MR. MADAM: THE CONFESSIONS of a MALE MADAM

By Kenneth Marlowe

Kenneth Marlowe has done about everything possible in the homosexual world, from being an ex-gay pick up in some of the large cities of America to actually running his own Call Boyer bar boys in Hollywood. In this brilliant autobiography, there is a constant, electrifying narrative that details the experiences that led him from aimless wandering in search of love—any kind of love—to fulfillment as a noted and talented entertainer and author. Alive with wit and insight, this book is a cross between a sparkling musical drama and the dark horrors of the homosexual world.

PAGES OF EXCITING PICTURES, showing Marlowe in full female clothing and in street clothing. INTRODUCTION by T. C. Jones, the world's foremost female impersonator.
