Speaking With A Pause Francis E. Ready, 2024-01-23. Speech anxiety is one of the most common fears. Public speaking is the number one fear in most countries. It's unfortunate for most people that in many professions, some amount of public speaking is necessary. You can be called upon to present in a small meeting, give an update to the entire company, or present at an event. No matter what it is and how hard it might sound, there are steps you can take to prepare and improve your skills in order to deliver excellently. If you are afraid of speaking in public, you are not alone. You can learn how to overcome the fear of public speaking and be able to speak boldly in front of any audience. Fear is the expectation of pain. You have to find out if your fear is real or an imagination. We tend to fear how others will judge us; whether we will make a mistake or whether we will be mocked because we forgot what we were going to say We need to understand that feeling nervous and anxious before speaking to an audience is a normal thing It is something to be expected and not feared Embrace the fear and turn it to your advantage In this book effective strategies to help you develop into someone who can speak greatly in public without fear have been listed These strategies will help you get rid of your fears when it comes to public speaking
