple format accessible to everyone from high school readers to scholars in advanced studies programs The book provides an extensive update to Greenwood s Encyclopedia of the Stateless Nations Ethnic and National Groups around the World that was published more than a decade earlier Each ethnic group receives an alphabetically organized entry containing information such as alternate names population figures flag or flags geography history culture and languages All the information readers need to understand the motivating factors behind each movement and the current situation of each ethnic group is presented in a compact summary Fact boxes at the beginning of each entry enable students to quickly access key information and consistent entry structure makes for easy cross cultural comparisons

The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights Volume 2 Nat Rubner, 2023 Landmark study of the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights Documents on one side the international community s inability to foist a human rights system upon Africa and on the other the process within the OAU now African Union that eventually brought it into being and determined its content The African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights ACHPR which was proposed in 1979 adopted in 1981 and came into effect in 1986 was the first non Western declaration of human rights and the first official statement of an African human rights perspective With Africa largely absent in 1948 when the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR was adopted it stands in stark historical reproach to the Western conception of universal human rights as a pivotal document in the decolonisation of the continent This book for the first time presents a comprehensive account of the development of the ACHPR which is key to a proper understanding of its fundamental nature Through documenting its process of construction it becomes possible to understand how Africans themselves understood the process and the issues involved and how the ACHPR became a political text asserted by African leaders and not a continuum of a so called universal human rights tradition The result is a radical repositioning of the underlying context of the ACHPR one of the most important documents in modern African history of how it came to be and how it should therefore be understood Volume 2 describes the process through which the ACHPR came into being Analysing the role of Western governments the UN and NGOs it shows that contrary to the prevailing view of African human rights commentators their influence was limited and at times counter productive That in fact the formulation of the ACHPR was a profoundly political process that was primarily a product of an African desire to instigate its own human rights perspective as a counter to the human rights universalism advanced by the Western post war human rights tradition
