Spectres When Fashion Turns Back:

Spectres Judith Clark, 2005-03 Published to accompany the exhibition held at the ModeMuseum Province of Antwerp MoMu at the V A London curated by Judith Clark February 2005 Spectres, 2005 Fashion Curating Annamari Vänskä, Hazel Clark, 2017-12-28 As the practice of fashion curation extends into commercial galleries public and retail spaces and even to the individual self professional concepts of curating are undergoing rapid change Today everyone is seemingly able to curate but where does this leave the traditional understanding of curation as clothing collected and displayed in a museum This thought provoking volume explores the practice of fashion curating in the 21st century bridging the gap between methods of display and notions of the curatorial in fashion exhibitions commercial settings and the virtual world From fashion s earliest forays into the museum to creative collaborations between luxury fashion brands and artists this book challenges understandings of fashion curation by drawing on the palpably new spaces places and actors in today s curating scene Exploring poetic and performative museum displays in venues such as the V A Somerset House MoMu and the Royal Ontario Museum alongside the ways that brands such as Dior Chanel and Louis Vuitton have made use of the curatorial in their own commercial strategies Fashion Curating asks pressing questions about controversial funding and collaboration from the commercial fashion sector and the limitations of producing exhibitions that are at the same time critical and popular Bringing together approaches from fashion curators designers and world renowned academics curation is positioned as a critical practice that opens up new ways of conceptualizing and theorizing fashion challenging how we think and what we already know Time in Fashion Caroline Evans, Alessandra Vaccari, 2020-07-09 Few phenomena embody the notion of time as well as fashion Fast moving and rooted in the now it s constantly creating its own past through the process of rapid style change Uniquely poised between the past and the future fashion s relationship with time is unorthodox Rather than considering time in the conventional sense this anthology explores three alternative ways to think about fashion and time the first identifies the seasonal nature of fashion as an industry and shows how this has impacted on workers and wearers alike The second looks at fashion design as a ceaseless process of adaptation reconstruction and recombination of motifs in which nostalgia and revivals play their part The third construes fashion s imaginary with its capacity for fantasy and myth making as a form of alternate history that asks what if Within this framework key classic texts are juxtaposed with lesser known ones in an interdisciplinary approach that includes philosophy history literature media and fashion design ranging from the 18th century to the present It will be of interest to anyone wishing to understand one of the most complex yet inescapable aspects of fashion its relationship to time and will be a critical resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students in the humanities and all those interested in fashion in all its creative commercial and cultural aspects Teaching fashion. An introduction Romana Andò, 2020 This collection of contributions was created to prove both the complexity of the contemporary fashion system as well as the richness and openness of an interdisciplinary approach to the field that is the same that inspires the Master programme in Fashion Studies at Sapienza University of Rome All the authors either scholars or professionals in their fields are deeply involved in this educational project and they have conceived each contribution as a pedagogic tool for supporting students in better understanding the social cultural economic technological creative environmental aspects of fashion Therefore this collection aimed at providing readers with a kaleidoscopic approach a multitude of voices and perspectives a set of blended methodologies as well as theories that try to address the challenges of the permanent and accelerating transformations of the fashion system To understand the future of fashion we have to foster creative as well as critical thinking working on the knowledge we got from the past and identifying changes in advance in order to be ready and prepared for the challenges that are in front of us Fashion Cultures Revisited Stella Bruzzi, Pamela Church Gibson, 2013-12-04 Following on from the ground breaking collection Fashion Cultures this second anthology Fashion Cultures Revisited contains 26 newly commissioned chapters exploring fashion culture from the start of the new millennium to the present day The book is divided into six parts each discussing different aspects of fashion culture Shopping spaces and globalisation Changing imagery changing media Altered landscapes new modes of production Icons and their legacies Contestation compliance feminisms Making masculinities Fashion Cultures Revisited explores every facet of contemporary fashion culture and the associated spheres of photography magazines and television and shopping Consequently it is an ideal companion to those interested in fashion studies cultural studies art film fashion history sociology and gender studies

Fashion, Dress and Post-postmodernism José Blanco F., Andrew Reilly, 2021-01-28 Scholars have argued that postmodernism is dead and that we are entering into a new era that some have labelled altermodernism digimodernism performatism and post postmodernism This book expands on the nascent scholarship of post postmodernism to highlight how dress fashion and appearance are reflections of this new age The volume starts with a discussion of fashion subjectivity and time and an analysis of temporality technology and fashion in post postmodern times Later chapters analyse the work of design houses and mass producers such as Vetements Gucci and Uniqlo whose products align with post postmodern aesthetics hyperconsumption and hypermodern branding The book looks at diverse geographic and identity markers by discussing post postmodernism and the religio politico cultural questions in South Asian Muslim fashion image and identity presentation in queer social networking apps and by exploring fashion designer Tom Ford s output as a movie director Two chapters discuss the post postmodern fashion exhibition with analyses of recent exhibitions and an in depth look at the work of exhibition maker Judith Clark The final chapter is written by members of The Rational Dress Society a counter fashion collective that makes JUMPSUIT an experimental garment to replace all clothes Fashion Dress and Post postmodernism is a companion to research on relationships between post postmodernism fashion and dress and the go to resource for researchers and students interested in these areas Fashion, History, Museums Julia Petrov, 2019-02-07 This book is available as open access through the Knowledge Unlatched programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com

A remarkable resource for the field of fashion studies suitable for both newcomers and seasoned practitioners Fashion Historia A precious source in the study of the subject inspiring The Journal of Dress History The last decade has seen the growing popularity and visibility of fashion as a cultural product including its growing presence in museum exhibitions This book explores the history of fashion displays highlighting the continuity of past and present curatorial practices Comparing and contrasting exhibitions from different museums and decades from the Paris Exposition Universelle of 1900 to the Alexander McQueen Savage Beauty show at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in 2011 and beyond it makes connections between museum fashion and the wider fashion industry By critically analyzing trends in fashion exhibition practice over the 20th and early 21st centuries Julia Petrov defines and describes the varied representations of historical fashion within British and North American museum exhibitions Rooted in extensive archival research on exhibitions by global leaders in the field from the Victoria and Albert and the Bath Fashion Museum to the Brooklyn and the Royal Ontario Museums the work reveals how fashion exhibitions have been shaped by the values and anxieties associated with fashion more generally Supplemented by parallel critical approaches including museological theory historiography body theory material culture and visual studies Fashion History Museums demonstrates that in an increasingly corporate and mass mediated world fashion exhibitions must be analysed in a comparative and global context Richly illustrated with 70 images this book is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion history and museology as well as curators conservators and exhibition designers

Experimental Fashion Francesca Granata,2017-02-23 Shortlisted for the Millia Davenport Publication Award Experimental Fashion traces the proliferation of the grotesque and carnivalesque within contemporary fashion and the close relation between fashion and performance art from Lady Gaga s raw meat dress to Leigh Bowery s performance style The book examines the designers and performance artists at the turn of the twenty first century whose work challenges established codes of what represents the fashionable body These innovative people the book argues make their challenges through dynamic strategies of parody humour and inversion It explores the experimental work of modern designers such as Georgina Godley Bernhard Willhelm Rei Kawakubo and fashion designer performance artist and club figure Leigh Bowery It also discusses the increased centrality of experimental fashion through the pop phenomenon Lady Gaga

The Television World of Pushing Daisies Alissa Burger,2014-01-10 Pushing Daisies was a unique network television show This collection of 10 essays addresses the quirky off beat elements that made the show a popular success as well as fodder for scholarly inquiry Divided into three main sections the essays address the themes of difference the placement of the series within a larger philosophical context and the role of gender on the show A consideration of Pushing Daisies unique style and aesthetics is a consistent source of interest across these international and interdisciplinary scholarly critiques

Fashion: A Very Short Introduction Rebecca Arnold,2009-10-22 Fashion is a global industry and plays a role in our economic political cultural and social lives However fashion is often denigrated as trivial and superficial a sign of vanity and narcissism This Very Short Introduction will give a clear understanding of how fashion has developed while addressing these divergent views The End of Fashion Adam Geczy, Vicki Karaminas, 2018-11-01 Attitudes to fashion have changed radically in the twenty first century Dress is increasingly approached as a means of self expression rather than as a signifier of status or profession and designers are increasingly treated as artists as fashion moves towards art and enters the gallery museum and retail space This book is the first to fully explore the causes and implications of this shift examining the impact of technological innovation globalization and the growth of the internet The End of Fashion focuses on the ways in which our understanding of fashion and the fashion system have transformed as mass mediation and digitization continue to broaden the way that contemporary fashion is perceived and consumed Exploring everything from the rise of online shopping to the emergence of bloggers as power elites who have revolutionized the terrain of traditional fashion reportage this volume anatomizes a world in which runway shows now compete with live streaming digital fashion films Instagram and Pinterest Bringing together original cutting edge contributions from leading international scholars this book is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion and cultural studies as well as anyone interested in exploring the dramatic shifts that have shaken the fashion world this century and what they might say about larger changes within an increasingly global and digital society The Birth of Cool Carol Tulloch, 2016-01-28 It is broadly recognized that black style had a clear and profound influence on the history of dress in the twentieth century with black culture and fashion having long been defined as cool Yet despite this high profile in depth explorations of the culture and history of style and dress in the African diaspora are a relatively recent area of enquiry The Birth of Cool asserts that cool is seen as an arbiter of presence and relates how both iconic and ordinary black individuals and groups have marked out their lives through the styling of their bodies Focusing on counter and sub cultural contexts this book investigates the role of dress in the creation and assertion of black identity From the gardenia corsage worn by Billie Holiday to the work wear of female African Jamaican market traders through to the home dressmaking of black Britons in the 1960s and the meaning of a polo neck jumper as depicted in a 1934 self portrait by African American artist Malvin Gray Johnson this study looks at the ways in which the diaspora experience is expressed through self image Spanning the late nineteenth century to the modern day the book draws on ready made and homemade fashion photographs paintings and films published and unpublished biographies and letters from Britain Jamaica South Africa and the United States to consider how personal style statements reflect issues of racial and cultural difference The Birth of Cool is a powerful exploration of how style and dress both initiate and confirm change and the ways in which they expresses identity and resistance in black culture Fashion Theory ,1997 Fashion Theory Volume 12 Issue 2 Alistair O'Neill, 2008-06-15 Special Issue Fashion Curation Exhibitions of fashion textiles and dress in museums and galleries have grown inordinately over the last fifteen to twenty years This special issue extends from the previous issue Exhibitionism Vol 12 Issue 1 to examine the considerations raised by teaching fashion curation as a discipline concerned with the cultural worth of dress on display MA

Fashion Curation at London College of Fashion University of Arts London was established in 2004 and this issue reflects the discourse generated from its programme and documents some of its initial projects The special issue balances the practical and theoretical concerns of contemporary fashion curation and explores emerging cultural and commercial contexts for a practice informed by both academia and the museums and galleries sector Indexed by the IBSS International Bibliography of Social Sciences the DAAI Design and Applied Arts Index ARTbibliographies Modern Abstracts in Anthropology the Anthropological Index Online AIO of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Sociological abstracts ISI Web of Science Arts K G Saur Verlag s IBR International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature and Social Sciences and K G Verlag s IBZ International Bibliography of Periodical Literature on Humanities and Social Sciences

Dressed in Time Margaret Maynard,2022-12-01 Through object based case studies of garments from the ancient past through to the 21st century Margaret Maynard reveals the countless ways the temporal is woven into our attire From the physical effects of age on garments to their changing cultural significance time and fashion are inextricably linked Every garment has its own pace and narrative and every dress practice is rich with temporal associations wearing time in the form of wristwatches marking key moments in time from marriage to death defying time with beauty products preserving and reimagining time through vintage and concepts of timeless and classic styles This ground breaking book presents a complete rethinking of the study of global fashion history revealing the complex nature of changing fashion when viewed through the lens of time and challenging Eurocentric approaches such as the periodization of style and the arbitrary division of western and non western fashion Fashion in Time is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion and dress history material culture studies cultural anthropology archaeology and related fields

Fashioning Horror Julia Petrov,Gudrun D. Whitehead,2017-12-14 From Jack the Ripper to Frankenstein Halloween customs to Alexander McQueen collections Fashioning Horror examines how terror is fashioned visually symbolically and materially through fashion and costume in literature film and real life With a series of case studies that range from sensationalist cinema and Slasher films to true crime and nineteenth century literature the volume investigates the central importance of clothing to the horror genre and broadens our understanding of both material and popular culture Arguing that dress is fundamental to our understanding of character and setting within horror the chapters also reveal how the grotesque and horrific is at the center of fashion itself with its potential for instability disguise and carnivalesque subversion Packed with original research and bringing together a range of international scholars the book is the first to thoroughly examine the aesthetics of terror and the role of fashion in the construction of horror

The Handbook of Fashion Studies Sandy Black,Amy de la Haye,Joanne Entwistle,Regina A. Root,Agnès Rocamora,Helen Thomas,2014-01-02 The Handbook of Fashion Studies identifies an innovative spectrum of thematic approaches key strands and interdisciplinary concepts that continue to push forward the boundaries of fashion studies The book is divided into seven sections Fashion Identity and Difference Spaces of Fashion Fashion and Materiality

Fashion Agency and Policy Science Technology and New fashion Fashion and Time and Sustainable Fashion in a Globalised world Each section consists of approximately four essays authored by established researchers in the field from the UK USA Netherlands Sweden Canada and Australia The essays are written by international subject specialists who each engage with their section s theme in the light of their own discipline and provide clear case studies to further knowledge on fashion This consistency provides clarity and permits comparative analysis The handbook will be essential reading for students of fashion as well as professionals in the industry

Retromania Simon Reynolds,2011-07-19 We live in a pop age gone loco for retro and crazy for commemoration But what happens when we run out of past Are we heading toward a sort of cultural ecological catastrophe where the archival stream of pop history has been exhausted Simon Reynolds argues that we have indeed reached a tipping point

Museum Making Suzanne Macleod,Laura Hourston Hanks,Jonathan Hale,2012-03-15 Over recent decades many museums galleries and historic sites around the world have enjoyed an unprecedented level of large scale investment in their capital infrastructure in building refurbishments and new gallery displays This period has also seen the creation of countless new purpose built museums and galleries suggesting a fundamental re evaluation of the processes of designing and shaping of museums Museum Making Narratives Architectures Exhibitions examines this re making by exploring the inherently spatial character of narrative in the museum and its potential to connect on the deepest levels with human perception and imagination Through this uniting theme the chapters explore the power of narratives as structured experiences unfolding in space and time as well as the use of theatre film and other technologies of storytelling by contemporary museum makers to generate meaningful and it is argued here highly effective and affective museum spaces Contributions by an internationally diverse group of museum and heritage professionals exhibition designers architects and artists with academics from a range of disciplines including museum studies theatre studies architecture design and history cut across traditional boundaries including the historical and the contemporary and together explore the various roles and functions of narrative as a mechanism for the creation of engaging and meaningful interpretive environments
