Shakespeare and His Contemporaries J. Hart, 2011-03-28 This book is concerned with language genre drama and literary and historical narrative and examines the comedy of Shakespeare in the context of comedies from Italy Spain and France in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Molière's Theatrical Bounty Albert Bermel, 1990 Exploring each of Molière's 33 plays including the divertissements for its theatrical possibilities Bermel deals with dramatic structures settings roles and their interactions original productions and outstanding recent stage performances in France Britain and the United States His emphasis is theatrical rather than literary philosophical or biographical although he necessarily brings these considerations to bear when discussing certain plays Bermel introduces a new methodology one featuring the type of scrutiny directors actors and designers apply to any play before and during rehearsal Thus he studies the dramatic implications of each scene or part of a scene by noting which characters are present which ones are absent and why He analyzes each role explores interactions among characters traces the significance of structure considers how much information is provided and who provides it and examines such notable background factors as setting season and scenic arrangement Using this methodology Bermel provides new interpretations of Molière's most celebrated plays and demonstrates that many of the less famous plays also deserve attention Previous Molière critics have been conservative especially in that they favor traditional stagings Bermel however encourages new explorations of the plays His main intention is to keep Molière alive and vital for present and future readers and audiences Nowhere is this more apparent than in his attention to and sympathy for female characters and their points of view The Reader's Adviser Winifred F.

Courtney, 1977 The Gentleman's Magazine, and Historical Chronicle, for the Year ..., 1858 The Gentleman's Magazine, 1880 The Gentleman's magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press the Trader's monthly intelligencer section consists of news foreign and domestic vital statistics a register of the month's new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs The Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Chronicle, 1831
