Special Education Needs In Bilingual Programs:

Special Education Needs in Bilingual Programs Victoria Bergin, 1980 The author surveys the legal and educational developments that have focused attention on the child with limited English who also is physically handicapped or emotionally disturbed and describes some of the current methods being used to deal with this child An historical review offers an overview of some of the critical happenings leading to present legislation and educational policies Events from 1964 to the present are traced A chapter on parent and community support focuses on the use of parents as paraprofessionals and the expansion of existing models for delivering mental health services to minority language communities Basic principles which guide the design of any staff training program are examined in a third chapter characteristics of the instructional program characteristics of the students to be served and the set of skills needed by instructional personnel working with the specified students in programs One model for teacher training the Diagnostic Special Education Personnel Preparation Program is described A fifth chapter considers four propositions which merit consideration in designing curriculum reflecting a multicultural multilingual society and offers descriptions of 18 bilingual special education programs including Acoma Early Intervention Project Responsive Environment Program for Spanish American Children and Comprehensive Hearing Impaired Reception Program A final chapter considers some of the available bilingual materials A list of references concludes the document SBH Bilingual Special Education for the 21st Century: A New Interface Colón, Gliset, Alsace, Tamara

O., 2022-05-13 Bilingual students with disabilities have an established right to be educated in their most proficient language However in practice many culturally and linguistically diverse students still do not receive the quality of education that they are promised and deserve Multilingual learners with disabilities must be acknowledged for the assets they bring and engaged in classroom learning that is rigorous and relevant Bilingual Special Education for the 21st Century A New Interface addresses the complex intersection of bilingual education and special education with the overlay of culturally and linguistically sustaining practices This work provides practical solutions to current dilemmas and challenges today s educators of multilingual learners with disabilities face in the classroom Covering topics such as dual language education identification practices and transition planning this book is an essential resource for special education experts faculty and administration of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers researchers and academicians The Bilingual

Special Education Interface Leonard Baca, Hermes T. Cervantes, 1998 This text is appropriate for courses that deal with Bilingual Special Bilingual Special and Multicultural Special Education This resource is designed to familiarize educators with the major needs of the exceptional child with limited skills in English Organized to emphasize the link between bilingual and special education this unique updated edition addresses the need for school districts to adjust instructional programs and service delivery models to accommodate the tremendous increase in the number of Asian Hispanic and Native American students By making such adjustments school districts can better serve other linguistically and culturally different individuals

English Language Learners with Special Education Needs Alfredo J. Artiles, Alba A. Ortiz, 2002 Because procedures are not in place in many schools and school districts to successfully determine academic placement of English language learners many of these learners are placed inappropriately Some who don't need special services other than English as a second language may find themselves in special education classes Others who need special services may be placed in regular classes without the extra supports and services that they need Working with English language learners and with students requiring special education services requires collaboration among teachers school psychologists speech pathologists and assessment personnel with expertise in general bilingual and special education

Inclusive Education in Bilingual and Plurilingual Programs Mañoso-Pacheco, Lidia, Estrada Chichón, José Luis, Sánchez-Cabrero, Roberto, 2024-02-07 Implementing bilingual and plurilingual education programs has ushered in a transformative era for educators worldwide These programs have redefined teaching practices and thrust diversity into the spotlight as a central concern During this paradigm shift the need to cater to diverse students has become paramount particularly in monolingual European contexts where bilingual and plurilingual instruction is often perceived as a formidable challenge especially for learners with special needs Inclusive Education in Bilingual and Plurilingual Programs assembles a compendium of international theoretical and practical contributions shedding light on the intricate interplay between diversity and bilingual or plurilingual education This book delves into the multifaceted realm of attention to diversity in education where the focus is on tailoring teaching methods to the specific needs of students encompassing differences in abilities learning paces and styles which empowers students to acquire essential competencies and attain educational objectives at each stage of their academic journey Secondly it traverses the landscape of bilingual and plurilingual education which has emerged in response to the societal employment and economic demands for language proficiency beyond one's mother tongue This book is essential reading for many educational stakeholders engaged in bilingual or plurilingual education Teachers at every educational level along with teacher trainers at tertiary institutions will find valuable insights for tailoring their pedagogical approaches to the unique needs of their students
