Tall Story:

School Experience Peter Woods, Martyn Hammersley, 2017-04-28 First published in 1977 this volume brings together a range of viewpoints informed by reports of empirical research which bear on the experience of school. Each chapter demonstrates the application of the new sociology of education in its various guises to the world of teachers and pupils. In doing so they exemplify the fields of investigation opened up by these theoretical developments and also suggest directions ahead. The tensions in the articles reflect the tensions that existed in the sociology of education. By bringing them together the aim of this volume is to contribute to a more soundly based sociology of education. Stories Ruth Wajnryb, 2003-04-03 An exploration of story telling as discourse through a wide range of teaching activities. Classroom Ethnography Martyn Hammersley, 2021-06-23 Originally published in 1990 Classroom Ethnography examines the interplay between empirical research and methodological reflection. It explores the nature, the methods, the role and the limitations of ethnographic research on school classrooms. Beginning with examples of Hammersley's empirical research, the book then moves on to a number of reflections about the methodology of ethnographic research covering such matters as the role of theory and the relative contributions of qualitative and quantitative work. Classroom Ethnography will be of use to those with an interest in educational research methodology and in particular of ethnographic research on classrooms. Adirondack Tall Tales Helen Escha Tyler, Martha Tyler John, 2009-09-22 As Martha looked through her mother's notes and also reflected on her own life she realized there were other unfinished books about the Adirondacks. For example she has written An Adirondack Scotch Pine Love Story and in conjunction with her husband a biography of Tom Norman a well known farmer and entrepreneur in the North Country. This book of Adirondack Tall Tales is derived mostly from Helen Tyler's previous books but there are two stories that have not appeared in earlier works. Martha added a discussion of folk tales and tall tales. She also added a brief multi cultural comparison of a folk tale from Africa to show the difference between tall and folk tales. MARTHA TYLER JOHN Helen Escha Tyler 1892-1986 lived in the Adirondacks nearly 95 years and wrote several books about the Adirondacks. Martha Tyler John was born in Saranac Lake New York and returned to the Adirondacks frequently. After receiving her doctorate from Stanford University she enjoyed a lengthy career as a professor and university administrator. She wrote dozens of books and articles and also edited her mother's last book a biography of Paul Smith that was published by North Country Books. Hoosier Tall Stories Federal Writers' Project (Ind.), Writers' Program (Ind.), 1939 Lies that Tell the Truth Anne C. Hegerfeldt, 2005-01-01 Magic realism has long been treated as a phenomenon restricted to postcolonial literature. Drawing on works from Britain Lies that Tell the Truth compellingly shows how magic realist fiction can be produced also at what is usually considered to be the cultural centre without forfeiting the mode's postcolonial attitude and aims. A close analysis of works by Angela Carter Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson Robert Nye and others reveals how the techniques of magic realism generate a complex critique of the West's rational empirical worldview from within a Western context itself Understanding magic realism as a fictional analogue of anthropology and sociology Lies that Tell the Truth reads the mode as a frequently humorous but at the same time critical investigation into people's attempts to make sense of their world By laying bare the manifold strategies employed to make meaning magic realist fiction indicates that knowledge and reality cannot be reduced to hard facts but that people's dreams and fears ideas stories and beliefs must equally be taken into account

Mr. Tall Tony Earley, 2024-09-24 In Mr Tall his first story collection in two decades Tony Earley brings us seven rueful bittersweet riotous studies of characters both ordinary and mythical seeking to make sense of the world transforming around them He demonstrates once again the prodigious storytelling gifts that have made him one of the most accomplished writers of his generation In the title story a lonely young bride terrifyingly shares a remote mountain valley with a larger than life neighbor while the grieving widow of The Cryptozoologist is sure she's been visited by a Southern variant of Bigfoot Have You Seen the Stolen Girl introduces us to the ghost of Jesse James who plagues an elderly woman in the wake of a neighborhood girl's abduction In Haunted Castles of the Barrier Islands a newly empty nest couple stumbles through an impenetrable Outer Banks fog seeking a new life to replace the one they have lost while Yard Art follows the estranged wife of a famous country singer as she searches for an undiscovered statue by an enigmatic artist In the concluding novella Jack and the Mad Dog we find Jack the giant killer of the stories in full flight from threats both canine and existential Earley indelibly maps previously undiscovered territories of the human heart in these melancholy comic and occasionally strange stories Along the way he leads us on a journey from contemporary Nashville to a fantastical land of talking dogs and flying trees teaching us at every step that even in the most familiar locales the ordinary is never just that
