Television Tabloids And Tears Fassbinder And Popular Culture:

Television, Tabloids, and Tears Jane Shattuc, 1995 I am Biberkopf Rainer Werner Fassbinder declared aligning himself with the protagonist of his widely seen television adaptation of Berlin Alexanderplatz The statement provoked an unprecedented national debate about what constituted an acceptable German artist and who has the power to determine art More than any recent German director Fassbinder embodied this debate and Jane Shattuc shows us how much this can tell us not just about the man and his work but also about the state of culture in Germany It is fascinating in itself that Fassbinder a highly controversial public figure

Cultural Specificity in Transnational Television Drama Elke Weissmann, 2025-08-08 Cultural Specificity in Transnational Television Drama examines two European television industries those of Germany and Wales This book analyses how near global shifts towards the fragmentation of audiences the convergence of media and the transnationalisation of the television industries impact in culturally specific ways It shows that these larger developments in the industries intersect with specific local histories and cultures which influence how the changes are experienced and what kind of stories they lead to Offering a comparative cultural analysis of these two industries and their output and drawing on a variety of methods which include interviews analysis of published interviews in the trade and other press some archival research and textual analysis this book shows that the global shifts in television impact in locally specific ways which implies a continuation and indeed exaggeration of existing cultural differences at the same time as we see increasing collaboration internationalisation and as a result also homogenisation between nations This book presents a unique emphasis on both transnationalising and localising tendencies highlighting the need to maintain analytical focus on the nation in this supposedly post national world It will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers in contemporary television landscape literary and film studies modern languages philosophy and economics
