this book multiple authors and perspectives converge on the materiality of storytelling in order to court its potentialities and flesh out its tensions Reflecting through its methodological multiplicity not only the vast array of discourses and disciplines that concern themselves with the study of narration but also the various and variable subjects of the act of telling the collective effort of this volume is less to map or track than to amplify the possibilities of contingent situations embodied relations and specific texts in which beyond the tale the telling itself speaks and matters The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling, 2017 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story The Ideal of Culture Joseph Epstein, 2018-05-01 Who is the greatest living essayist writing in English Joseph Epstein would surely be at the top of anybody's list Epstein is penetrating He is witty He has a magic touch with words that hard to define but immediately recognizable quality called style Above all he is impossible to put down Joseph Epstein's The Ideal of Culture Essays is the fourth such volume from Axios Press and contains 63 essays Subjects range from domestic life to current social trends to an appraisal of contemporary nuttiness It follows the much acclaimed Essays in Biography 2012 A Literary Education and Other Essays 2014 and Wind Sprints Shorter Essays 2016 After reading Epstein we see life with a fresh eye We also see ourselves a little more clearly This is what Plutarch intended life teaching by example but with a wry smile and such a sure hand that we hardly notice the instruction It is just pure pleasure

Nabokov's Women Elena Rakhimova-Sommers, 2017-10-15 Nabokov's Women The Silent Sisterhood of Textual Nomads is the first book length study to focus on Nabokov's relationship with his heroines Essays by distinguished Nabokov scholars explore the multilayered and nomadic nature of Nabokov's women their voice and voicelessness their absentness the paradigm of power and sacrifice within which they are situated the paradox of their unattainability their complex relationship with textual borders the travel narrative with the author himself By design Nabokov's woman is often assigned a short term tourist visa with a firm expiration date Her departure is facilitated by death or involuntary absence which watermarks her into the male protagonist's narrative granting him an artistic release or a gift of self understanding When she leaves the stage her portrait remains ambiguous She can be powerfully enigmatic but not self actualized enough to be dynamic or for even where the terms of her existence are deeply considered or her image beheld reverently her recognition seems to be limited to the Works Cited register of the male narrator s personal life As a result Nabokov s texts often feature a nomadic woman who seems to live without a narratorial homeland papers of her own or storytelling privileges This volume explores the residency status of Nabokov s silent nomads his fleeting lovers witches muses mermaids and nymphets As Nabokov scholars analyze the power dynamic of the writer s narrative of male desire they ponder are these female characters directionless wanderers or covert operatives in the terrain of Nabokov s text Whereas each essay addresses a different aspect of Nabokov s artistic relationship with the feminine together they explore the politics of representation authorization and voicelessness This collection offers new ways of reading and teaching Nabokov and is poised to appeal to a wide range of student and scholarly audiences Chapter 4 Nabokov s Mermaid Spring in Fialta by Elena Rakhimova Sommers is not available in the ebook format due to digital rights restrictions You can find the earlier version of the chapter in the journal Nabokov Studies Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character s story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license via link springer.com Art in Doubt Tatyana Gershkovich, 2022-10-15 Leo Tolstoy s and Vladimir Nabokov s radically opposed aesthetic worldviews emanate from a shared intuition that approaching a text skeptically is easy but trusting it is hard Two figures central to the Russian literary tradition Tolstoy the moralist and Nabokov the aesthete seem to have sharply conflicting ideas about the purpose of literature Tatyana Gershkovich undermines this familiar opposition by identifying a shared fear at the root of their seemingly antithetical aesthetics that one s experience of the world might be entirely one s own private and impossible to share through art Art in Doubt Tolstoy Nabokov and the Problem of Other Minds reconceives the pair s celebrated fiction and contentious theorizing as coherent lifelong efforts to reckon with the problem of other people s minds Gershkovich demonstrates how the authors shared yearning for an impossibly intimate knowledge of others formed and deformed their fiction and brought them through parallel logic to their rival late styles Tolstoy s rustic simplicity and Nabokov s baroque complexity Unlike those authors for whom the skeptical predicament ends in absurdity or despair Tolstoy and Nabokov both hold out hope that skepticism can be overcome not by force of will but with the right kind of text one designed to withstand our impulse to doubt it Through close readings of key canonical works Anna Karenina The Kreutzer Sonata Hadji Murat The Gift Pale Fire this book brings the twin titans of Russian fiction to bear on contemporary debates about how we read now and how we ought to

The Writer's Book of Memory Janine Rider, 2013-11-05 Memory has long been ignored by rhetoricians because the written word has made memorization virtually obsolete Recently however as part of a revival of interest in classical rhetoric scholars have begun to realize that memory offers vast possibilities for today's writers Synthesizing research from rhetoric psychology philosophy and literary and composition studies this volume brings together many historical and contemporary theories of memory Yet its focus is clear memory is a generator of knowledge and a creative force which deserves attention at the beginning of and throughout the writing process This volume emphasizes the importance of recognizing memory's powers in an age in which mass media influence us all and electronic communication changes the way we think and write It also addresses the importance of the individual memory and voice in an age which promotes conformity Written in a strong lively personal manner the book covers a great deal of scholarly material It is never overbearing and the extensive bibliography offers rich vistas for further study
