Target Danube A River Not Quite Too Far:

Ice Steel and Fire Linda Parker, 2013-07-19 The generation that reached maturity in the inter war years had grown up in the shadow of the heroic age of Polar exploration and the sacrifices of a generation in the Great War Their own adventures were to prove as astonishing and heroic as those of a previous generation The members of the British Arctic air route expedition to Greenland including Martin Lindsay Quintin Riley and Freddie Spencer Chapman were to pioneer the weather research methods necessary for Trans Atlantic Flight The university expeditions to Spitsbergen led by George Binney in the 1920s and Sandy Glen in the 1930s traversed and surveyed unexplored ground and contributed to developments in polar flight and radar Glen s expeditions added to the knowledge of Arctic conditions by over wintering Other pre war exploits of these adventurers included a voyage around the world the wrong way and participation in the British Graham Land Antarctic expedition Peter Fleming brother to the creator of James Bond Ian Fleming spent the 1930s exploring Brazil China and Tartary Fleming s exploits are recounted in detail in this book The character skills and endurance obtained in these years set these adventurers and explorers apart as men who were to play a distinguished and heroic role in the Second World War Their expertise in Arctic conditions small boat handling and exploring in all climatic conditions resulted in their participation in all aspects of warfare and arenas of battle particularly as exponents of special operations and as key members of Britain s first special forces Their war service took them from the fjords of Norway and Spitsbergen to the jungles of Burma and Malaya and the beaches of Normandy and Italy They were involved in blockade running covert operations in Yugoslavia Corsica and France and took part in major initiatives such as Ian Fleming s Intelligence gathering force No 30 Assault unit and the raid on St Nazaire Most of these men had known each other before war came in 1939 In some cases they ended up serving alongside one another in wartime The intertwined stories of these characters in peace and war are examples of how the spirit of adventure shown by men in the inter war years contributed to Britain s outstanding role in the Second World War Linda Parker has written an important study that is equally relevant to both the history of British exploration and the genesis and early days of Britain s special forces 1939-45 a quite unique and hitherto unexamined relationship Linda Parker combines teaching History on a part time basis with her writing and is currently completing a PhD at Birmingham University Her main areas of interest are 20th Century Military History Church History and the History of Polar exploration She is a member of the Western Front Association She was born and educated in Wales but now lives in Oxfordshire with her husband and their dog She enjoys walking and travelling ideally together and her ambition is to visit Antarctica Her first book published by Helion was The Whole Armour of God Anglican Army Chaplains in the Great War 2009 Oxford

Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean s gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery Target Danube Alexander Glen, Leighton Bowen, 2002

Section D for Destruction Malcolm Atkin, 2017-11-30 When Neville Chamberlain made his famous Peace in Our Time statement in 1938 after the Munich Agreement with Hitler he may or may not have been aware that the new Section D of the Secret Intelligence Service was already making plans to mount an all out political and sabotage war against Nazi Germany This was a new form of warfare encompassing bribery black propaganda and sabotage by agents described as having no morals or scruples To the horror of many it disregarded the conventions of neutrality and was prepared to hit the Nazi state wherever it could do most damage Malcolm Atkin reveals how Section D's struggle to build a European wide anti Nazi resistance movement was met with widespread suspicion from government to the extent of a systematic destruction of its reputation It was however a key pioneer of irregular warfare that led to the formation of the famous Special Operations Executive SOE His study is the first in depth account of it to be published since the release of previously secret documents to the National Archives Sea Breezes , 2003 Central Eurasia in the Middle Ages István Zimonyi, 2016-06-01

Professor Peter B Golden Professor Emeritus of History Turkish and Middle Eastern Studies at Rutgers University is an outstanding historian and orientalist in the field of medieval Eurasian studies His achievement regarding the history of the Turkic speaking peoples and the medieval history of Eastern Europe is fundamental Osman Karatay and István Zimonyi have edited the Festschrift in which 32 leading experts from all over the world have paid tribute to Peter B Golden's scientific achievement Among the authors are Thomas Allsen Farda Asadov Christopher I Beckwith Edmund Bosworth va Csát and Lars Johanson Devin DeWeese Anatoly M Khazanov Roman Kovalev Ruth Meserve Uli Shamiloglu Victor Spinei Isenbike Togan and István Veszeg Medieval Europe From Another Angle Florin Curta, 2025-05-29 While the Middle Ages represent a topic of perennial interest most studies have addressed the western parts of the European continent often from the angle of the written sources This volume examines an area less known in the literary and archaeological evidence The studies included therein provide significant insights into the history and archaeology of East Central and Eastern Europe during Late Antiquity and the early Middle Ages This is the first volume of essays explicitly to reassess the significance of the region as well as the role of the archaeological evidence in studying ethnicity in the Middle Ages particularly in the case of the Slavs and the Avars Because of its geographic chronological thematic and methodological scope this book offers a new perspective from a different angle on the analysis of the archaeological and written sources Some chapters focus on settlement sites others discuss artifacts from burial assemblages As well as advancing new models for the analysis of the written sources in relation to ethnicity Medieval Europe from Another Angle offers new approaches to the understanding of how ethnicity may have been constructed in the Middle Ages in material culture terms It will appeal to scholars and students alike studying Late Antiquity and the early Middle Ages with an interest in material culture and its use in building ethnic boundaries Thirty

Missions to Marie Arthur G. Capaldi, 2016-11-01 This is a true story that follows Captain Edouard J Jacques a WWII Bombardier and Distinguished Flying Cross recipient and his crew from childhood through thirty bombing missions over Germany with the 755th Squadron 458 Bomb Group of the 8th Air Force from 1944 through 1945 It s a remembrance of ordinary men doing extraordinary feats in their quest to defeat the seemingly invincible Third Reich Included in their stories are those they left behind their wives girlfriends and family Their stories mirror that of thousands of young Americans who served on the B 24 heavy bombers in WWII and have not had their history documented These are the stories of young men from Rhode Island Utah South Carolina Texas Kentucky New Jersey New York Massachusetts Connecticut Oregon Pennsylvania and Neumarkt Germany Their backgrounds are as diverse as the places from which they came Through interviews their stories are told and it is apparent that while not similar in background or culture they were similar in their strength of character and love of country Those who are no longer with us had their stories told by those interviewed Those aviators who survived the war were the fortunate ones who returned home to their families wives girlfriends and to a grateful nation The history of the battle for Europe 1944 1945 is told in detail Southeastern Europe in the Middle Ages, 500-1250 Florin Curta, 2006-08-31 Southeastern Europe in the Middle Ages stood at a crossroads of trade and crusading routes and fell within the spheres of influence of both the Byzantine Orthodox Church and Latin Christendom This authoritative survey draws on historical and archaeological sources in the narration of 750 years of the history of the region including Romania southern Ukraine southern Hungary Croatia Slovenia Serbia Montenegro Bulgaria Macedonia Albania and Greece Exploring the social political and economic changes marking the transition from late Antiquity to the early Middle Ages this book addresses important themes such as the rise of medieval states the conversion to Christianity the monastic movement inspired by developments in Western Europe and in Byzantium and the role of material culture architecture the arts and objects of daily life in the representation of power Collier's ,1915
