Reading the Wampum Penelope Myrtle Kelsey, 2014-12-03 Since the fourteenth century Eastern Woodlands tribes have used delicate purple and white shells called wampum to form intricately woven belts These wampum belts depict significant moments in the lives of the people who make up the tribes portraying everything from weddings to treaties Wampum belts can be used as a form of currency but they are primarily used as a means to record significant oral narratives for future generations In Reading the Wampum Kelsey provides the first academic consideration of the ways in which these sacred belts are reinterpreted into current Haudenosaunee tradition While Kelsey explores the aesthetic appeal of the belts she also provides insightful analysis of how readings of wampum belts can change our understanding of specific treaty rights and land exchanges Kelsey shows how contemporary Iroquois intellectuals and artists adapt and reconsider these traditional belts in new and innovative ways

Reading the Wampum conveys the vitality and continuance of wampum traditions in Iroquois art literature and community suggesting that wampum narratives pervade and reappear in new guises with each new generation Reading for Preaching Cornelius Plantinga, 2013-11-30 In Reading for Preaching Cornelius Plantinga makes a striking claim preachers who read widely will most likely become better preachers Plantinga himself a master preacher shows how a wide reading program can benefit preachers First he says good reading generates delight and the preacher who enters the world of delight goes with God Good reading can also help tune the preacher's ear for language his or her primary tool General reading can enlarge the preacher's sympathies for people and situations that she or he had previously known nothing about And above all the preacher who reads widely has the chance to become wise This beautifully written book will benefit not just preachers but anyone interested in the wisdom to be derived from reading Works that Plantinga interacts with in the book include The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini Enrique's Journey by Sonia Nazario Silence by Shusaku Endo How Much Land Does a Man Need by Leo Tolstoy Narcissus Leaves the Pool by Joseph Epstein Les Misérables by Victor Hugo and many more
