Tallien A Brief Romance:

Tallien Frederic Tuten,1995 A son seeing his dying father a radical activist for the first time since childhood decides to tell him the story of a French revolutionary Jean Lambert Tallien in a novel that moves deftly between past and present IP

The Bar at Twilight Frederic Tuten,2022-05-10 NEW YORK TIMES EDITORS CHOICE An incomparable storyteller serves up an enchanting concoction of art love and longing In fifteen masterful stories Frederic Tuten entertains questions of existential magnitude pervasive yearning and the creative impulse A wealthy older woman reflects on her relationship with her drowned husband a painter as she awaits her own watery demise An exhausted artist feeling stuck reads a book of criticism about allegory and symbolism before tossing her paintings out the window Writing a book about the lives of artists he admires Cezanne Monet Rousseau a man imagines how each vignette could be a life lesson for his wife the artist he perhaps admires the most Whether set in Tuten s beloved Lower East Side Rome s Borghese Gardens or a French seaside resort these stories shift seamlessly between the poignancy of memory into the logic of fairytales or dreams demonstrating Tuten s exceptional ability to transmute his passion for art and life to the page

Self Portraits: Fictions Frederic Tuten,2025-04-25 An amazing glittering glowing Proustian Conradian Borgesian diamond faceted language studded myth drowned Dream Cynthia Ozick These mysterious interrelated stories create a portrait of the author s life both real and imagined as he appears in each tale variously as hero bystander artist and ghost yielding an enchanting autobiography of the imagination Fantasy and reality collide as the book s principal characters two lovers meet part and reunite time and again at different stages in life and in landscapes both familiar and exotic Death appears as a genial waiter in a caf across from the Metropolitan Museum of Art talking circus elephants console a ringmaster for his unrequited love a young boy barter with pirates for his grandmother s soul and as a refrigerator begins spilling mini glaciers into a couple s East Village apartment a voyage to Antarctica commences on an icy schooner waiting for them in Tompkins Square Park Love and its mystery is at the core of these self portraits but love also for art for adventure and for the passion of being alive

My Young Life Frederic Tuten,2020-03-24 A love song to a lost New York New York magazine from novelist essayist and critic Frederic Tuten as he recalls his personal and artistic coming of age in 1950s New York City a defining period that would set him on the course to becoming a writer Born in the Bronx to a Sicilian mother and Southern father Frederic Tuten always dreamed of being an artist Determined to trade his neighborhood streets for the romantic avenues of Paris he learned to paint and draw falling in love with the process of putting a brush to canvas and the feeling it gave him At fifteen he decided to leave high school and pursue the bohemian life he d read about in books But before he could he would receive an extraordinary education right in his own backyard A stirring portrait and a wonderfully raw story of city boy s transformation into a writer Publishers Weekly My Young Life reveals Tuten s early formative years where he would discover the kind of life he wanted to lead As he travels downtown for classes at the Art Students League spends afternoons reading in Union Square and discovers the vibrant scenes of downtown galleries and Lower East Side bars Frederic finds himself a member of a new community of artists gathering friends influences and many girlfriends along the way Frederic Tuten has had a remarkable life writing books traveling around the world acting in and creating films and even conducting summer workshops with Paul Bowles in Tangiers Spanning two decades and bringing us from his family's kitchen table in the Bronx to the cafes of Greenwich Village and back again My Young Life is an intimate and enchanting portrait of an artist's coming of age set against one of the most exciting creative periods of our time so thrilling so precise in presenting a young man's preoccupation and occupation Steve Martin

Van Gogh's Bad Café Frederic Tuten, 2005-11 The painter van Gogh's mistress Ursula becomes lost on a shopping expedition and lands forward in time in present day New York She befriends Louis an East Village photographer and together they explore the city after which she takes Louis with her to the 19th Century to meet van Gogh The A to Z of

Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabulations that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates Due Considerations John Updike, 2008-12-30 A page turning collection of essays and literary criticism on topics ranging from books writers poker cars faith and the American libido from one of the most gifted American writers of the twentieth century and the author of the acclaimed Rabbit series Updike is one of the best essayists and critics this country has produced in the last century The Los Angeles Times Here Updike considers many books some in introductions to such classics as Walden The Portrait of a Lady and The Mabinogion and many more in reviews usually for The New Yorker Ralph Waldo Emerson and the five Biblical books of Moses come in for appraisal along with Uncle Tom's Cabin and The Wizard of Oz Contemporary American and English writers Colson Whitehead E L Doctorow Don DeLillo Norman Rush William Trevor A S Byatt Muriel Spark Ian McEwan
