the relationship between culture and food Library Journal What do we learn from eating About ourselves Others In this unique memoir of a life shaped by the pleasures of the table Doris Friedensohn uses eating as an occasion for inquiry Munching on quesadillas and kimchi in her suburban New Jersey neighborhood she reflects on her exploration of food over fifty years and across four continents Relishing couscous in Tunisia and khachapuri in the Republic of Georgia she explores the ways strangers come together and maintain their differences through food As a young woman Friedensohn was determined not to be a provincial American Chinese French Mexican and Mediterranean cuisines beckoned to her like mysterious suitors and each rendezvous with an unfamiliar food was a celebration of cosmopolitan living Friedensohn's memories range from Thanksgiving at a Middle Eastern restaurant to the taste of fried grasshoppers in Oaxaca Her wry dramas of the dining room restaurant market and kitchen ripple with tensions political religious psychological and spiritual Eating as I Go is one woman's distinctive mélange of memoir traveler's tale and cultural commentary Entertaining from Ancient Rome to the Super Bowl Melitta Weiss Adamson, Francine Segan, 2008-10-30 From the earliest times humans have enjoyed dining and entertainment with family and friends from sharing a simple meal to an extravagant feast for a special celebration In this two volume set entries tell the history of wedding and religious customs holidays such as Thanksgiving and Christmas and modern day get togethers such as block parties and Superbowl parties Providing a worldwide perspective on celebration entries on topics such as Dim Sum La Quinceanera Parties Deepavali and Juneteenth cover many cultures In addition entries on Ancient Rome Medieval entertaining and others give an inside view as to what entertaining was like during those times should readers want to recreate these themes for school projects or club banquets Whether a student of history or world language class or an adult planning a theme party there is something in Entertaining from Ancient Rome to the Super Bowl for everyone Eating Asian America Robert Ji-Song Ku, Martin F Manalansan, Anita Mannur, 2013-09-23 Examines the ways our conceptions of Asian American food have been shaped Chop suey Sushi Curry Adobo Kimchi The deep associations Asians in the United States have with food have become ingrained in the American popular imagination So much so that contentious notions of ethnic authenticity and authority are marked by and argued around images and ideas of food Eating Asian America A Food Studies Reader collects burgeoning new scholarship in Asian American Studies that centers the study of foodways and culinary practices in our understanding of the racialized underpinnings of Asian Americanness It does so by bringing together twenty scholars from across the disciplinary spectrum to inaugurate a new turn in food studies the refusal to yield to a superficial multiculturalism that naively celebrates difference and reconciliation through the pleasures of food and eating By focusing on multi-sited struggles across various spaces and times the contributors to this anthology bring into focus the potent forces of class racial ethnic sexual and gender inequalities that pervade and persist in the production of Asian American culinary and alimentary practices ideas and images This is the first collection to consider the fraught itineraries of Asian American immigrant histories and how they are inscribed in the production and dissemination of ideas about Asian American foodways The End of Faith Sam Harris,2005-09-17 The End of Faith articulates the dangers and absurdities of organized religion so fiercely and so fearlessly that I felt relieved as I read it vindicated Harris writes what a sizable number of us think but few are willing to say Natalie Angier New York Times In The End of Faith Sam Harris delivers a startling analysis of the clash between reason and religion in the modern world He offers a vivid historical tour of our willingness to suspend reason in favor of religious beliefs even when these beliefs inspire the worst human atrocities While warning against the encroachment of organized religion into world politics Harris draws on insights from neuroscience philosophy and Eastern mysticism to deliver a call for a truly modern foundation for ethics and spirituality that is both secular and humanistic Winner of the 2005 PEN Martha Albrand Award for Nonfiction Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson,2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson s Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Summary of Sam Harris's The End of Faith Everest Media,2022-05-02T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 A belief is a lever that once pulled moves almost everything else in a person s life Your beliefs define your vision of the world your behavior and your emotional responses to other people 2 The problem is that many of our most cherished beliefs about the world are leading us to kill one another We cannot tolerate the possibility that certain ideas might lead to eternal happiness because that would be intolerant of other faiths 3 We have been slow to recognize the positive effects of religious faith Many of us still believe that faith is an essential component of human life and that there are good things that people get from religious faith that cannot be had elsewhere 4 Many religious moderates have taken the high road of pluralism asserting the equal validity of all faiths but they forget that each faith s beliefs are inherently irredeemably sectarian
