Telling it Like it is, 1978 Talking Young Femininities P. Pichler, 2009-05-29 Talking Young Femininities explores the spontaneous talk of adolescent British girls from different socio cultural backgrounds examining the different discursive identities they negotiate in their talk including the cool private school girl the tough British Bangladeshi girl and the sheltered East End girl Telling it Like it is Nadya Kassam, 1997 A collection of accounts by British girls of Indian or Bengali descent covers such topics as boys friends school peer pressure arranged marriage culture and dealing with living in two cultures Language Across Boundaries Anne Ife, Janet Cotterill, 2005-04-01 Language across Boundaries is a selection of papers from the millennium conference of the British Association of Applied Linguistics The thirteen papers are written by applied linguists from Britain mainland Europe the USA Australia and Singapore working in a variety of sub disciplines of the field The boundaries of the title have been widely interpreted and the book reflects a spectrum of research ranging from work on the linguistic repercussions of individual and group identity boundaries to work dealing with ways of crossing national and cultural boundaries through language learning and language mediation in the form of translation Included in the volumes are the plenary papers given by Jennifer Coates well known for her work on language and gender on the expression of alternative masculinities and by Bencie Woll holder of the first chair of Sign Language and Deaf Studies in the UK on the insights to be gained from sign language in exploring language culture and identity Geographies of New Femininities Nina Laurie, Claire Dywer, Sarah L. Holloway, Fiona Smith, 2014-06-03 Geographies of New Femininities examines the emergence of contemporary constructions of femininity in a global context It asks whether these femininities are new and suggests that current celebrations of diversity in the lived experience and performance of women s identities are largely Euro centric Through four in depth case studies Geographies of New Femininities illustrates how constructions of femininities across the world reflect gender inequalities embedded within global local geographies of social and economic change The analysis brings together key themes in geography and feminist studies showing how globalisation and the fracturing of identities are influencing research on gender Throughout the book the authors explore spaces of opportunity and oppression for women and highlight the geographies associated with the negotiation of gender identities Geographies of New Femininities moves between empirical and theoretical debate using first hand accounts to work through methodological issues relating to gender and geography It is deliberately written in an accessible style to encourage students to engage with up to date research on gender Women in Global Migration, 1945-2000 Eleanore O. Hofstetter, 2001-03-30 With large numbers of people migrating to other countries after World War II a substantial amount of scholarship has focused on the status problems and successes of women immigrants since 1945 The first comprehensive compilation of the international literature on these women this bibliography with over 5 100 entries reveals the breadth of scholarship on feminist immigration issues Focusing particularly on sources from North America and Western Europe where most immigrant women

settled the book includes feminist analyses bibliographies demographic studies economic comparisons educational research health and medical reports legal discussions biographies and autobiographies psychological case studies religious reports sociological investigations and publications dealing with general aspects of female immigration The book covers such legal issues as citizenship international conventions on contract workers the traffic in women and services and government benefits to immigrants Medical entries include such topics as female genital mutilation comparative obstetric results and equity of treatment Education entries cover such subjects as adult education and the second language programs necessary for assimilation With entries in several languages the bibliography includes books journal articles essays and chapters in books dissertations ERIC reports national and international government documents and statistical sources With immigration a major political and social issue in most countries today the book provides an important research tool Britain Since 1945 Peter Leese,2006-09-21 Britain since 1945 is an ideal introductory text for students of British Studies cultural studies and modern British history Assuming no prior knowledge Leese offers students of all backgrounds both the essential chronological grounding and vital insight into the issues of identity necessary for a full understanding of contemporary Britain Rethinking Religious Education and Plurality Robert Jackson,2013-02 This book offers a critical view of approaches to the treatment of different religions in contemporary education in order to devise approaches to teaching and learning and to formulate policies and procedures that are fair and just to all Women in Twentieth-Century Europe Ann Allen,2007-11-19 Women s lives changed more in the 20th century than in any previous century It was a period of transformation not only of the political realm but also the household family and workplace Ranging widely over Europe this fascinating account is one of the first comprehensive surveys of its kind Language Across Boundaries Janet Cotterill,Anne Ife,2005-11-17 Language across Boundaries is a selection of papers from the millennium conference of the British Association of Applied Linguistics The thirteen papers are written by applied linguists from Britain mainland Europe the USA Australia and Singapore working in a variety of sub disciplines of the field The boundaries of the title have been widely interpreted and the book reflects a spectrum of research ranging from work on the linguistic repercussions of individual and group identity boundaries to work dealing with ways of crossing national and cultural boundaries through language learning and language mediation in the form of translation Included in the volumes are the plenary papers given by Jennifer Coates well known for her work on language and gender on the expression of alternative masculinities and by Bencie Woll holder of the first chair of Sign Language and Deaf Studies in the UK on the insights to be gained from sign language in exploring language culture and identity Dreams, Questions, Struggles Amrit Wilson,2006-02-20 From schoolgirls to matriarchs single mothers to extended families and businesswomen to factory workers the experience of Asian women in Britain today is polarised by class and religion This book explores the lives and struggles of two generations of British Asian women to present a political account of their experiences personal and public individual and collective their struggles take on power structures within the family the community and on occasion the British state Combining their personal testimony within a theoretical framework Amrit Wilson locates their experiences in the wider context of global and regional politics She examines what impact the feminist movement has had on their lives and explores issues such as domestic violence Asian marriages representations of Asian women mental disturbance and suicide Living with Mental Illness in a Globalised World Ugo Ikwuka,2021-05-03 Living with Mental Illness in a Globalised World systematically examines the manifold contributions to the burdens of living with mental illness in a developing and globalised world It explores the stigma of mental illness the burden of which compares to the symptoms of and is sometimes considered more disabling than the illness itself The book starts by reviewing the socio psychological and cultural processes that contribute to stigma and providing evidence based interventions to combat it Chapters critically investigate the ideological and instrumental barriers to mental healthcare and establish that determining the conceptualisations of mental illness helps to unravel the reasons for the underutilisation of mental health services A compelling case is made for a complementary healthcare model and bottom up approach that is sensitive to the spiritual and cultural needs of the people The text s specific examination of mental healthcare in African countries makes it a timely piece for assisting mental health professionals in understanding the inequities in care that Black Asian and Minority Ethnic groups face and how to improve mental healthcare and delivery to these groups

Islam, Crime and Criminal Justice Basia Spalek,2013-01-11 This book provides an important contribution to debates over the role of Muslims in British society generally as well as their experiences of and involvement in the criminal justice system and the policy implications that arise from this It is a particularly timely collection in light of both the recent disturbances in several northern English cities as well as the impact of the events of 11 September 2001 and their aftermath

Combating Social Exclusion in University Adult Education Julia Preece,2018-08-17 Published in 1999 this work suggests that widening participation is not just about changing learner expectations it is also about changing institutional expectations and practices Higher learning for example should include a broader more inclusive range of knowledge and ways of knowing than at present and criteria for learning achievement should include assessment of citizenship as well as linear outcomes

International Perspectives on Citizenship, Education and Religious Diversity Robert Jackson,2003-09-02 Citizenship is high on the agenda of education systems in many of the world s democracies As yet however discussions of citizenship education have neglected issues of religious diversity and how the study of religions can contribute to our understanding of citizenship International Perspectives on Citizenship Education and Religious Diversity brings together an international range of contributions from religious studies scholars and educators specialising in the study of religions Together these illustrate and explore the key questions for educational theory and pedagogy raised by drawing issues of religious diversity into citizenship education The chapters address and extend debates over the nature of citizenship in late modernity highlighting local and global dimensions of citizenship in relation to issues of national religious ethnic and cultural identity As well as emphasising the role religious education has to play in citizenship education this book also covers wider issues such as state supported faith schools and cultural diversity in relation to common citizenship The authors argue that critical yet reflective approaches to religious education have a distinctive and valuable contribution to make to citizenship education Issues addressed within the study of religions are related to new forms of global and cultural citizenship as well as citizenship within the nation state Ultimately this stimulating and original collection highlights the challenges and possibilities for teaching and learning about religion religions and religious diversity within an inclusive educational practice

IN SEARCH Daniel Shindler, 2020-05-28 Teachers want more Daniel Shindler's In Search Reimagining What it Means to be a Teacher is an optimistic necessary book that invites us to identify our core values as teachers school leaders and policy makers With those values we journey with him through a series of fundamental requisites that we can apply and nurture in our lives and places of work Using his teaching experiences practical examples and storytelling Daniel illustrates the requisites we should strive for honing our expertise creating powerful and memorable teaching experiences enquiring with honesty about ourselves and those we teach building meaningful one to one conversations fostering curiosity and resilience and building a wider school culture of community and pastoral care By asking the biggest questions of what it means to be an educator and not seeking simple answers the book is saying here is what is possible For Daniel teaching is alchemy and craft that goes beyond career intertwining our personal and professional lives Only a holistic approach will do if we are to create longevity which is why Daniel is asking us to reimagine what it means to be a teacher by placing it in the intersection of the private and public self Why else teach if not to live How many of us live in our careers but not our craft In short it speaks to the complexity of the human condition of teaching Our journey is enhanced by Daniel's extensive experience as a teacher of drama wellbeing and project based learning within inner cities and internationally and as lead architect of School21's ground breaking oracy curriculum The book includes a compelling foreword by Jeffrey Boakye teacher and bestselling author of Black Listed and Hold Tight In a world of constant change and shifting priorities never has the search for craft and meaning been more necessary Teaching is a search It's the effort to walk towards not forward or upwards but inwards towards the self and outwards towards others at the same time We've all got a search in us and trust me In Search is 100% a jumping off point for your own journey whatever that may be Jeffrey Boakye Bestselling author of Black Listed and Hold Tight I loved its scope the depth of thinking the range of references the way public and private school and life cross over It got me thinking differently about things It's also the perfect antidote to all the books around that reduce teaching to chunks or a series of moves and techniques Peter Hyman Co Director of Big Education Co founder of School 21
