Teaching the Primary Curriculum for Constructive Learning Michael Little, Laura Huxford, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1998 There is a current preoccupation with educational standards with claims that overall standards of achievement have fallen The purpose of this book therefore is to address the question of how children learn across the primary National Curriculum subjects with implications for effective teaching approaches The book emphasises a constructivist view of learning which acknowledges that children have views and attitudes which are formed as a result of experiences in and out of school and that these must be taken into account if meaningful and transferable learning is to be achieved Education and Globalization in Southeast Asia Lee Hock Guan, 2018-02-14

Prior to the era of globalization education in Southeast Asia was viewed in the context of the national state and it was deployed in the service of state and nation building and national economic development States monopolized education and public funded centralized education systems were established to teach literacy transmit national cultures and promote social cohesion and to produce literate workers Globalization forces however dramatically impacted in varying ways and degrees the national education systems across the region As states begun to see their citizens as resources to enhance the countries competitiveness in the global market it among other things led to the increasing demand for highly skilled and qualified human capital The accompanying neoliberal ideology led to varying degrees of decentralization privatization and internationalization of education especially of higher education in Southeast Asia The chapters in this volume focus on a number of issues and challenges confronting the education sector in Southeast Asia including i the contrasting language in education policy in Singapore and Malaysia ii the introduction of an English medium private education sector in Malaysia iii the internationalization of Thai higher education iv access and quality issues in the massification of Malaysian higher education v secondary school quality and higher education participation in Indonesia vi equity access and retention in primary school education in Malaysia and vii reforms in the primary and secondary education in Myanmar The Report:

Kuwait Oxford Business Group, 2015-09-28 Kuwait is one of the biggest players in the global energy market with its proven oil reserves currently the sixth largest in the world Although revenues from hydrocarbons account for more than 60% of GDP and 95% of exports the country's low production costs and sizeable fiscal reserves mean it is well positioned to cope with lower oil prices in the short term This is clear from the government's ongoing commitment to delivering projects outlined in the national development strategy Kuwait Vision 2035 In the financial services sector Kuwait continues to perform well as a series of regulations put in place by the Central Bank of Kuwait in recent years have served to shore up the sector's recovery from the global economic downturn Government Annual Report of the Republic of Venda Venda (South Africa),1981
