

A romantic scene featuring a man and a woman in a field at sunset. The man, on the left, has long brown hair tied back and a beard, wearing a brown jacket over a dark shirt. The woman, on the right, has dark hair styled in a braid and is wearing a light purple dress. They are facing each other, smiling, with the man's hand on the woman's waist. The background is a soft-focus field of tall grass and wildflowers under a warm, golden sunset sky.

L'Humain et l'Animal dans la France médiévale (XIIe-XVe s.) Irène Fabry-Tehranchi, Anna Russakoff, 2014-08-01 Ce recueil explore les relations mouvantes entre hommes et animaux aussi bien réels que fantastiques dans la France médiévale dans une perspective interdisciplinaire Les auteurs examinent la façon dont le rapport humain animal a été imaginé fini et remodelé dans la pensée la culture et la production artistique du Moyen Âge La distinction entre l'humain et l'animal fondamentale dans le texte biblique et la philosophie antique a été remise en question au cours du XIIe siècle Ce phénomène transparaît dans la terminologie utilisée pour désigner les animaux dans leur représentation dans les arts et la littérature et dans l'évolution de textes fondamentaux comme le Physiologus ou les bestiaires Les frontières entre le monde humain et animal fondées sur des critères comme la maîtrise du langage la capacité ou la responsabilité morale ont profondément évolué et ont été remises en cause entre le XIIe et le XVe siècle This is the first volume that explores the changing relationships between humans and animals both real and fantastic in medieval France from a completely interdisciplinary perspective The authors examine the way the human animal rapport was imagined defined and remodeled in thought culture and artistic production The distinction between human and animal fundamental in the Bible and in Ancient philosophy was challenged throughout the course of the 12th century This phenomenon can be traced in changes in the terminology used to designate animals in their representations in the arts and literature and in the reworking of fundamental texts such as the Physiologus and the bestiaries The borders between the human and the animal world based on criteria such as linguistic ability the capacity to laugh and even legal responsibility evolved and were fundamentally reconsidered between the 12th and the 15th century

Indians and Europe Christian F. Feest, 1999-01-01

North American Indians have fired the imaginations of Europeans for the past five hundred years. The Native populations of North America have served a variety of European cultural and emotional needs ranging from noble savage role models for Old World civilization to a more sympathetic portrayal as subjugated victims of American imperialism. This comprehensive interdisciplinary collection of essays offers the first in-depth extended look at the complicated changing relationship between European and Native peoples. The contributors explore three aspects of this relationship: Why and how did the cultures and histories of Europeans enable Native peoples to become absorbed into the reality of the Old World? What happened in actual encounters between American Indian visitors and their European hosts? How did continued and increased interaction between Indians and Europeans affect established imagery and preconceptions on both sides?
