Coalescent Argumentation Michael A. Gilbert,2013-11-05 Coalescent Argumentation is based on the concept that arguments can function from agreement rather than disagreement To prove this idea Gilbert first discusses how several components emotional visceral physical and kisceral intuitive are utilized in an argumentative setting by people everyday These components also characterized as modes are vital to argumentative communication because they affect both the argument and the resulting outcome In addition to the components modes this book also stresses the goals in argumentation as a means for understanding one s own and one s opposer s positions Gilbert argues that by viewing positions as complex human events involving a variety of communicative modes we are better able to find commonalities across positions and therefore move from conflict to resolution By focusing on agreement and shared goals in all modes arguers can coalesce diverse positions and more easily distinguish between minor or unrelated differences and core disagreements This permits much greater latitude for locating shared beliefs values and attitudes that will lead to conflict resolution
