Talking Drums To Written Word:

Talking Drums to Written Word Gordon Cortis Baldwin, 1970 Traces the development of the written word for the purposes of communicating and recording knowledge From Talking Drums to the Internet Robert Gardner, Dennis Shortelle, 1997-11 From Talking Drums to the Internet is the story of the human quest to communicate more effectively It reaches far back into prehistory to explore cave paintings hieroglyphics and smoke signals all technological giant steps in their day But the volume focuses primarily on the twentieth century when the pace of innovation became an explosion and we progressed from listening to radio early in the century to watching color television at the halfway point to attempting communication with extraterrestrials at the approach of the second millennium From Talking Drums to the Internet helps the reader make sense of this dizzying profusion of breakthroughs and their impact More than 210 alphabetically arranged entries clearly explain the workings of each technology and its applications They also explain the enormous social implications of important technologies such as the printing press radio and television which have already changed forever the nature and quality of life for billions of people around the world This comprehensive volume not only brings readers up to date on the current developments in communications technology and their effects it also helps them understand the roots of controversies trace the course of important technological advances and make the acquaintance of those individuals who have played particularly important roles Its extensive illustrations lists of references and painstaking cross references make it an important and timely addition to every library collection

Orality, Form, and Lyric Unity Beverley Nadin, 2023-01-25 Orality Form and Lyric Unity examines the poetic works of Michael Donaghy and Don Paterson and their advancement of a poetics of sound and sense Observing Donaghy's critical perspectives on orality tradition and memory and Don Paterson's systems of collective relation and lyric unity this volume explores the intellectual curiosity of both poets from the classical to the contemporary in relation to music literature philosophy scientific thought and the rituals and austerities of the transcendent This text also explores the tensions occupying their work between craft and spontaneity and between the intellect and intuition that arise from a fundamental respect for form as the poet's guiding principle Orality Form and Lyric Unity exposes persuasive rhetoric and pursues a nuanced understanding of the enigmatic complexity of poetic language and its critical context This volume interrogates valuable insights into form language and poetics and clarifies and reframes these with a focus on the creative process for readers interested in poetry and the practical and critical perspectives of these poets

Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena Onyebadi, Uche T., 2019-01-15 Political campaigning affects numerous realms under the communication umbrella with each channel seeking to influence as many individuals as possible In higher education there is a growing scholarly interest in communication issues and subjects especially on the role of music in the political arena Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena provides innovative insights into providing music and songs as an integral part of sending political messages to a broader spectrum of audiences especially during political campaigns The content within this publication covers such topics as framing theory national identity and ethnic politics and is designed for politicians campaign managers political communication scholars researchers and students Interfaces of the Word Walter J. Ong, 2013-02-14 Drawing on a wide range of disciplines linguistics phenomenological analysis cultural anthropology media studies and intellectual history Walter J Ong offers a reasoned and sophisticated view of human consciousness different in many respects from that of structuralism The essays in Interfaces of the Word are grouped around the dialectically related themes of change or alienation and growth or integration Among the subjects Ong covers are the origins of speech in mother tongues the rise and final erosion of nonvernacular learned languages and the fictionalizing of audiences that is enforced by writing Other essays treat the idiom of African talking drums the ways new media interface with the old and the various connections between specific literary forms and shifts in media that register in the work of Shakespeare and Milton and in movements such as the New Criticism Ong also discusses the paradoxically nonliterary character of the Bible and the concerted blurring of fiction and actuality that marked much drama and narrative toward the close of the twentieth century Talking Drums Wanda C. Finnen, 2004-01-16 Through stories spirituals and recommended resource books Finnen exposes students to the rich history and heritage of Africa and African Americans Each chapter provides the teacher or librarian with beautifully told folktales that provide the basis for further exploration of the chapter's focus This rich resource is ideal for language arts and social studies classes and provides an invaluable source of information for public and school librarians Topics include African American Storytellers Ancestral Africa Atlantic Slave Trade The Underground Railroad Emancipation and Reconstruction The Civil Rights Movement Spiritual Heritage Musical Legacy Joy Unspeakable Barbara A. Holmes, 2017-10-15 Joy Unspeakable focuses on the aspects of the Black church that point beyond particular congregational gatherings toward a mystical and communal spirituality not within the exclusive domain of any denomination This mystical aspect of the black church is deeply implicated in the well being of African American people but is not the focus of their intentional reflection Moreover its traditions are deeply ensconced within the historical memory of the wider society and can be found in Coltrane's riffs Malcolm's exhortations the social activism of the Black Lives Matter Movement and the presidency of Barack Hussein Obama The research in this book through oral histories church records and written accounts details not only ways in which contemplative experience is built into African American collective worship but also the legacy of African monasticism a history of spiritual exemplars and unique meditative worship practices A groundbreaking work in its original edition Joy Unspeakable now appears in a new revised edition to address the effects of this contemplative tradition on activism and politics and to speak to a new generation of readers and scholars Dissonant Worlds Earle H. Waugh, 2010-10-30 How did a Belgian Oblate missionary who came to Canada to convert the aboriginals come to be buried as a Cree chief In Dissonant Worlds Earle Waugh traces the remarkable career of Roger Vandersteene his life as an Oblate missionary among the Cree his intensive study of the Cree language and folkways his status as a Cree medicine man and the evolution of his views on the relationship between aboriginal traditions and the Roman Catholicism of the missionaries who worked among them Above all Dissonant Worlds traces Vandersteene's quest to build a new religious reality a strong spiritually powerful Cree church a magnificent Cree formulation of Christian life In the wilderness of northern Canada Vandersteene found an aboriginal spirituality that inspired his own poetic and artistic nature and encouraged him to pursue a religious vision that united Cree tradition and Catholicism one that constituted a dramatic revision of contemporary Catholic ritual Through his paintings poetry and liturgical modifications Vandersteene attempted to recreate Cree reality and provide images grounded in Cree spirituality Dissonant Worlds in telling the story of Vandersteene's struggle to integrate European Catholicism and aboriginal spirituality raises the larger issue Is there a place for missionary work in the modern church It will be of interest to students of Native studies the religious history of the Oblates Canadian studies and Catholicism in the mid twentieth century

Me and My Cell Phone Crystal Powell, 2012-04-24 Cell phones and the Internet have been the recipients of in depth research on their increased and rapid integration into everyday life and the innovative appropriations associated with them in many societies The cell phone has attracted particular attention in its perceived abilities to both enhance and deconstruct social relationships Our increased access to social media and to the cell phone has taken social networking to an unprecedented level These communication technologies are revered by many as great all purpose all positive communication devices in spite of their flaws They are overwhelmingly bestowed with agency and superiority Too often they are idolized with little regard to how they affect and are affected by their users on a personal level The mutual shaping between technology and society is not adequately acknowledged Technologies in spite of the seemingly endless possibilities offered by their many functions can quite literally be sterile and useless objects outside of conscious and tangible human effort Cell phones and the Internet though undoubtedly capable of providing myriad beneficial opportunities for their users need at long last to be put in their place This book is a contribution in that regard Kindled by her own intimate history with her cell phone and a growing curiosity about ICTs in general this book is a culmination of Crystal Powell's thoughts reactions to and interpretations of some of the literature on these technologies The book draws on and critically reviews contributions by some leading authors on the social shaping of ICTs and social media to offer a more nuanced and complex understanding of technology in relation to those who use and are used by it

The Power of the Word / La puissance du verbe, 2006-01-01 This book is the record of a colloquium held at Churchill College Cambridge It pursues lines of discussion radiating out from the core theme of the power of the image understood in its pictorial iconic sensory and verbal senses Writers scholars and artists are grouped in pairs representing the two language cultures English and French Central topics covered include the manifold ways in which our readings of pictorial images old and contemporary can bridge cultures language politics and the politics of culture the limitless and instructive senses of the concept of the word the relation between orality and the written text the implications of the act of writing history and opera the word in theatre the influence of the Nobel Prize The terms of discussion universally urbane effortlessly wide ranging and deeply probing Most importantly and a reminder of how best to ensure literate wisdom in intercultural debate is the fact that the contributors gathered here have avoided all pre packaging of their reflections in the shibboleth discourses whether Freudian poststructuralist postmodern or postcolonial of our time Contributors are Anthony Kwame Appiah Biyi Bandele Jacques Chevrier Tim Cribb Ir ne d Almeida Casimir d Angelo Assia Djebar Akin Euba Christiane Fioupou Lorna Goodison Wilson Harris Marika Hedin Gerard Houghton Abiola Irele Anny King John Kinsella Henri Lop s Daniel Maximin Femi Osofisan Niyi Osundare Ato Quayson Alain Ricard Tracy Ryan Julien Sinzogan Alioune Sow Wole Soyinka George Steiner V ronique Tadjou Maria Tippet Olabiyi Ya
