world the telecommunications industry in the Netherlands has been subject to drastic change over the last few years By necessity the same applies to its regulation the present Dutch Telecommunications Act dates from 1988 when competitive provision of infrastructure and services was almost non-existent Since then technological developments and a general tendency towards liberalisation have had a profound impact on the market structure on 15 July 1996 a major amendment to the Dutch Telecommunications Act introduced virtually unlimited competition in the provision of fixed telecommunication infrastructure In addition almost all telecommunication services with the exception of public voice telephony were liberalised This book provides an introduction to Dutch telecommunications regulation and contains English translations of the Telecommunications Act the Fixed Telecommunications Infrastructure Licenses Act and a number of important regulations implementing the acts This publication results from a cooperative effort between the law firm Loeff Claeyss Verbeke and the Telecommunications and Post Department of the Ministry of Transport Public Works and Water Management *The
