Taming the Wind of Desire Carol Laderman,1993 Healing Powers and Modernity Linda H. Connor,Geoffrey Samuel,2001-02-28 What is the current state of traditional healing practices in contemporary Asian societies How are their practitioners faring in the encounter with Western science and its biomedical approach How are traditional healing practices being transformed by the politics of health within the modern nation state and by the processes of commodification typical of modern economies How do patients in Asian societies see the various healing options now open to them The authors all of whom are anthropologists observe the clashes and complementarities between traditional therapies and biomedicine which in its many manifestations is the dominant form of medicine supported by national governments and is emblematic of the modernity to which they aspire Some of the medical traditions such as the sophisticated herbal humoral systems of Tibetan medicine and Indian Ayurveda are becoming well known in the West both through scholarly study and through their increasing popularity with Western patients interested in their healing potential This book adds a new dimension to their study being focused unlike most previous writing on practice rather than textual tradition Theatre Histories Phillip B. Zarrilli,2010 Providing a clear journey through centuries of European North and South American African and Asian forms of theatre and performance this introduction helps the reader think critically about this exciting field through fascinating yet plain speaking essays and case studies Islam in an Era of Nation-States Robert W. Hefner,Patricia Horvatic,1997-09-01 The renewal of the Muslim faith which has occurred not only in Asia but in other parts of the world has prompted warnings of an imminent clash of civilizations between Islam and the West Islam in an Era of Nation States examines the history politics and meanings of this resurgence in Indonesia Malaysia and the Philippines and explores its implications for Southeast Asia the larger Muslim world and the West This volume will be of interest to students of Islam Southeast Asian history and the anthropology of religion In examining the politics and meanings of Islamic resurgence it will also speak to political scientists religious scholars and others concerned with culture and politics in the late modern era National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 Islamisation A. C. S. Peacock,2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history EurASEAA14 Volume II: Material
