Teilhard De Chardin A Guide To His Thought:

Teilhard de Chardin : a Guide to His Thought Emile Rideau,1967 Teilhard de Chardin: a Guide to His Thought Émile Rideau,1967 Teilhard de Chardin David Grumett,2005 Pierre Teilhard de Chardin 1881 1955 has been regarded for too long as an esoteric thinker who evacuates theology by subjecting it to scientific theory There is an urgent need to reclaim him as a French catholic theologian with intellectual roots in the early twentieth century Teilhard s imaginative and inspiring work is grounded in the constructive use of biblical and patristic motifs and in his own life experiences of war exile and scientific endeavour From these he develops a distinctive philosophical theology which combines elements frequently assigned to the separate domains of philosophy of religion systematic theology and mysticism Teilhard provides a detailed theology of human embodiment and natural substances whilst his theories of human action passion vision and virtue offer suggestive resources to pastoral theology His evolutionary cosmology and social democratic politics are discussed in their historical context and the significance of his work for the ongoing dialogue between science and religion is assessed

Teilhard de Chardin and Eastern Religions Ursula King,2011 Teilhard de Chardin and Eastern Religions is in part an update of the 1980 classic Toward a New Mysticism Author Ursula King has extensively revised this work adding new material as she traces Teilhard s encounter with Eastern thought It includes an extensive bibliography and annotated study guide Book jacket Teilhard De Chardin and Eastern Religions U. M. King,1977 The Phenomenon of Teilhard David H. Lane,1996 New Age writer of the popular Aquarian Conspiracy Marilyn Ferguson observed that many of the leading lights of the New Age movement claim Teilhard as one of the most influential persons in their lives Other influences acknowledged include C G Jung Aldous Huxley Swami Muktananda Thomas Merton Werner Erhard and Maharishi Yogi Indeed of the 185 New Age leaders surveyed Teilhard was the most frequently mentioned of any person who had most influenced their thinking If this is the case then if we are to understand the New Age movement properly it behooves us to take a careful and critical look at Teilhard de Chardin David Lane has done precisely this in a clear well documented and penetrating way In this crucial book David Lane lays bare the philosophical theological and scientific failures of Teilhard s New Age enterprise In a highly documented and insightful scrutiny of Teilhard s cosmic evolution Lane unveils the apostate Christian roots of one of the most important forerunners of the New Age movement This is one of the most significant and serious treatments of the modern roots of the New Age in print La Pensée Du Père Teilhard de Chardin. Teilhard de Chardin. A Guide to His Thought. Translated by René Hague Émile RIDEAU,René Hague,Pierre Teilhard de Chardin,1967 A History of Philosophy: Maine de Biran to Sartre Frederick Charles Copleston,1946 Prominent French philosophical thinkers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries A Theology for Artisans of a New Humanity, Volume 1 Juan L. Segundo,2011-05-13 A THEOLOGY FOR ARTISANS OF A NEW HUMANITY On the Origin of Consciousness Scott D. G. Ventureyra,2018-11-29 Have you ever thought about how self consciousness self awareness originated in the universe

Understanding consciousness is one of the toughest nuts to crack. In recent years scientists and philosophers have attempted to provide an answer to this mystery. The reason for this is simply because it cannot be confined to solely a materialistic interpretation of the world. Some scientific materialists have suggested that consciousness is merely an illusion in order to insulate their worldviews. Yet consciousness is the most fundamental thing we know even more so than the external world since we require it to perceive or think about anything. Without it reasoning would be impossible. Dr. Scott Ventureyra in this ground breaking book explores the idea of the Christian God and Creation in order to tackle this most difficult question. He demonstrates that theology has something significant to offer in reflection of how consciousness originated in the universe. He also makes a modest claim that the Christian conception of God and Creation provide a plausible account for the origin of self consciousness. He integrates philosophy, theology and science in an innovative way to embark on this exploration.

Eschatology and the Technological Future Michael S. Burdett, 2014-12-05

The rapid advancement of technology has led to an explosion of speculative theories about what the future of humankind may look like. These technological futurisms have arisen from significant advances in the fields of nanotechnology, biotechnology and information technology and are drawing growing scrutiny from the philosophical and theological communities. This text seeks to contextualize the growing literature on the cultural, philosophical and religious implications of technological growth by considering technological futurisms such as transhumanism in the context of the long historical tradition of technological dreaming. Michael Burdett traces the latent religious sources of our contemporary technological imagination by looking at visionary approaches to technology and the future in seminal technological utopias and science fiction and draws on past theological responses to the technological future with Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Jacques Ellul. Burdett's argument arrives at a contemporary Christian response to transhumanism based around the themes of possibility and promise by turning to the works of Richard Kearney, Eberhard Jüngel and Jürgen Moltmann. Throughout the author highlights points of correspondence and divergence between technological futurisms and the Judeo-Christian understanding of the future.

19th and 20th Century French Philosophy Frederick Charles Copleston, 2003-01-01

Copleston, an Oxford Jesuit and specialist in the history of philosophy, created his history as an introduction for Catholic ecclesiastical seminaries. The 11 volume series gives an accessible account of each philosopher's work and explains their relationship to the work of other philosophers.

Darwinism and Natural Theology Andrew Robinson, 2012-03-15 Can Christianity be reconciled with Darwin's theory of evolution by natural selection What relevance do the biological sciences have to religious thought Does Christian theology have anything to offer when it comes to formulating scientific hypotheses These questions are among those explored in this collection of essays arising from a meeting of the UK Science and Religion Forum held in Cambridge to mark the bicentenary of Darwin's birth and the 150th anniversary of the publication of The Origin of Species The volume brings together contributions from a distinguished group of scholars at the forefront of the field of science and religion including Denis Alexander R J Berry John Hedley Brooke Sarah Coakley Celia Deane Drummond David Fergusson David Knight Christopher Southgate Neil Spurway and Kenneth Wilson The essays are organized around the theme of natural theology the attempt to draw theological conclusions from reflection on the natural world The essays cover historical philosophical and theological perspectives and explore some contemporary approaches to natural theology in the context of Darwinism

Reading the Ground Brian John, 1996 In this comprehensive study of Thomas Kinsella's poetry Brian John explores the poet's development within both the Irish and the English contexts and defines the nature of his poetic achievement He also offers a new reading of Kinsella's evolving relationship to one of his major literary forebears W B Yeats What becomes clear is the formidable accomplishment of a poet now writing at the height of his powers whose substantial body of work warrants comparison with the grand masters of twentieth century literature in English with Yeats Joyce and Beckett

Actology Malcolm Torry, 2020-07-08 Two streams run through the Western philosophical stream one characterized by Being beings the unchanging the static and the unitary and the other by Action actions the changing the dynamic and the diverse The former might be represented by Parmenides Plato and much of what followed the latter by Heraclitus and by rather less of what followed The book explores the Action stream as it wound its way through history through Heraclitus Plato Aristotle Hegel Maurice Blondel Henri Bergson Pierre Teilhard de Chardin process philosophy and theology Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy Ludwig Wittgenstein and John Boys Smith The journey enables us to create the beginnings of an actology a way of seeing ourselves the universe and God in terms of actions in patterns rather than as beings that change Such an actology offers a complete alternative narrative far more in tune with the diverse and rapidly changing world in which we live than the ontology that has shaped philosophy theology and much else for the past two
