Taste Of Ethnographic Things The Senses In Anthropology:

The Taste of Ethnographic Things Paul Stoller, 1989 An ingeniously constructed springboard for a criticism of anthropology Exploring the Senses Axel Michaels, Christoph Wulf, 2017-09-19 This fascinating volume offers a transdisciplinary and transcultural approach to understanding the senses by exploring themes in anthropologies of sound sight smell taste touch and movement as expressed through aesthetic perceptual religious and spiritual experiences In drawing upon comparative perspectives from Indian and Western theories the essays demonstrate the integral relation of senses with each other as well as with allied notions of the body emotion and cultural memory Stressing the continued relevance of senses as they manifest in a globalized world under the influence of new media this work will interest scholars of anthropology cultural studies sociology ritual studies psychology religion philosophy and history The Senses in Late Medieval England C. M. Woolgar, Christopher Michael Woolgar, 2006-01-01 Oxbow says This fascinating study of how people understood and used their senses in the late medieval period draws on evidence from a range of literary texts documents and records as well as material culture and architectural sources The Cultural Politics of Food, Taste, and Identity Steffan Igor Ayora-Diaz, 2021-04-08 The Cultural Politics of Food Taste and Identity examines the social cultural and political processes that shape the experience of taste The book positions flavor as involving all the senses and describes the multiple ways in which taste becomes tied to local translocal glocal and cosmopolitan politics of identity Global case studies are included from Japan China India Belize Chile Guatemala the United States France Italy Poland and Spain Chapters examine local responses to industrialized food and the heritage industry and look at how professional culinary practice has become foundational for local identities The book also discusses the unfolding construction of local taste in the context of sociocultural developments and addresses how cultural political divides are created between meat consumption and vegetarianism innovation and tradition heritage and social class popular food and authenticity and street and restaurant food In addition contributors discuss how different food products such as kimchi quinoa and Soylent have entered the international market of industrial and heritage foods connecting different places and shaping taste and political identities

The Routledge International Handbook of Sensory Ethnography Phillip Vannini, 2023-11-28 The Routledge International Handbook of Sensory Ethnography reviews and expands the field and scope of sensory ethnography by fostering new links among sensory affective more than human non representational and multimodal sensory research traditions and composition styles From writing and film to performance and sonic documentation the handbook reimagines the boundaries of sensory ethnography and posits new possibilities for scholarship conducted through the senses and for the senses Sensory ethnography is a transdisciplinary research methodology focused on the significance of all the senses in perceiving creating and conveying meaning Drawing from a wide variety of strategies that involve the senses as a means of inquiry objects of study and forms of expression sensory ethnography has played a fundamental role in the contemporary evolution of ethnography writ large as a reflexive embodied situated and multimodal form of scholarship The handbook dwells on subjects like the genealogy of sensory ethnography the implications of race in ethnographic inquiry opening up ethnographic practice to simulate the future using participatory sensory ethnography for disability studies the untapped potential of digital touch and much more This is the most definitive reference text available on the market and is intended for advanced undergraduates graduate students and researchers in anthropology sociology and the social sciences and will serve as a state of the art resource for sensory ethnographers worldwide

Museum Materialities Sandra Dudley, 2013-10-18 This is an innovative interdisciplinary book about objects and people within museums and galleries It addresses fundamental issues of human sensory emotional and aesthetic experience of objects The chapters explore ways and contexts in which things and people mutually interact and raise questions about how objects carry meaning and feeling the distinctions between objects and persons particular qualities of the museum as context for person object engagements and the active and embodied role of the museum visitor Museum Materialities is divided into three sections Objects Engagements and Interpretations and includes a foreword by Susan Pearce and an afterword by Howard Morphy It examines materiality and other perceptual and ontological qualities of objects themselves embodied sensory and cognitive engagements both personal and across a wider audience spread with particular objects or object types in a museum or gallery setting notions of aesthetics affect and wellbeing in museum contexts and creative and innovative artistic and museum practices that seek to illuminate or critique museum objects and interpretations Phenomenological and other approaches to embodied experience in an emphatically material world are current in a number of academic areas most particularly strands of material culture studies within anthropology and cognate disciplines Thus far however there has been no concerted application of this kind of approach to museum collections and interactions with them by museum visitors curators artists and researchers Bringing together essays by scholars and practitioners from a wide disciplinary and international base Museum Materialities seeks to make just such a contribution In so doing it makes a valuable and original addition to the literature of both material culture studies and museum studies

Empire of the Senses David Howes, 2021-08-05 With groundbreaking contributions by Marshall McLuhan Oliver Sacks Italo Calvino and Alain Corbin among others Empire of the Senses overturns linguistic and textual models of interpretation and places sensory experience at the forefront of cultural analysis The senses are gateways of knowledge instruments of power sources of pleasure and pain and they are subject to dramatically different constructions in different societies and periods Empire of the Senses charts the new terrains opened up by the sensual revolution in scholarship as it takes the reader into the sensory worlds of the medieval witch and the postmodern mall a Japanese tea ceremony and a Boston shelter for the homeless This compelling revisioning of history and cultural studies sparkles with wit and insight and is destined to become a landmark in the field

Modern Conflict and the Senses Nicholas J. Saunders, Paul Cornish, 2017-03-16 Modern Conflict and the Senses investigates the sensual worlds created by modern war focusing on the sensorial responses embodied in and provoked by the materiality of conflict and its aftermath The volume positions the industrialized nature of twentieth century war as a unique cultural phenomenon in possession of a material and psychological intensity that embodies the extremes of human behaviour from total economic mobilization to the unbearable sadness of individual loss Adopting a coherent and integrated hybrid approach to the complexities of modern conflict the book considers issues of memory identity and emotion through wartime experiences of tangible sensations and bodily requirements This comprehensive and interdisciplinary collection draws upon archaeology anthropology military and cultural history art history cultural geography and museum and heritage studies in order to revitalize our understandings of the role of the senses in conflict

The Metamorphosis of Greek Cuisine Nafsika Papacharalampous, 2023-11-10 This book is an ethnography of the metamorphosis of rural foods and traditional dishes and of the making of cuisine and identity in contemporary Athens In the wake of the financial crisis in Athens in the mid 2010s forgotten rural foods of the past are transformed into luxurious artisanal foods while traditional dishes appear reinvented in fine dining restaurants after decades of darkness How and why is this all happening in a city of poverty hardship and economic crisis Through sensory descriptions and thick ethnographic material it follows the Athenian affluent middle class in upscale delis and goes inside fine dining restaurant kitchens discussing the complex combination of cuisine tradition memory and identity revealing the cultural logic and social aspects of cuisine It demonstrates how cuisine emerges from very different often contradictory social spaces not only as an intellectual and aesthetic endeavour of chefs or as a revival of foods and foodways that link the country and the city but also as interlinked with embodied memories and embedded in social relations and commensality This book will be of great interest to scholars and students in Anthropology and Food Studies

The Senses of Scripture Yael Avrahami, 2012-06-15 The Senses of Scripture reveals the essence of biblical epistemology the ways in which ancient Israelites thought about and used their sensorium The theoretical introduction demonstrates that scholars need to liberate themselves from the Western bias that holds a pentasensory paradigm and prioritises the sense of sight The discussion of the biblical material demonstrates that biblical scholars should follow a similar path Through examination of associative and contextual patterns the author reaches a septasensory model including sight hearing speech kinaesthesia touch taste and smell It is further demonstrated that the senses according to the HB are a divinely created physical experience which symbolised human ability to act in a sovereign manner in the world Despite the lack of a biblical Hebrew term sense it seems that at times the merism sight and hearing serves that matter Finally the book discusses the longstanding dispute regarding the primacy of sight vs hearing and claims that although there is no strict sensory hierarchy evident in the text sight holds a central space in biblical epistemology
